A POISONED CANDY CASE.—A man named John Leslie, aged 40, whose mind is deranged, has been of late tramping round the woods in the vicinity of Cole Harbor. He has on several occasions broken into houses and barns and has proved a terror to the neighborhood. The other day he was detected giving some candy to children, which upon examination, proved to have been poisoned. Leslie was apprehended and placed in the imbecile ward of the Cole Harbor poors farm.—Halifax Mail.

AT THE TRURO HOTELS.—Two or three men with a team drove into Truro on Saturday morning about 2 o'clock, and made a simultaneous onslaught on three of the several hotels about town. They cut away the woodwork of a sash opening into the Grand Central hotel bar, removed the glass but were frightened away by a neighbor who heard the noise and came out. They also tried the Tremont house but a dog gave the alarm. The Victoria suffered considerably, however, as the glass was removed from a window, an entrance made, and $20 to $30 worth of liquors stolen. This they loaded on the wagon and drove off.

A Clergyman's Narrow Escape.

Rev. Mr. Montgomery, of Springhill while crossing over to Sugar Island the other day with Mr. Sewell to hunt geese, broke through the ice and had a narrow escape from drowning. He was only a few yards from Mr. Sewell when he went through, but the latter had a pretty difficult job in rescuing him. Mr. Sewell first tried to pull his unfortunate friend out by means of the loaded gun, which the latter threw away from him as he went down, but instead of this being of any assistance it only added to the fright of the unlucky clergyman when the barrel of the weapon was pointed towards him. When it was turned the other way and Mr. Montgomery got hold of the stalk, Mr. Sewell concluded that the direction of the barrel was not exactly in accord with his idea of self-preservation, and the gun was slowly and carefully laid on the ice. Without losing any more time Mr. Sewell pulled off his coat and threw it to his rapidly weakening friend who caught hold and was safely landed.—Fredericton Gleaner.

That Cow Question.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE GAZETTE:—

Sir,—I notice several answers to the cow problem in the last issue of THE GAZETTE. My views are the same as those of "R." I observe that the answer varies from $3, $5 and $8 gain to even $30 loss.

One point always presented by those giving $5 as an answer is, that since B. lost $5 A. made it. To illustrate: Let A. and B. perform the whole transaction. B. first sells for $32; what his cost is no one knows, therefore no one knows whether he is in or out of pocket. Presumably he has gained $2, for he at last sells her for that. The profit on any business transaction is the difference between the buying and selling prices.

The next step is a known cost and selling price to B.—$35 and $30. Here B. undoubtedly loses $5, but whether he loses $5 altogether from the unknown cost to the last selling price, no one knows. B. has had two chances for gain or loss.

No one can determine the profit and loss from two selling prices and one cost, as in B.'s part of the trade, or from two costs and one selling price, as in A.'s part of the trade. Any bookkeeper at the close of the transaction would place A.'s account as, stock on hand $30, cash $5. Since A. started out with $32, the bookkeeper would credit him to $3 profit, but A. himself would be inclined to value his stock worth $32, though in point of fact it's a dead loss till disposed of.

So, if solvable, the answer to the problem is $3. W. S. KERR.

Lacrosse

The Union Athletic club held a meeting last evening and decided to organize a lacrosse team to compete for the Nelson trophy. The "Union Athletic Club" has sprung up very suddenly, and seems to have been started by a few stragglers from the Union Lacrosse club. The members of this organization have forfeited all claim to respect by assuming the name which by right belongs to the older organization. There are many names by which the new club could identify itself, without entrenching on rights of others, particularly as lacrosse has been introduced into the sports of the new club.

Municipal Council.

At the meeting of the Municipal Council yesterday, the finance and accounts committee further reported that the criminal expenses of the last year and including the expenses incurred at the McDonald trial this year amounted to $3,073.69, to meet which $1,000 only, was, last year, estimated and assessed. The committee thought that some legislation was necessary to protect the country from the power now allowed crown officers and others to incur expenses without limit.

The following assessment was recommended for the current year:—

Alms house and work house	$12,000
Contingent fund	14,920
Interest on debentures—Alms house 1st series, $4.000 at 5 p. c.	1,000

School loan $6,500 at 5 per cent	900
Hospital loan $2,800 at 4 per cent.	1,100
	$30,420

The report was adopted.

Assessments for highways were fixed at $1,000 in labor for St. Martins; 200 in labor for Simonds; $2,500 for Lancaster, and $400 for Musquash. The following loans were authorized for highway labor: Lancaster, $1,000; Simonds, $500; Musquash, $200, and St. Martins, $300.

Coun. McCarthy moved that the mode of enforcing discipline in the jail be referred to the committee "to act with the sheriff in regard to hard labor in the jail," to inquire and consult with the sheriff as to the bread and water diet for third term offenders, and report to this board. Carried.

Coun. Ready moved that a committee be appointed to confer with the city council as to the maintenance of the road leading to Negrotown point. Carried. The warden appointed Councillors Barnes, Purdy, C. B. Lockhart, Allan and Irvine.

A communication from Judge Watters asked for $200 for board of health purposes. On motion it was resolved that a sum not exceeding $200 be paid out of the contingent fund if legislation should pass providing for assessment for that purpose.

The warden then announced the following committees:—

Finance and accounts—The warden, Ready, Balcom, Christie, C. B. Lockhart, McLeod, Robertson, Smith, McFee, Barnes and Forrest.

Provincial Points.

The ice is running thick at Fredericton and the water is rising rapidly.

The Newfoundland seal fishery, it is feared, will not be very renumerative this season.

Thomas Hughes, of Springhill, has been sentenced for larceny to two years in the penitentiary.

The Stanley, the M. A. Starr and the St. Lawrence have each been making trips between Charlottetown and Pictou last week.

Mr. Henry Stavert, Kelvin Grove, P. E. I. secured a fox and her five young ones a few days ago. They were found in a hollow log in the woods.

Rev. Father Michaud, of Buctouche, is engaged in writing an extended history of Buctouche and surrounding settlements, from the period of the expulsion of the Acadians to the present time.

Albert Gordon, of Yarmouth, N. S., one of the crew of the schooner Roseneath, of Pubnico, dropped dead on board the the schooner while on the Banks, a few days since, probably from heart disease.

The six-year-old son of Moses Brown of Fredericton, while climbing upon a loaded truck wagon yesterday afternoon, fell off, the hind wheels of the wagon passing over him and breaking a leg near the thigh.

The McLeod poisioning case is still being investigated at Westville. Mr. Best's evidence showed conclusively that Mrs. McLeod died from the effects of oxalic acid. The prisoner will probably be sent up for trial.

The manager of the Philadelphia gold mining company forwarded from Bridgewater, N. S., on Monday morning a fine gold brick weighing four hundred and sixty troy ounces, and worth in the vicinity of nine thousand dollars.

Among the changes to be made about the I. C. R. yard at Truro, will be the removal of the station building a few feet north, all freight-tracks to be south of the building and the tracks for all passenger trains to run through or into the building.

Anxiety is felt at Digby for the safety of the schooner Ferl, Capt. H. E. Kenealy, which left New York for St. Johns, Nfld., over one month ago, and of which nothing has been heard since. She is owned by Hugh Kenneally of Digby, father of the captain.

Geo. Flewwelling, of Kingston, Kings Co., was seen skating down the river near Gondola Point on the 8th inst. and since then no trace of him has been found. It is believed he skated into a hole in the ice and was drowned. He was 49 years of age and leaves a wife and six children.

A Cumberland correspondent writes; "There is likely to be a boom in real estate this summer. Numbers of farmers are now offering their farms for sale, not because of low prices of produce, or lack of productiveness, but because they have made money enough; and now at middle age have accumulated sufficient wealth to live retired.

Freights.

Messrs. Scammell Bros., in their weekly Circular, New York, April 19th; say:—

In view of the lull in the Grain trade owners of steam tonnage evince more disposition to accept business from the Southern Phosphate ports at about 20s. @ 21s, and from the St. Lawrence with Deals at about 60s. for the United Kingdom.

Deal Freights are firm on the basis of 50s. @ 52s. 6d., from St. John to the United Kingdom, and Sawn Timber from the Gulf at £5 15s. @ £5 17s. 6d. from Pensacola to the United Kingdom, and Continent. No improvement in business with the River Plate and Brazil can be noted, and rates for general cargo and lumber remain nominally steady. The West India trade, outward and homeward, is quiet, but as handy size vessels are not over-plentiful rates remain quite steady and uniform. The Cuba Sugar trade this season has been a disappointment to owners of seeking tonnage, owing to the exaltation of prices at the Island by speculation.

A steamer accepted during tne week $3 and 12 cents on hhds and bags from the North side to New York or Philadelphia, with option of Boston $3.25 and 13 cents. The going rate for Molasses by sailing vessels to ports north of Hatteras is $1.87½ per 110 gallons. The coasting trade is picking up, with the prospect of a good season's business for lumbermen and colliers, aided by active shipments of Ice from Maine and New Brunswick, and well distributed general business.

He Paralyzed The Lawyer.

A few days since a man who had been arrested on an execution for debt, issued out of the city court, and confined in the common jail, was being examined under chapter 38 of the Consolidated statutes, with a view of being released from prison. An attorney was conducting the examination and was trying to find out whether or not the prisoner had any real or personal property subject to attachment. The defendant stated that he was the owner of two horses.

"Where are those horses?" sternly demand the attorney.

"At my house," answered the prisoner.

"What value do you place on them?" was the next question.

"I should say the horses are worth about $5."

"Five dollars!" yelled the legal luminary. "What kind of horses are they at that price?"

"Well sir," calmly breathed the defendant, "one is a clothes horse, the other a wood horse."

Everybody smiled.

CLIMO'S WORK should be seen at his rooms by those who desire the finest art effects in photography, 85 Germain street.

Marriage in Stone Church.

Shortly after 7 o'clock this morning a bright assembly gathered in St. John's (Stone) church to see the marriage of Miss Adams and Mr. R. C. Grant. Roses perfumed the air; the choir lent an additional charm by rendering some fine music, and all the surroundings were most fitting to the occasion.

At 7.30 the pastor, Rev. J. deSoyres, performed the marriage ceremony and declared Ronald Cameron Grant and Emily Florence Adams man and wife. The bride, who was attired in a becoming grey travelling dress, was attended by Miss Edith Burpee and Miss Florence Boyd. Miss Burpee wore a pretty fawn colored dress with brown velvet trimmings, while Miss Boyd was attired in a pleasing costume of grey cashmere and velvet. Mr. Everett Morss, of Boston, Mass. was best man, and Messrs. Chas. F. Harrison and J. T. Twining Hartt performed the duties of ushers most creditably. The bride received a most astonishing array of beautiful presents. At 9.30 the happy couple, amid the congratulations of their many friends, left by the train on a tour to Washington and Boston. Amid the showers of rice as the train rolled out the bride and groom were saluted by the thundering reports of three torpedoes on the rails.

The bride is the daughter of the late W. H. Adams and the groom is the son of Major J. M. Grant of this city.

Salvation Army Wedding.

The Mechanics' Institute was crowded to the doors last evening by people who wished to witness the marriage of Capt. Roffee of the Salvation army to Miss Captain Urb of Toronto. The Institute was nicely decorated and as the bride walked in leaning on the arm of Major Jacobs, the household troop's band struck up a hymn. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Pope. The bride was assisted by Miss Knight of Indiantown, while Capt. Yorke lent his aid to the groom. After the knot was tied, the Salvation colors were waved over the happy couple. The bride delighted the audience with a song and a speech. The groom also spoke to some length.
