Cuban advices said that the weather continues favorable, with five centrals grinding. December closed at $4.3; March $3.08, May $3.13, July $3.22.

Business in refined sugar was limited to nearby requirements, with prices unchanged at $7.15 to $7.60 for fine granulated.

Refined sugar futures were nominal.

MINOR LEAGUES CENSURE JOHNSON

Adopt Resolution Denouncing President of American League and Uphold Landis.

Associated Press Despatch.

Hartford, Conn., Dec. 4.—In one of the stormiest sessions in its history, the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues, involving the 25 minor leagues in the country, closed up its annual meeting today by adopting resolutions denouncing Byron Bancroft Johnson, president of the American League, for his utterances in respect to gambling conditions in the Pacific Coast League, reiterating its faith and confidence in Commissioner K. M. Landis as head of organized baseball, and by ignoring the proposed amendments to the major-minor agreement knifed at the major leagues for their apparent attempts to dominate baseball in the minor leagues.

Flaying "a major league president," the first resolution adopted today for creating "doubt, confusion and a condition inimical to the welfare of baseball," and branding those who by "harassment, guerilla tactics and otherwise, increase the perplexities of Commissioner Landis," the magnates went on record as saying that "baseball was in a chaotic condition," because of what they termed "unwarranted attacks."

The major-minor proposals were completely ignored by the association today, which met in executive session behind closed doors, and Secretary Farrel said the only business transacted was the adoption of the resolutions.

Grain Markets

WINNIPEG

Canadian Press Despatch.

Winnipeg, Dec. 4.—With the trade volume light and largely local, the wheat market was slow and draggy today, with price fluctuations being held within 2c. After opening ¾c to 1c lower, mainly due to lower Liverpool cables, prices declined another cent, but a fair class of investment buying and some by exporters stopped the downward trend. Later on prices eased again, but further support rallied them, the close being unchanged for December ⅜c lower for May and ¾c down for July. Trade volume was much smaller than yesterday, but the market appeared to receive sufficient support to hold prices steady. Elevator interests were taking December, narrowing the spread between this month and May somewhat.

There was also some spreading between here and Chicago, buying Winnipeg December and selling Chicago December at 4⅛c difference. Seaboard advices estimated overnight sales of wheat in all positions around 300,000 to 400,000 bushels.

The future coarse grains held steady, with prices generally unchanged on a fair volume of trade. Flax was quiet, and improved ½c to 1¼c.

A better demand came out for No. 1 northern wheat from shippers today, but the offerings were light. The spreads on this grade improved as much as 1½c, and it was traded in at 4c above the December option. Some low grades were ½c to 1c better.

The trade in cash coarse grain continues to be a carlot proposition.

Cash prices:

MONTREAL.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Montreal, Dec. 4.—There was some inquiry for Manitoba No. 1 northern wheat here, f.o.f., West St. John, today, but there was none offering in that position, and there was also a demand for sacked oats for the British West Indies and Newfoundland trade.

In Ontario malting barley there was an easier feeling, and prices were reduced 1c per bushel, with sales of carlots of No. 3 extra at $1.07 and No. 3 grade at $1.06 per bushel, ex-track, while odd cars of Ontario No. 2 white oats sold at 62c, No. 3 grade at 60c and No. 4 grade at 59c per bushel, ex-store. FOREIGN ADVANCES SCORED BY BANKER

General Manager of Bank of Montreal Addresses Shareholders.

The excessive borrowing of money outside of Canada, was scored by Sir Frederick Williams-Taylor, general manager of the Bank of Montreal at the 107th annual meeting of the shareholders of the bank held at Montreal December 1.

The general manager stated that although the larger the amount of money borrowed outside of the country the more the banks made on remittance, it was not necessary for Canadian firms to do this as there was a surplus of funds in Canadian banks at the present time, and funds could be obtained at easy terms. He was glad that there was a surplus of money at the present time because when the business revival did come the banks of the dominion would be able to finance it.

This bank is the oldest in the Dominion of Canada and plays a leading part in the financial life of the country. With assets that have already reached over three-quarters of a billion dollars, it has gone out and will increase them to nearly a $1,000,000,000 when the Molsons bank becomes officially a part of the Bank of Montreal.

The Molsons bank is one of the strongest of the smaller Canadian banks, and is the last of Canada's family banks. The directors of the Bank of Montreal a short while ago made the shareholders of the Molsons bank a splendid offer for their stock, and as the finance minister approved of the proposed amalgamation it is thought that the plan will be carried through.

Sir Vincent Meredith, president of the bank, stated that although world-wide conditions had been deterrent to good business in the past year, the bank had been able to pay its regular dividend and bonus. The splendid foreign service kept by the bank was praised by the president for the business it had carried on during the past year.

The president said that the figures of Canada's foreign trade were very encouraging, and this was partly due to the large grain crop in 1923 and the ability of the farmer to secure a better price for his commodities.

The European conditions have improved during the past year. This can be seen by the stability of the exchanges and the way trade has moved in a freer manner, concluded the speaker.

Local Market

Although the square was rather deserted this morning, the market tomorrow will be larger than usual if the weather is fine. An east storm is feared by many some time today.

An extremely large offering of poultry is expected for Saturday, and as Christmas approaches, the supply will be on the increase. As turkeys are plentiful this year, the prices will probably be lower than for a number of seasons.

Six loads of hay were brought to the city this morning, but more is expected before the day is over. The price has dropped to $10 to $14 a ton, and the demand is slow. Twenty-one loads were offered yesterday. None will be brought in tomorrow, farmers say.

Oats are still scarce and the price remains the same at $1.45 a cwt. One choice load sold at $1.50 a cwt.

No wheat was noticed today.

Potatoes and apples were the main attractions in the beef cattle line. These are steady at firm quotations.

Live hogs are firm at $8.50 to $8.75.
