WINNERS OF PRIZES

In the Provincial Musical Festival—Concluding Evening in the Auditorium Rink—Special Prize Given to Condie Choir.

The first annual competition of the Saskatchewan Musical Festival Association was brought to a close on Wednesday the 26th inst. with a grand concert in the auditorium rink, by the massed musical societies of the province, a very fitting conclusion for a highly successful, instructive and interesting fete.

Too much praise cannot be given to the originators of the festival, which has been the means of bringing together the music lovers of the province, and who it is hoped will benefit by the elaborate and instructive criticism given by the adjudicators, Messrs. Rhys Thomas and J. W. Matthews, of Winnipeg. Choral societies, choirs, quartettes and soloists all received their share of criticism, and also remedies for their various defects, and it remains to be seen how much they will improve by the time next year's festival comes round which, it has been decided, will be held at Saskatoon. Saskatchewan has a good stock of excellent musical talent, which with encouragement and good training, should be able to compete with the best.

The concluding day commenced at 10 a.m. in the city hall when selections were given by the ladies' trio from the Prince Albert Choral Society, and the ladies quartette from Knox Church, Saskatoon. The anthems given were "At Even it Shall be Light," and "Lead Kindly Light" respectively, which reflected credit on the singers. As the Arcola choir failed to appear the morning session was then closed.

In the afternoon at Knox church, the Saskatoon Knox church choir rendered "Sun of My Soul" and the test anthem "God is Love," their singing was exceedingly good, and fully merited the reward which they received. The Wolseley male quartette next sang "The Long Day Closes," and while their voices blended fairly well, they seemed afraid to sing out, with the result that most of their words were inaudible to the audience. The adjudicators then gave some decisions, a full list of which appear below.

From 7 to 7.30 p.m. was occupied with selections from Regina Knox church male quartette who sang "Lead Kindly Light," their voices blending nicely, and the time and expression being excellent, and the mixed quartette from the same church, who sang "Yea, Though I Walk," very effectively, although it was not so good as the previous quartette.

Then came the evening and concluding concert. The large auditorium was nearly filled with an enthusiastic and appreciative audience. The orchestra opened with the overture "Festal March" from Tannhauser, after which the choir consisting of about 200 voices, rendered Mendelssohn's "Fest Gesang." The singing and music were both very good and was loudly applauded. By special request from the musical talent from Prince Albert, the Orchestra again played "The Wee Macgregor," which has won the hearts of the Regina public, and it was so persistently applauded, that it was again repeated.

The adjudicators then finished their task of deciding who should have the prizes, and they were given away by Mrs. Walter Scott, the winners being enthusiastically applauded as they took their trophies.

Then followed Sterndale Bennett's cantata "The May Queen" by the choir, accompanied by the Regina Orchestral Society, both under the leadership of Mr. F. Laubach. The music both vocal and instrumental was very good, the soloists being Mrs. G. F. Stephenson, Regina, soprano; Miss A. Newmarsh, Prince Albert, soprano recitative; Mrs. Perrin-Taylor, Regina, contralto; Mr. A. E. Doak, Prince Albert, tenor; and Mr. A. T. Horne, Saskatoon, baritone, the piano accompaniment being skillfully executed by Miss M. Jackson and Miss Munro.

The Auditorium, however, was hardly a suitable place to hear a good choir and orchestra to advantage. There being no sounding board or other facilities above the stage to convey the music out to the audience thereby retarding the full effect which the singing should have given, but, nevertheless the evening's entertainment was fully enjoyed by everybody, and the Festival, on the whole, was a huge success.

The prizes were awarded as follows:

1. Choral Societies. A silver shield presented by His Honor the Lieut.-Gov.—Saskatoon Philharmonic Society.

2. For Class A choirs. A shield presented by Hon. Walter Scott, premier of the province:—Knox Presbyterian Church, Regina.

3. For Class B choirs. A shield presented by A. F. Angus, Esq., president of the association:—Knox Presbyterian Church, Saskatoon.

4. For lady soloists. Silver medal, presented by N. S. Edgar, Esq., manager Mason-Risch Piano Co., Regina:—Mrs. W. Binning, Lumsden.

5. For male soloists. Gold medal, presented by Jas. Balfour, Regina:—Mr. Goldie, Regina.

6. For quartettes, Silver medals:—
Male quartettes—Knox church, Regina.
Mixed quartettes—Milestone.
Ladies quartettes or trios—Prince Albert.

The ladies choir, Condie, were the only competitors in their class, but as they gave such an excellent account of themselves, His Worship Mayor Williams donated to them a special shield.

The adjudicators remarked that the prizes were not necessarily given to the persons or choirs with the best voices, but more so, to those who, in their opinion, gave the best rendering of the pieces selected.

NEIGHBORLY ACT

Saskatoon, Sask., May 20.—The fine neighborly spirit of the west was well exemplified in the Eagle Lake district a short time ago, when Donald Munroe, of Mirror, was seriously, and it was thought fatally injured by falling down a well fracturing the spinal vertebrae and breaking a leg. A physician from Coblenz heard of the case and at his own cost drove to Mirror, a distance of 40 miles to see what he could do for the injured man. Another doctor had been summoned before and done what he could for the injured man, but the Coblenz physician is a specialist in spinal diseases. A diagnosis showed that there was some hope for Mr. Munroe's recovery, but that his only possible chance rested on his being taken to some place where he could have proper treatment. In the condition he was in it was out of the question to move Mr. Munroe in any vehicle and when his neighbors found what was wanted they decided on the way and the means and 24 of them volunteered to carry him to Coblenz. A litter was constructed, made as comfortable as possible and the strange procession started, the litter bearers relieving each other as they tramped their weary way across the prairie. The trail is rough in some places, crossing Eagle Hill in one place with a sharp rise, but the steady tramp continued except when the condition of the patient made a rest necessary. Coblenz was reached after two day's weary tramp and the town rose to the occasion, the men composing the party found that their money would not last and while they stayed in Coblenz they were the guests of the town. Mr. Munroe is resting at Coblenz and there are hopes of his ultimate recovery although his condition is still serious.
