Calamity to France

The Dreyfus Verdict Is So Regarded.

Strong Movement to Boycott the Paris Exposition.

Even Russia Is Disgusted With the Dreyfus Verdict—Judges Propose to Remit the "Degradation" Part of the Punishment.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 12.—The Viedmosti comments as follows on the Dreyfus verdict:

"We regard this struggle of hate, this nightmare, as a great calamity for France. The unloosening of brutal anarchistic passions against the Jews under the pretext of defending the ideas of justice, true patriotism and the honor of the army causes profound loathing."

DEEP INDIGNATION.

The revisionist press comments upon the verdict with the deepest indignation, declaring that the battle between the civil and military courts will continue until the victory rests with the court of cassation.

The Siecle has opened a subscription to erect an expiatory monument in front of the Palace of Justice at Rennes to remind future generations of this outrage on justice.

The Gaulois says: A great movement of renaissance will spring from the Dreyfus case.

The Journal des Debats says public opinion is quite prepared for the eventuality of Dreyfus' pardon.

It is understood also that President Loubet opposes such an extreme course as prosecuting Mercier or the other generals. He is rather inclined to a conciliatory policy, extending even to a pardon for Dreyfus.

A GREAT JUDICIAL CRIME.

The Dreyfus verdict causes a feeling almost of stupefaction in Berlin. It had been hoped that the statement of the Reichsanzeiger, as emanating directly from Emperor William, would have rendered impossible the expression of what is described as "one of the greatest judicial and criminal crimes of any age." It is universally agreed that the second verdict is a grave political blunder, a violation of the laws of civilization, and an act of moral cowardice which the world will find it difficult to pardon.

The German Liberal press, without a single exception, condemns the judgment.

The National Zeitung declares: "It is the greatest crime against mankind which has been committed since the days of the inquisition and of the burning of witches." The Borsen Courier says: "This is the moral capitulation of the French army."

TALK OF MERCY.

Rennes, Sept. 12.—The judges of the Dreyfus court martial have expressed to President Loubet their sincere desire that Dreyfus would not be submitted to a fresh degradation. The court martial signed a formal recommendation for mercy yesterday. Its object is to eliminate the degradation share of the punishment.

When M. Labori's secretary informed Dreyfus of this action he was greatly affected, and said: "I still have hopes."

The Paris Temps, referring to the rumor that the court martial signed a recommendation to mercy, but only as regards degradation from military rank, says the mere mention of extenuating circumstances shows that the judges had doubts of which Dreyfus should have had the benefit.

The Boycott

INVOKED AGAINST THE PARIS EXPOSITION.

The Halifax Chronicle publishes a letter from Hon. J. W. Longley, attorney-general of Nova Scotia, vigorously denouncing the Dreyfus verdict, and proposing that the nations of the world unite in a general boycott of the Paris Exposition. He says: "My proposition is that in view of this infamous moral turpitude of the French people, sanctioned by the government and upheld by the mob, the other nations of the world should one by one refuse to participate in this great centennial show. The moral effect of such a step as an object lesson for all mankind could not be over-estimated. It would make a milestone of progress for moral force throughout the world."

It is rumored that a committee composed of leading manufacturers in Berlin is being formed for the purpose of preventing German participation in the Paris exposition of 1900.

Congressman Jefferson A. Levy announced Tuesday that as soon as congress meets he would introduce resolutions in the house withdrawing the support of this government from the Paris exposition.

Representative Grosvenor, of Ohio, who has just returned from Paris, said: "It is a good thing that the appropriation to the exposition has been made. Congress would hardly be in a mood now to appropriate money."

At Buda Pest a movement is on foot against sending exhibits to the Paris exposition of 1900.

Proposals have been made at Rome to both Austria and Italy to boycott the Paris exhibition as a protest against the verdict at Rennes.

At Berlin the private agitation against the Paris exposition is beginning to find vigorous expression.

At Washington it is generally believed that when congress assembles there will be considerable agitation of a proposition for the government to abandon its participation in the Paris exposition.

At Newcastle-on-Tyne, W. D. Stevens, a shipowner and royal commissioner to the Paris exposition, has declared that as a result of the Dreyfus verdict, he will not put his foot on French soil. He adds that thousands of his countrymen will do the same. Several important firms have already declined to exhibit at Paris.

PARIS CALM.

Paris, Sept. 12.—Except for the disturbances at the fire last evening, Paris has remained unexpectedly quiet, but this condition of things is not likely to continue. At present both parties are taking breath, but the latent animosities are undiminished.

It is estimated that the last year's proceedings have cost the Dreyfus party at least 10,000 francs. They don't intend to let matters rest.

A demonstration of sympathy for Dreyfus is projected for next Sunday afternoon in Hyde Park, London.

It is said that M. Mathieu Dreyfus intends to supplicate Emperor William to order the publication of the document enumerated in the bordereau.

Spontaneous demonstrations in favor of Dreyfus have occurred in many parts of Italy.

Newspapers throughout the United States without exception condemn the Dreyfus verdict in strong terms.

Widespread Indignation.

London, Sept. 11.—It would be difficult to describe adequately the indignation the verdict of the Dreyfus court-martial has evoked everywhere in England. The excitement in the Jewish quarters of London is only natural. Special prayers were offered throughout Saturday in all the synagogues on behalf of Dreyfus, and as soon as the verdict was known, Jews and Jewesses were seen at every street corner expressing execration and many sobbing bitterly.

At the music halls the news was greeted with groans and hisses.

In almost all the places of public worship yesterday pulpit references were made to the verdict. Canon Scott-Holland, at St. Paul's Cathedral, said:

"A nation is on its trial. France stands at the judgment bar. All civilization is waiting to know whether tomorrow's news may add anything to qualify the naked cruelty of a bare telegram, anything to relieve the staggered conscience."

Rev. Arthur Robins, chaplain in ordinary to the Queen, preaching at Holy Trinity, Windsor, said: "The civilized world is aghast at this great crime of five abject judges."

The Daily Mail says: Rennes is France's moral Sedan.

The Daily Chronicle says: The Rennes verdict will live forever as the supreme effort of human wrong-headedness."

The Daily Chronicle says that Mercier issues from the case one of the blackest scoundreds in history.

The Daily News remarks: It is no longer Dreyfus, but France herself that is on trial.

The Morning Post declares that "the mitigation of the sentence was interpreted all the world over as evidence that the judges who condemned Dreyfus really believe him innocent."

The Daily Telegraph says: This infamous judgment disgraces France, dishonors her army, insults the kaiser and offends the best principles of humanity.

The judges are everywhere described as criminals, and gloomy speculations are indulged in as to what future is in store for France.

The German press is especially indignant, the National Zeitung remarking that "even the worst enemy of France could not have wished what has happened."

Papers of all nationalities fall in with the idea of boycotting the exhibition.

WIPED OUT BY TAUREGS

The Terrible Fate of a French Mission —Still Talking War in Pretoria.

Tripoli, Sept. 12.—A courier who has arrived here reports that a French mission headed by Father Foureau and Maj. Lamy has been annihilated. He says the mission was taken by an immense body of Tuaregs, who, after suffering terrible loss, killed all the members of the mission by force of arms.

London, Sept. 12.—The activity in the war and admiralty offices continues today, though there is nothing new regarding the Transvaal situation.

Excitement prevails in Pretoria pending the decision of the cabinet. Secretary of State Reitz has left Pretoria for Johannesburg and Cape Town.

During the past week the relief committee of Johannesburg assisted 2,000 cases of distress reported throughout the Transvaal.

The officials of the Netherlands Railway Company have been notified to hold themselves in readiness to guard the line in event of war. The Hollanders at Johannesburg passed resolutions of sympathy with the Transvaal, pledging their support.

In Pretoria the tension remains high pending the receipt of Mr. Chamberlain's dispatch. Commandant-General Joubet denies that the war department is ordering heavy ordnance or rifles. He declares that he is anxious for the preservation of peace.

Extensive fires are raging in the woods near Marseilles and Toulon, at least ten miles of forest being in flames.

Serious fire broke out last evening in Rue Darboy, near the St. Joseph boulevard, which was recently visited by Anarchists. When the police attempted to clear the streets they were hooted by roughs, and several firemen were seriously injured.

The steamer Antarctic, which left Helsingborg, Sweden, on May 25, with an expedition under Prof. Nathorst, was spoken off the northern extremity of Jutland, Denmark, Monday, on her return from her search along the north-east coast of Greenland for Prof. Andree. She reported that she had found no trace of the missing aeronaut

THIEVES AT WORK

Two Residences Robbed Last Night—Gold Watch, Money and Silverware Taken.

Thieves are getting in their work in different parts of the city, and citizens will be wise in keeping a sharp lookout while the Fair is on.

The residence of Mr. John Orr, of 204 Oxford street, was entered last night through a window, and a gold watch and a purse containing a small amount of money taken. The watch case is inscribed on the inside "Presented to Robinson John Orr, by his mother, Ann Orr."

The residence of Mr. Geo. Anunson, of 148 Mill street, also received a visit from burglars last night, and a half dozen gold-plated spoons were taken. The police are working on the cases.

EVERY WOMAN WHO IS NOT WELL....

—who is pale and weak—who is losing flesh—who has no appetite—who does not sleep well—ought to commence taking Beef, Iron and Wine (Cairncross & Lawrence). It's just the tonic that ladies need to make them well and strong. None the less effective because it is pleasant to take.

WITHOUT A PEER

The Western Fair as Attractive as Ever.

Monday's Visitors Delighted With the Great Exhibition.

The Attendance Promises To Be Well Up to the Mark.

Ring Attractions Give Great Satisfaction.

"Better Than Ever" Is the Universal Verdict.

The Various Departments Crowded With Superb Exhibits—Exciting Trials of Speed in the Ring—Fine Display of Fireworks at Night.

The Western Fair is certainly being favored by the weather man. Those glorious, golden days leave nothing to be desired. Everything was in splendid shape yesterday, and many people who go to the fair to see the exhibits rather than the crowd took advantage of the opportunity yesterday, as the attendance is always light on Monday.

The crowd on the stands were delighted with the afternoon's programme. A portion of the stands was reserved for the Asylum patients, who were present to the number of 300 or 400. They were accompanied by a large staff of attendants. During the afternoon enjoyable and enlivening music was furnished by the Seventh Band.

THE SPECIAL ATTRACTIONS.

"Better than ever," was the verdict of the regular visitors after witnessing the vaudeville specialties yesterday afternoon. Chairman W. J. Reid is to be congratulated upon the number and worth of the attractions which he has gathered to delight Western Ontario during this week. The programme, though lengthy, was interesting from start to finish, and there were no tedious delays. Several of the specialties appeared for the first time, among them being Okabe's Japanese troupe, Cook's Hippodrome, the Dunham Family of aerialists the six Sennets.

Arion again gave a thrilling exhibition of his skill and daring on the high wire.

The Hermanette Brothers brought their wonderful muscles into play once more, and handled with ease huge dumbbells and weights that ordinary men could hardly move.

Miss Lilian Bletsoe, who delighted the audience with her cornet solos, is a mere child in years. She is a Toronto girl, and is only 13 years old. Considering her extreme youth, Miss Bletsoe's performance is simply wonderful. She has been playing in public for two years, and is a great favorite in Toronto musical circles. The management made no mistake in securing the dainty child cornetist for the Western.

Okabe's Japanese Troupe appeared in London some years ago and created a great sensation. This year they introduce entirely new features, and their performances are more marvelous than ever, including tumbling, juggling, balancing and contortion feats such as only descendants of the class to which the dozen artists in the troupe belong are capable of performing. They have very costly and magnificent wardrobes.
