KINGS COUNTY POULTRY SHOW PRIZE LIST

The Kings County Poultry Show ended on Friday night and it was recognized by all who attended that it was one of the best poultry shows ever held in the Province. The quality of the birds exhibited was unusually good and over 600 were entered and exhibited. Poultry fanciers considered it far above the average of County Shows. The display of S. C. White Leghorns was particularly fine.

It is regrettable that there were so few in attendance. Every bird fancier should have been there and also the farmers who might have learned much to help them make poultry an important part of the farm productive products.

Here we present the prize list:
