VAUDEVILLE.

Today is positively the last chance you will have to see the two vaudeville acts at the Princess, for on Monday there will be an entire new bill. Miller and Russell will today present for the last time in St. John that laugh producing sketch, The Lunatic and the Girl, and Gardner Lovell will be seen in his comedy juggling and contortion act, assisted by his trained dog, Sport. The pictures are exceptionally good—six new ones—and Mr. Waterall is singing a brand new song, Somebody Misses You Every Day, beautifully illustrated. Be early today.

NICKEL'S FEATURES TONIGHT AND MONDAY.

The Nickel will conclude this week with special wire bulletins telling the story of the great Marathon race in New York this afternoon in which Dorando, Shrubb, Hayes, Maloney, Yves, Longboat and others competed. Mr. Bennett will sing his roaring sailor farce "We parted on the Shore;" Miss Edwards and Mr. Courtnais will have selections also and there will be five picture features two of them travel scenes.

On Monday the Nickel starts the final week of the Lenten season with the most magnificent film of a religious character ever turned out of the Thos. A. Edison laboratories, entitled "The Star of Bethelem." Briefly, it tells the story of that eventful period preceding the birth of the Gentlest of Men. The life of the period is faithfully portrayed and the hardships attending the wanderings of Mary and Joseph. The stable, the arrival of the Magi, the wondrous gifts to the Child-God. King Herod, the warning angel and other details of the lovely story are pictured beautifully. Miss Edwards and Mr. Courtnais will have appropriate numbers, as will the orchestra. Mr. Bennett will assume the role of the Scotch militia sergeant in "She's Ma' Daisy," another Lauder scream.

ON THE FRONTIER.

A good old fashioned western drama with a funny Dutchman and a witty Irishman, with no end of soldiers, Indians, miners, etc., was presented last night at the Opera House by Myrkle-Harder Co. A big house enjoyed the show.

Peggy from Ireland for the matinee today.

Burglar and the Lady for tonight. This company lays off next week except Good Friday, when two last performances will be given with three new vaudeville acts.

OLD LOE OR NEW.

This tapestry doth weave old love
To life again; these colors gild the days
That died so long ago; these fair delights
Of chivalry, and virgin, courtly ways
Still lie between the covers of a book,
Where, on the ivory page, all vellum bound,
Deep yellow with the dust of years, I look
To find the record of the Table Round.
Again I see the lances flash, the armor gleam,
The horses with their trappings shining gold;
Again in some pavilion do I dream
By arras and by shield the days of old,
Ah, from these nightly pages, worn and few,
Might I but tell again old love or new!
—Jennette Marks, in Success Magazine.

YESTERDAY A BUSY ONE FOR THE CONGRESS

TORONTO, April 2.—Practical methods for the extension of the laymen's missionary movement were adopted by some sections this morning. Presbyterians and Baptists formed a national committee to carry on the work while the Anglicans will open an office in Toronto with an organizing secretary. Their convention also pledged itself to the assistance of the movement. Congregationalists will increase their home misison work by fifty per cent., concentrating attention upon the West. The responsibilities of the Methodist church were discussed, but no practical action has as yet been decided upon.

At the conference at the Metropolitan church Bishop Thoburn of India pointed out the great capabilities required of missionaries who were carrying the light of the gospel into India. People there demanded that miracles of healing be performed.

Jas. Acton of Toronto said the work of collecting funds of the movement should be undertaken by the men of the congregations.

The Presbyterians appointed a national committee of thirty-five men representative of all parts of Canada to carry on and develop the work of the laymen's missionary movement.

The Baptist church delegates unanimously decided to organize a national society to imitate and carry out missionar enterprise. Joseph N. Spencer was elected president and an executive of two hundred from all parts of Canada will be formed.

The O. H. Warwick aggregation came out victoruios over the Canadian Rubber Co. quintette in a fast match in the Commercial League on Black's alleys last evening. The final score was 1,204 to 1,194. Griffith for the winners bowled especially strong.
