THE DEEP THINKER OF THE HARLEY ROAD.

To the Editor of The Standard:

Sir,—On the evening of the 16th of August a copy of the semi-weekly Telegraph was received by a farmer of this place, who never takes that paper. Could it be an election canvass? Oh, no,

In it was a very amusing article from "A Thinking Elector" of the Harley Road, Queens Co., N. B. He named himself rightly, for thinking is about the extent of his employment.

In his article he brought to light three striking thoughts, which he states were born in solitude. What a pity he did not repair to solitude before the Hazen government came in power, as he was as much a resident of the Harley Road then as now. One of his lonely thoughts was about the "almost impassable" roads, and to my certain knowledge the roads are in better condition now than they were ever known to be before; and as for the school house, I can't see that it has moved any further away. The four miles to it are the same length they always were, and as he states he built the road himself, we would naturally suppose it to be good, so where's the kick? Are they always the wisest thoughts that are "born in solitude?"

As a rule the Conservatives are always known by their desire to help along a good cause, and if our worthy thinker had spent some of his time in helping that "only" Conservative of his settlement in keeping the roads in good condition, he probably would have had less time to bring his misleading thoughts before the public. Let us hope that in the future our "notable well digger" will spend less time in solitude and more in helping an honest government. Oh, you deep thinker of the Harley Road.

(Signed) A SUBSCRIBER.

TIDE OF VICTORY IS RISING FAST

IN QUEENS COUNTY.

Special to The Standard.

Cambridge, Queens Co., Aug. 24.—Hon. J. D. Hazen was accorded a rousing welcome this evening in the Public Hall here. About 300 enthusiastic people were present.

Mr. Hazen in a ringing speech denounced the reciprocity pact as detrimental to the best interests of the New Brunswick farmers.

H. W. Woods, M. P. P., the next speaker, clearly set forth that a market could not be found for early garden produce if reciprocity carried the day, as the United States farmers could produce garden stuff at an earlier date and thus shut out the Canadian farmer.

There was an enthusiastic rally held at Newcastle on Wednesday evening. About 400 people were present, and seating room could not be provided for all. Every window in the building was filled with eager faces. The speakers were the Hon. J. D. Hazen, A. R. Slipp, M. P. P., and John R. Dunn, of Gagetown. Each speaker in turn was cheered to the echo as he emphasized the disadvantages of the reciprocity pact. The spirit of victory was evident throughout the entire evening. The meeting was brought to a close by cheers for the King, R. L. Borden and the speakers.

Mr. O'Connell in Sussex.

Special to The Standard.

Sussex, Aug. 24.—There was an enthusiastic and crowded meeting here tonight when J. D. O'Connell, in an eloquent speech upheld the platform laid before the people by R. L. Borden.

"I have been criticized," said Mr. O'Connell, "because of my previous statements concerning my sales of eggs. Why have they not spoken of the different sales I have made in cows? Some years ago, I bought cows in Texas and Florida for $8 a head and shipped them to Cuba. Canadians cannot compete with this."

The motto of the Laurier politicians and newspapers appears to be, "Hammer everything Canadian and whoop up everything American."
