Forty Were Drowned.

Disastrous Collision of Steamers on the Volga.

Peace Proposals of the Powers Accepted by the Porte.

British Forces Attacked by Tribesmen in Rawat Pass.

Rebels Run Away From the Cavalry and Take to the Hills — British Loss in the Samana Operations 30 Killed and 59 Wounded.

THE DERVISHES RAN.

Cairo, Sept. 17.—A dispatch from the front says the British gunboats, while reconnoitering up the River Nile, sighted a force of 1,500 dervishe infantry and cavalry, on the left bank, near Damir. The enemy retired when fired on.

FORTY DROWNED.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.—Two steamers, the Tsarevitch and the Malpitka, collided yesterday in the River Volga, near Astrakhan. The former sank, and while she was going down her passengers, panic-stricken, jumped into the river. Many of them succeeded in reaching the shore, but 40 persons were drowned.

SARA AND THE GERMANS.

London, Sept. 17.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Paris says that Madame Bernhardt wanted to play at the Strausburg State Hall there. The authorities, recalling the fact that a few years ago she refused to play in Berlin and vowed that she would never play in Germany, have declined to grant her permission to play in Strausburg, unless she first appears at a German theater, which she refuses to do.

ACCIDENT TO KING CHRISTIAN.

London, Sept. 17.—A dispatch to the Daily Mail from Copenhagen says that King Christian has suffered a serious accident. While ascending a spiral staircase leading to the beacon at Middlegrunds fortress, in Ore Sound, he stumbled and fell, seriously injuring his chin and mouth. The pain from the blow was intense and the king was obliged to return to Bernstorff, Isle of Seeland, where his physician is attending him.

AN AWFUL CRIME!

Berlin, Sept. 17.—A sensation has been caused here and elsewhere by the statement that Archduke Franz Ferdinand, son of the late Archduke Karl Ludwig and Princess Annunciata, daughter of the late King Ferdinand II. of Nalles, heir presumptive to the throne of Austria-Hugary, was married in London last week to a middle-class lady from Kohlscheidt, near Aix La Chapelle.

The Local Anzeiger says: "She is a former housekeeper of Herr Krupp (the great iron manufacturer), of Essen, where she met Archduke Franz Ferdinand."

GOOD PROSPECTS FOR PEACE.

Vienna, Sept. 17.—The Neue Frie Presse says it is reported in official circles that the Sultan of Turkey and the Council of Ministers of the Ottoman Empire have accepted the conditions of peace with Greece as arranged by the ambassadors of the powers, and that it is expected the preliminaries of the treaty will be signed on Friday.

Paris, Sept. 17.—In the course of a banquet given by M. Hanotaux at Paris last night in honor of the King of Siam, the premier announced the receipt of a telegram from Constantinople stating that the treaty of peace between Turkey and Greece would be signed on Saturday next, and that the evacuation of Thessaly by the Turkish troops would commence on the payment of the first £1,000,000 of the agreed indemnity.

THE GREAT STRIKE.

London, Sept. 17.—Mr. Wm. Mather, an ex-member of the House of Commons, and managing partner of the great Salford iron works, has written to the Employes' Federation and the Amalgamated Societies of Engineers, making proposals to end the strike in the engineering trades, which has been in progress for over two months. In effect, Mr. Mather proposed a compromise based on 48 hours as a week's work, with a mutual agreement that the shifts shall work overtime. The Employes' Federation will have the right to decide the question of the employment of machinery tools and the labor connected therewith, and will undertake not to impair the trade unions or to exclude any engineer or employe because he belongs to the Amalgamated Society. The Employes' Federation will meet in London tomorrow, and will then consider the proposals. The Daily News says it thinks the employes will accept the proposals as the basis of a settlement of the dispute, but this is doubtful, for the executive committee of the federation have repeatedly declared their unalterable determination to smash the Amalgamated Society.

While stevedores were discharging the steamer Tower Hill at Glasgow Thursday evening, they discovered the body of a young man buried in the grain aboard of her. Nothing was found on the body to show whose it was.

Queen Victoria has decided that the addresses received by her upon the occasion of her diamond jubilee shall be placed upon exhibition in the Imperial Institue in October. Half the proceeds of the exhibition will be given to the Prince of Wales hospital fund.

FRONTIER FIGHTING.

Attacks of the Tribesmen Repulsed — Rebels on the Run—Losses of the British.

Simla, Sept. 17.—The second brigade of the Mohmand punitive force, commanded by Gen. Jeffreys, reached the foot of the Rawat Pass on Tuesday. During the night the British troops were attacked by the enemy, who kept up a heavy fire for six hours. Lieuts. Tompkins and Bailey were killed. Lieut. Harrington was dangerously wounded, two privates were killed, five privates were wounded, and 25 horses and mules were killed.

The entire British loss in the Samana operations, including that of the garrison of Saragari, is 30 men killed and 59 men wounded. The number of casualties among the officers is due to the men being entrenched, while the officers moved about uncovered.

A small force of cavalry pursued the tribesmen who attacked the punitive force at the foot of the Rawat Pass, commanded by Gen. Jeffreys, and killed 21 of the insurgents. The remainder of the enemy took up an inaccessible position in the hills, and the cavalry was obliged to return, after having suffered slight loss.

London, Sept. 17.—The correspondent of the Times at Simla says: The enemy, who attacked the force of Gen. Jeffreys at the foot of Rawat Pass on Tuesday night, were not the Mohmands, but the Momunds, and the Salarazai tribesmen, who are holding the southern part of Bajur. They did not attempt to rush the position, being content to fire at some distance from the shelter of the rocks, the bright moonlight enabling them to take a pretty good aim. Gen. Jeffreys is retracing his steps to punish these tribesmen; but the incident will not interfere with the plan of operations against the Mohmands.

THE CIRCASSIA SAFE.

Sighted Today Off Kinsale Head in Tow of a British Steamer.

Queenstown, Sept. 17.—The overdue Anchor Line steamer Circassia, which left New York on Aug. 28 for Glasgow, and which should have reached that port Thursday, Sept. 9, was sighted this morning off Kinsale Head, in tow of the British steamer Memnon, (Capt. Bates), from Montreal, on Sept. 3 for Avonmouth.

On Sept. 5, the Circassia was overhauled by the Thingvalla Line steamer Island, from New York for Copenhagen, and was taken in tow by the latter, as she was in a disabled condition. Owing to the heavy sea which prevailed the hawser parted and the Island was unable to take the Circassia in tow again.

IS IT ANDREE'S?

A Balloon Seen by the Residents of an Arctic Russian Village.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.—A telegraphic message received here from Krasnoyarsk, in the interior of Siberia, says that on Sept. 14, at 11 p.m., the inhabitants of the village of Antzfilrowskoje, in the district of Yeniseisk, Arctic Russia, saw a balloon, believed to be that of Prof. Andree, the Swedish aeronaut, who left the Island of Tromsoe shortly before 2:30 p.m. on July 11, in an attempt to cross the polar region. The balloon, it is added, was in sight for about five minutes.

BIG FIRE IN A SMALL PLACE

Teeterville Nearly Wiped Out — Fourteen Buildings Destroyed—Insurance Small.

Simcoe, Sept. 16.—A report was received here yesterday afternoon of a severe fire which nearly wiped out the village of Teeterville. The fire originated in a vacant store, and owing to a breeze spread rapidly. In all fourteen buildings were destroyed, on which there was very little insurance.

The burned buildings were Teeter's tavern, Hetherington's store, the principal business stand in the village, with $3,000 stock; dwelling and store of Mrs. Albert Sly; Dominion Hotel; vacant store belonging to Jas. Edgeworth; Chamber's dwelling; McNaughton's dwelling, Gould's harness shop, Schonheid's cabinet shop and Mrs. Rice's dwelling.

Hetherington's store and stock was insured Tuesday afternoon by Jas. E. Baxter, of this town.

CAWTHRA—BEATTY WEDDING.

A Scene of Beauty and Brightness — Some of the Dresses.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 17. — A very fashionable gathering witnessed the wedding at St. John Cathedral yesterday afternoon of Wm. H. Cawthra, son of the late John Cawthra, and Miss Maud Beatty, second daughter of Mr. H. Beatty, of Queen's Park. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Dumoulin, of Niagara, assisted by Bishop Sullivan, rector of St. James' Church. The church was crowded, although admission was by ticket.

Among the attendants on the bride were Miss Amy Beatty, the sister of the bride; Miss Cawthra, Miss Ada Arthurs, Miss Bessie McDonald, Miss Worts, Miss Myles, Miss Lilly Smart, Miss Aileen Gooderham, Miss Mildred Campbell, of Guelph.

The tall, slender, stately bride was shrouded in a voluminous white veil, and crowned with orange blossoms, and leaned upon the arm of her father. Her gown was simple and beautiful, composed of duchesse satin, rich and heavy; the skirt was cut with a square train, which fell in long folds along the aisle. The waist was really lovely; it was a soft mass of shirred and tucked chiffon, and had a berthe of rich old lace, having rose point medallions, which fell gracefully from the satin collette over the back and sleeves. The bridal veil was of tulle, imported for the event, and completely shrouded the whole gown with pretty misty effect.

The bridesmaids' costumes were a marvel of beauty and picturesqueness; their gowns were composed of white duchess satin, quite plain as to the skirts, which hung in perfect godets. The bodices were en blouse, with high puffed sleeves and belts in three shades of nasturtium; of this same lovely shade were the revers, which opened over soft fronts of chiffon. The hats were very original and picturesque. They were of white leghorn in Napoleon shape, with nasturtium velvet across the front, and handsome white ostrich mounts at the side. Lovely shower bouquets of nasturtium gave a finishing touch to one of the most charming of bridesmaidens' costumes seen in Toronto.

Mrs. Beatty, the bride's mother, wore a very handsome gown of exquisite brocade, with folded belt of green velvet, fastened with a buckle. With this was worn a tiny bonnet in the same tones as the gown, and having an algrette and narrow strings.

Mrs. Cawthra was in a lovely gown of gray, shot with cerisse, with small bonnet to match.

Mr. H. Victor Cawthra, the groom's cousin, was best man.

CANADA AHEAD.

What a Prominent Manufacturer Has to Say of the Dominion's Future.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—M. Y. McInnes, the Canadian agent, at the close of the Michigan State Fair, wrote to the officials, thanking them for courtesies. He received the following answer, dated Detroit, Mich., Sept. 10: "Dear Sir,—Have yours of the 10th inst., thanking the officers of the State Fair, and am directed to say that we appreciate your letter, and to add that the fine exhibit of minerals from British Columbia, as well as the beautiful grains and grasses of those great provinces, were an object lesson, an educational lesson, we may say, to the officers of the fair, as well to every visitor. Your government is to be congratulated upon this course of bringing before the people of America the great resources and advantages of the Canadian west. There is not the slightest doubt in our minds, if you continue to pursue this course, that you will receive the lion's share of immigration to your country." (Signed) F. L. Reed, superintendent."

AN ALLEGED BIGAMIST

Hamilton, Sept. 17.—Elgin Tufford, alias Henry Johnson, of this city, is charged with bigamy, in that he went through the form of marriage with Louisa Wytrz, alias Jane Wilson, in October, 1895, well-knowing his wife, Ada Tufford, to be alive at the time.

FELL INTO THE CANAL.

Rochester, N. Y., Sept. 17.—J. M. Millard, a young man who came from Springfield, Ontario, about a year ago, was drowned last night in the Erie Canal. His was riding his bicycle on a tow path, when his front wheel struck a stone, suddenly throwing his into the canal. It is thought he became entangled in his wheel, as he did not rise to the surface. The coroner removed the body and will hold an inquest.

ASHES TO ASHES.

New York, Sept. 17.—Olga Norr, 21 years old, widow of Wm. Norr, a newspaper man, who died three weeks ago, committed suicide last night by inhaling illuminating gas at 333 East Thirteenth street. Extreme grief over the death of her husband was the cause. Norr created the character of "Chuck" Connors, of Chinatown, and at the time of his death was a sporting writer on the World here. His body was cremated, and so will be the remains of his wife.

BIG STORM IN ESSEX.

Orchards Destroyed and Many Buildings Damaged—Loss Estimated at $15,000.

Windsor, Ont., Sept. 17.—A great deal of damage was done in Anderdon township, near Amherstburg, by a storm yesterday afternoon.

Sherman Cornwall's orchard was ruined. Other farmers lost roofs of buildings, straw stacks, fences, etc. Telegraph and telephone lines were blown down.

The losses so far reported will aggregate $15,000.

CHARGED WITH MANSLAUGHTER

Toronto, Sept. 17.—William Clayton and his wife, of Armadale, two miles from Markham, were on Wednesday committed for trial by Magistrate Zeidler on a charge of manslaughter. An infant daughter was born to the prisoners on July 18, and was buried by the father, assisted by a neighbor named Underwood on the succeeding day. Dr. Fierheller, of Markham, deposed to neglect of child after birth. No evidence was put in for the defense, and bail was refused.

SAVED FROM SLAVERY.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 17.—Emma Davis, the little English girl who was rescued from slavery at Medera by the California Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, is on her way home. She will be in charge of the train agent until she reaches Chicago, where representatives from the Y. W. C. A. will meet her. She will be met by E. Fellows Jenkins at New York, secretary of the New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children, and taken to the society's home. She will sail next Thursday for England.

THE GUELPH FAIR.

Guelph, Ont., Sept. 17.—The Grand Central Exhibition was opened here Wednesday. The entries in nearly all classes are ahead of former years. The morning was mostly taken up in arranging exhibits. A large crowd from the city and surrounding neighborhood visited the grounds in the afternoon. Horse and bicycle races were the features of attraction. Lorne Walker, of Guelph, easily won the city championship for the one-mile bicycle race, and Miss Marriott, of Guelph, took first in the ladies' one-mile race.

STORIES OF LABRADOR DISTRESS DENIED.

Ottawa, Sept. 17.—The deputy minister of marine has received a letter from Capt. Lavoie, of the Protection Survey, which authoritatively contradicts the stories sent out of distress among the fishermen of the Canadian Labrador coast. Capt. Lavoie writes that the official statistics, which he gathered on the coast, as to the season's catch, disproves the report of the alleged failure of the cod fishery. Not only is the catch above the average, but the fishermen are, on the whole, prosperous and contented.

THE INFLUX OF CHINESE.

Seattle, Wash., Sept. 17.—Six letters produced in evidence in the preliminary hearing of Yee Gee, the Chinese interpreter, employed by Collector J. C. Saunders at Port Townsend, in the examination of Chinese "merchants," tended to show the existence of a big conspiracy for the unlawful entry of Chinese into the United States. The ring was apparently backed by unlimited money. The price paid to Gee for the landing of the men ranged from $150 to $200 each. The authorities seem to have evidence showing that nearly a thousand Chinese have been fraudulently landed.

FAGGED OUT.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.
