O'DONNELL DESIRES A FIGHT

Challenges Secretary Wyndham to Come Into the Open With Soldiers or Police.

TO SETTLE LAND QUESTION FOR GOOD

By Battling With the Men of Connaught—Alarming Reports From Ireland.

London, Jan. 30.—Despatches received from Dublin contain alarming reports of the reign of terror prevailing in Roscommon County. Tenants who are suspected of paying rent are visited at night by armed men, notices are posted threatening death to traitors, and midnight meetings are of nightly occurrence, the people being assembled by beacon fires. John O'Donnell (member of parliament for South Mayo) is reported to have addressed a midnight meeting at Fairmount, at which he challenged the Chief Secretary for Ireland, Mr. Wyndham, to come into the open at the head of 5000 or 10,000 men, either soldiers or police. If he (Mr. Wyndham) would give the men of Connaught a month to prepare, Mr. O'Donnell said he did not hestitate to declare that they would meet them, even at great numerical odds, and settle the land question for good.

FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN.

Northern Pacific Will Spend a Million to Do It in 3 Days.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 30.—From ocean to ocean in three days is a dream the Northern Pacific will endeavor to make a reality early in the spring. Equipment will cost the system nearly $1,000,000, and will be supplied by builders in the United States. The new train will be tri-weekly, and will make an average time of 40.3 miles an hour.

Gardeners and Florists Dine.

The Toronto Gardeners' and Florists' Association held their annual dinner last night at Webb's. The tables were beautifully decorated with rare flowers, and over 100 florists and their friends heartily enjoyed the occasion. Park Commissioner John Chambers presided. The toast list included the "Dominion and Provincial Parliaments," responded to by W. R. Brock, M.P.; "The Mayor and Corporation," responded to by Ald. McMurrich. Graham and Stewart; "Sister Societies," responded to by President B. Saunders of the Electoral District Society, and President Tyrell of the Horticultural Society; "Our Guests," responded to by Mr. Mac Hutchinson, New York; Mr. Webster, Hamilton, and Mr. Dale, Brampton. The musical portion of the program was supplied by J. Churchill Arlidge, Augustine Arlidge and others.

No person should go from home without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial in their possession, as change of water, cooking, climate, etc., frequently brings on summer complaint, and there is nothing like being ready with a sure remedy at hand, which oftentimes saves great suffering, and frequently valuable lives. This cordial has gained for itself a widespread reputation for affording prompt relief from all summer complaints.

Ross or Whitney?

Premier Ross has accepted for himself and Mrs. Ross the invitation of King Edward to attend the coronation next June. The acceptance raises quite an interesting point: The elections will be held before next June, and there may be a new Premier. Who, then, will be entitled to see the King don his crown?

The World called up Premier Ross last night at a late hour, and suggested the possibility of Mr. Whitney being at the head of affairs. Was the invitation accepted for himself or on behalf of the then Premier?

Said Mr. Ross, good-naturedly: "Why, for myself, of course; I will be Premier after the elections."

Nor would he discuss the question further.

It is, however, understood that the invitation came to the Premier of Ontario, and whoever he may be, Ross or Whitney, the Premier will attend the ceremonies.

Ottawa Reform Association Will Hold Weekly Meetings Till Elections Are Over.

MINISTER OF FINANCE SPEAKS

Mr. Belcourt Tells of His Trip to England—Darcy Scott Announces His Candidature.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—Weekly meetings of the Ottawa Reform Association will be held from now till the provincial elections are over. The first of the campaign series took place to-night in Orme's Hall, about 100 being present. Mr. Fielding was the only cabinet minister present. Mr. Tarte, who was billed to appear, wrote that he was too ill to attend.

The Finance Minister made the speech of the evening, and also threw out generous hints as to what the government might do in the way of beautifying the Capital. Commenting upon the small attendance, Mr. Fielding advised a more liberal use of printers' ink in announcing future meetings. He ventured a joke on the recent municipal muddle. It was an old saying, he observed, in speaking of the progress of the country, that money made the mare go; but money was not the only thing that made the Mayor go in Ottawa.

"A previous speaker," the Finance Minister said, "has told you that the Liberals are in power for all time to come. That's a rather long contract, but if we don't lose our heads we'll be here for some reasonable time."

Mr. Belcourt, M.P., assured the meeting that when in England recently he found one had only to announce himself as a Canadian, and all doors were opened to one. That, he solemnly stated, was largely due to the policy of the Liberal government. He warned the party to expect the Conservatives to put up a hot fight in Ottawa.

Ex-Ald. Darcy Scott announced his intention to go to the convention.

The other Irish Roman Catholics also looking for the Liberal nomination are ex-Ald. Bingham and ex-Ald. James White. Either Mr. A. W. Fraser or Mr. Alex. Lumsden, M.L.A., will be the Protestant candidate; but some influential Liberals contend that Mr. Lumsden will withdraw before the convention.

Theft From C.P.R. Cars.

Thefts from C.P.R. cars on local sidings have been numerous of late, and the constables of the railway service have been putting forth their best efforts to catch the thieves. Constable Archibald Mackenzie was busy about the yards last night, when William Scott of 157 De Grassi-street approached, with a package of figs under his arm. Scott, who is an employe of the road, could not tell how he came by the parcel, and was locked up on a charge of theft.

EX-PRINCIPAL MACMURCHY HONORED

His Portrait Unveiled at Dinner of Grammar School Old Boys.

The sixth annual banquet of the Toronto Grammar School Old Boys' Association was held last night at McConkey's. There were many guests of honor, including ex-Principal MacMurchy, L. V. McBrady, chairman of the Collegiate Institute Board, Principals L. E. Embree and H. B. Spotton, Dickson Patterson, Prof. Mavor, Alex. Fraser, Hartley Dewart, K.C., Dr. E. H. Adams, F. B. Fetherstonhaugh, Dr. C. R. Cuthbertson, Dr. J. E. Caven, G. H. Fenson, J. H. Horsey and Principal Manley.

With the dinner disposed of, Chairman Thomas C. Irving proposed the toast of the King, which was followed by the hearty singing of the National Anthem. F. J. Roche proposed the toast of "Our Country," and Mr. R. Mackay replied. Hartley Dewart, T. Hunter and G. S. Macdonald spoke for "Our School."

The event of the evening was the presentation of a portrait of ex-Principal MacMurchy to the school, which is now known as the Jarvis-street Collegiate Institute. Prof. Baker made the presentation. He declared it was a unique event in the history of the school and its development under Principal MacMurchy. His term of office of 40 years represented enormous changes in the educational system of Ontario, in all of which he had played an important part, and many of which he had been the means of bringing about. Mr. MacMurchy had been one of the first trained Canadian teachers to make his appearance in a secondary school, and his long and splendid administration proved what a Canadian bred teacher with Canadian ideals could do. His character came thru long lines of ancestors. He is a distinguished graduate of Toronto University, and medalist in mathematics. His sympathies had not been limited to his favorite study. In reading, he had a broad and deep mind, and was possessed of fine literary ability. At the time of the Fenian raid, he left family, school and all that was dear to him to fight for his country.

Prof. Baker then unveiled the portrait, and Principal Manley received it on behalf of the school.

Principal MacMurchy, who was received with loud cheers, delivered a brief address. He traced the history of the school from the time it was the old district Grammar School, presided over by the Venerable Archdeacon of York. He reviewed his connection with the institution, and made a plea for secondary schools, which, he said, were institutions in which scholars could find the vocation for which they were best fitted, and declared himself in favor of scholarships in Public and High Schools to aid poor boys.

BANQUET TO EDGAR A. WILLS

Retiring Secretary of Board of Trade Honored By His Old Associates.

BATTLE FOR TRADE SUPREMACY

Ex-Minister of Finance Urges Canadians to Get After Business in South Africa.

The esteem in which Edgar A. Wills is held and the deep regret caused by his retirement from the secretaryship of the Toronto Board of Trade was attested at the banquet given in his honor at the National Club last night. The dinner was tendered Mr. Wills by the members of the Board of Trade, and the National Club, and was a brilliant function. The opportunity was also taken by several of those present to give a word of advice to Toronto's business men to wake up to the question of Canada's trade and commerce.

Mr. Edward Gurney presided. At his right sat the guest of the evening, Mr. Wills, and on his left hand J. F. Ellis, president of the National Club, and first vice-president of the Board of Trade. Others present were: A. E. Ames, president of the Board of Trade; James D. Allan, second vice-president of the Board of Trade; Thomas A. Russell, secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association; Paul Jarvis, secretary of the Board of Trade; Lieut.-Col. Mason, ex-Ald. E. Strachan Cox, Lieut.-Col. Denison, A. E. Kemp, M.P.; W. K. McNaught, D. W. Thomson, D. O. Anderson, E. R. Woods, Dr. Davison, James Hedley, Barlow Cumberland, Hugh Blain, A. Ansley, Thomas Robertson, Hon. George E. Foster, W. J. Douglas, A. D. Laurie, secretary of the National Club; H. C. Cross, Fred Diver, W. J. Gage, Noel Marshall, P. M. Clark, Dr. Kennedy, J. Short, McMaster, Frank Arnoldi, K.C.; Stapleton Caldecott, W. C. Matthews, S. Frank Wilson, C. B. Watts, George E. Wills (son of the honored guest), James S. Hamilton, Oscar Wenborne, M. C. Ellis, Alex. Gorrie, J. W. Woods, N. C. Candee, W. P. Gundy, E. C. Boeckh, D. Henderson, P. W. Ellis, C. Gurney, R. W. Millichamp, S. G. Beatty, Dr. A. Smith, William Stone, W. B. Tyndall, Alex. Nairn, M. R. Riddell, A. K. Evans, E. Pearson, Lieut.-Col. Sloan and W. K. George.

Letters of regret were read from George R. Parkin, William Beatty, W. F. Cockshutt of Brantford, and Mayor Howland.

In a felicitous speech the chairman proposed the health of the guest of the evening.

Mr. Wills' reply was happy, and reminiscent of the early life of the Board of Trade and the National Club.

President Ellis of the National Club, on behalf of the club, then presented Mr. Wills with an honorary life membership.

Hon. George E. Foster, in replying to the toast, "The Trade and Commerce of Canada," declared that the prosperity of the country at the present time was owing in a great measure to the splendid foundations laid about 25 years ago. Trade and commerce cannot progress merely on sentiment. Sentiment was a good thing, but today it was quality that was wanted, and it meant barter for barter and the best price for the best goods. To a great extent trade follows the flag. Trade would follow the British flag into South Africa when it was firmly established there. "You must look to the men who planted the flag there," said the ex-Minister of Finance, amidst cheers. For over two years the flag was finding its abiding place in South Africa, and when it was found he hoped it would never be ousted.

Britain's generosity, he said, was glorious, it was magnificent, but it was not business. The mistake of Majuba Hill was a monument to Gladstone's policy. He hoped soon to see the business men roll up their sleeves and give foreign powers a battle for the trade supremacy in South Africa, for the glory of God and the good of the empire. Mr. Foster urged the business men to refrain from deception in shipments.

Lieut.-Col. Denison urged that in the coming conference to be held in London something should be done to protect the trade of Great Britain. He suggested a duty of 5 or 10 per cent. on all foreign goods entering at every British point.

Mr. Ames and James Hedley also spoke.

During the evening solos were rendered by Alexander Gorrie and Oscar Wenborne.

SPEAK WITH CERTAIN SOUND

were jeopardized, they should have the privilege of demanding a referendum, or, if the prohibitionists felt the interest of their cause would be advanced in any way, they should have a like privilege. In the cases of the Duncan and Scott Acts, the referenda were upon petitions of the people, and not at the instance of the government. With a referendum they would have the right to expect the moral support of the government, and in the case of a "loaded" referendum they would take it as an intention on the part of the government to defeat the movement. He did not admire the course of a three-fifths majority, and it was deplorable that the cordon was so strong around the party that they would not support a referendum on the principle of a simple majority.

Rev. Mr. Goodspeed remarked that public opinion in regard to prohibition had been influenced by licensed victuallers with their paid articles in the press.

Three-minute addresses were delivered by gentlemen in the audience.

Mr. Moore said the government had no right to ask for a plebiscite under existing circumstances.

Mr. Thomas McGillicuddy said that prohibition would teach the liquor dealers, who told the government that they did not intend to be put out of business by a class who never dealt with them, that they were their brother's keepers, and that the country was ripe for prohibition. They did not ers' keepers, and that the country was rotten before endeavoring to secure the desired legislation.

Mr. Albert Chamberlain thought the Chief of Police, by his annual report, was favorable to the liquor men. In his report he classified the drunks as miscellaneous. That was not right. He (Chamberlain) had voted for the government a good many years, and unless it kept its promise now, he would have to vote Conservative.

Ex-Ald. Bates gave a note of warning against impersonation should there be a referendum.

Mr. George Gardner wanted Mr. Ross to understand that men like Rev. Dr. Potts and Chancellor Burwash did not represent opinions of Baptists or Methodists in regard to a referendum.

Mr. J. H. Milne said the Congregationalists did not believe in Rev. Dr. Potts. They believed that the saloon must go.

At the close, Rev. Mr. Bates said another similar meeting would be held shortly.

Correction.

In reference to the meeting of the Northern Navigation Company, the only appointment made was that of Mr. Barker to the presidency. Col. MacLaren declined the vice-presidency, preferring to have a full meeting of the company first.

Do Not Try to Cure Effects.

Wisdom Directs You to Use PAINE'S CELERY COMPOUND To Get Rid of the Cause of Your Sickness.

To use medicine to cure effects instead of using Paine's Celery Compound to get rid of the cause is great folly. Paine's Celery Compound will make you strong and well. All the while you are using it the nerves gain in power and strength, the digestive organs are fully toned, and lost health rapidly returns. It is folly to neglect what some call the insignificant ills, aches, pains and tired feelings that thousands of people experience at this time of the year. Paine's Celery Compound should be used at once to brace up the diseased nerves, purify the blood and fortify the system. Weak children, frail and weary women, and tired and brokendown men find a new and happy life after Paine's Celery Compound is used for a short time. Mrs. Laura Garland, Crawford-street, Toronto, says:

"Your Paine's Celery Compound has most wonderfully improved my health. Before using it my appetite was poor—almost gone; I was also weak and debilitated, and suffered severely from pains in the head.

"Paine's Celery Compound certainly does all that is claimed for it. I have recommended it to my friends, and they all speak highly of the results received from it. I wish Paine's Celery Compound the success it so richly deserves."
