PRISONER ESCAPES FROM CUSTODY.

John Ryan, Arrested for Trespass, Gets Away From No. 2 Station.

John Ryan of 210 East King-street, one of the bunch of tramps arrested on Saturday in a vacant house in the rear of 98 Sherbourne-street, made his escape from the Agnes-street police station on Sunday morning. He and thirteen other prisoners were lined up in the station awaiting their transfer to the jail.

They were being led out thru the door one by one, in charge of P. C. Sleeman, and Ryan succeeded in eluding the vigilance of those inside. He quietly opened the door and was half way down Agnes-street before his escape was noticed. P. C. Sleeman chased after him, but Ryan made good his escape, and so far has not been re-captured.

Ryan is said to have made a break from the police at the Court-street station some years ago, but was caught again.

SOURCE OF ANXIETY.

Manchester Ship Canal Must Be Deepened Two Feet.

London, Aug. 11.—Manchester is finding the ship canal, which the corporation was compelled to finance and complete, an unceasing source of expense and anxiety. The managers have reported that even small vessels cannot leave the canal for several hours after low water, and, consequently, the entrance to the canal must be deepened two feet, and the entire waterway dredged until the largest cargo vessels can pass thru it. This costly work will involve excavation of more than two feet all along the line. The Manchester journals do not like the report, but face the music bravely, and contend that the town must deepen the waterway and look after foreign trade, or it will become a helpless inland port, like Ghent, which is incapable of competing with Antwerp and Rotterdam.

MEMBERSHIP ANNULLED.

Syracuse, N.Y., Aug. 10.—The membership of Charles H. Corregan, the Socialist labor candidate for Governor last fall, in Typographical Union, No. 55, has been annulled, because of his failure to pay a fine of $5) imposed by the Union last Sunday. He was adjudged guilty of contempt of trades unionism and for alleged slanderous remarks concerning the international and local officers of the organization. The five days in which he had to pay the fine or file a notice of appeal to the International organization expired last night. He failed to do so and his employers were notified this morning that he was no longer a member of the union. They refused to discharge him. President Arthur A. Hay of Typographical Union, No. 55, then called out the other printers. The firm quickly gave in, discharging Mr. Corregan and the men returned to work.

SULTAN'S TEASING WAY.

Constantinople, Aug.10.—The Franco-Turkish dispute on the Quay claims remains unsettled. Turkey persists in the idea of purchasing the Quays from the French company; but it is impossible to find the money at present, owing to the impoverished condition of the treasury. The Porte today again informed M. Constans, the French ambassador, that the French conditions for the transfer of the Quays were unacceptable.

IN 55 CARS.

Montreal, Aug. 11.—(Special.)—No fewer than 2700 farm laborers from the Lower Provinces, bound for Manitoba, arrived here to-day by the I.C.R., and were forwarded west in 55 C.P.R. cars, made up in special trains. This will make no fewer than 14,000 men sent west up to date by the Canadian Pacific.

SUBSCRIBING LIBERALLY.

Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 11.—In response to the appeal of the Colonial Secretary, Mr. Chamberlain, all the West Indian colonies, in spite of the depression existing, are subscribing liberally toward the Imperial Victoria Memorial to be erected in London.

INSURGENTS PRESSING HARD.

Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 11.—According to mail advices received here to-day from Colon, there was a series of engagements last week in the neighborhood of Panama, and the government was experiencing some difficulty in keeping out the insurgents. General Alban, commanding the government forces, arrived at Carthagena to gather troops for service on the Isthmus.

TOUCHING.

Your eyes, with their glances touching,
Your words, that appealed so much—
It all comes back—all, excepting
The ten that made up your "touch."
So I think of you in the daytime,
And wonder if you forgot
That touching affair of last summer,
And if you are touching yet.

HAMILTON NEWS

HIGH COURT AT HAMILTON

Annual Meeting of Supreme Body of Western Ontario, I.O.F., This Morning.

300 DELEGATES ARE EXPECTED

Native of Ambitious City Was Killed at Oconto Falls, Wis., on Saturday.

Hamilton, Aug. 11.— (Special.) —A young lad named Hamlin climbed on to the fountain at the Hamilton Steamboat Co.'s wharf yesterday afternoon. It proved too much for the fountain, which fell over, with the boy underneath. He escaped with slight injuries.

Rigs Collide.

As James Anderson, 323 South Queen-street, was driving past the corner of Park and Macnab-streets yesterday afternoon, he collided with a rig driven by Charles Page. Anderson was thrown out, and was cut on the forehead.

The I.O.F. High Court.

Over 300 delegates are expected to be present at the annual meeting of the High Court of Western Ontario, Independent Order of Foresters, which will open in the Court House next Tuesday morning. The local Reception Committee and members of the local courts have been busy making provision for the housing and entertaining of the delegates, and everything is ready for them. The business of the High Court will be disposed of on Tuesday and Wednesday. Early Tuesday evening the delegates will be given a little recreation.

The Entertainment Committee has chartered six of the Street Railway Company's large new cars, and will take the visitors for a ride. The party will start from the City Hall at 6.30, and, after going around the Belt Line and visiting Dundurn Park, the Jockey Club and other points of interest, will go up to the Mountain View, where light refreshments will be served, and a program of songs, recitations and speeches presented.

The majority of the delegates will leave for home on Wednesday night or Thursday morning.

One of the most interesting contests will be the selection of delegates to the Supreme Court at Los Angeles, Cal. next March. The court is entitled to 14 representatives, and probably two will hail from Hamilton.

Police Points.

At yesterday's Police Court, May Todd, York-street, for keeping a disorderly house, was sent to the Mercer Reformatroy for six months.

Charles Johnston, for stealing vegetables was given three months in the Central Prison.

A plea was made for Alex. W. Gourley that he be allowed out on suspended sentence. The Magistrate stated the Crown Attorney's sanction must be obtained, and prisoner was remanded till Thursday.

William Corey, Severn-street, will be tried to-morrow on the charge of firing off a revolver on King William-street on Friday night.

The Rae non-support case has been dropped, William Rae having made a satisfactory arrangement with Mrs. Rae.

Cemetery Board Finances.

Cemetery Board finances are reported as being in good condition. During the seven months of this year, the receipts have exceeded those of the corresponding seven months of 1900 by $289.79, while the expenditure for the same period shows a decrease of $1083.92, by comparison. These two amounts leave a net gain of $1373.81, or almost $200 a month.

Minor Mention.

Mrs. Ferris declines to give any further explanation of how she came to cut her throat a few evenings ago.

The Burrill Stock Company will put the great melodrama, "The Two Orphans," on at Sherman Park this week.

Rev. Father Brady yesterday celebrated the feast of St. Lawrence by giving a dinner at St. Lawrence Presbytery to the Bishop of the diocese and the clergy of the city. Among the guests were Rev. Father O'Brien of the Society of Jesus, Montreal, and Rev. Father Supple of Bunker's Hill.

T. H. Macpherson, ex-M.P., has gone to Edinburgh to bring home his four daughters, who have been studying in Europe for years.

The 13th Regiment Band will give a concert at Galt next Friday evening.

Craig Burrows, 18 years of age, formerly of this city, was killed Friday at Oconto Falls, Wis., in the paper mills. He was the youngest son of the late Capt. J. C. Burrows, and brother of Mrs. Oliver Beatty, jr., of this city.

BOERS UPSET CURRENT PHRASES BY FIGHTING WITH DOGGED VIGOR

Boer Activity on Railway Lines in Cape Colony is Significant—Strange Explosion Damaging British Transport in New Orleans Harbor.

London, Aug. 11.—The Boers have an awkward habit of upsetting both military calculations and current phrasing. Mr. Chamberlain has described the third stage of their operations as "brigandage and outrage," and Gen. Kitchener has proclaimed the day when the burghers must cease from lawlessness under penalty of exile and distraint of property, and leader writers and military critics have protested against further softness and rosewater magnanimity toward murderers and pillagers, who are not entitled to belligerent rights. Suddenly comes an official account of the capture of a blockhouse in the centre of the Orange River Colony after an attack as bold as the assaults upon Steinecker's Horse in Swaziland, one of which is described in detail in press despatches. These three affairs, while trivial as operations of war, at least indicate that the Boers are still fighting with desperate valor, and not shrinking from attacking fortified posts and facing Maxim fire. Clearly the time has not yet come for refusing the Boers belligerent rights, especially when the fighting is described as severe at Brandfort, Lord Roberts' first halting place in his march from Bloemfontein to Pretoria. Equally significant is the renewal of Boer activity on the railway lines in Cape Colony. Even more ominous is the evidence of two fresh outrages, showing that the Boer desperadoes cannot be controlled, and that the final stage of the war will be characterized by acts of wanton barbarity.

HIGHLY APPLAUDED.

Bloemfontein, Aug. 11.—The proclamation of Lord Kitchener in reference to the banishment from South Africa of those commandants, field cornets and leaders of armed bands who do not surrender by Sept. 15 is highly applauded by the loyalists of the Bloemfontein district.

BOER SYMPATHISERS.

New Orleans, La., Aug. 10.—What is regarded as an attempt of a Boer sympathizer to blow up a British transport occurred shortly after midnight, when there was a terrific explosion at the stock landing where the steamer Mechanician is moored. The Mechanician is to carry mules to South Africa.

The explosion shook houses and awakened people for some distance around. Most of the crew of the ship were asleep, but the explosion brought them quickly to the deck. An examination showed a large dent on the starboard side of the ship. Two plates at the water's edge had been sprung and considerable water was let into the ship.

Pumps were immediately put to work and when daylight came it was found the vessel was in no danger of sinking, and that the damage done was not serious. The crew of the vessel denied that there were any explosives on board, and there seems little doubt that the explosion was from the outside, and that some sort of bomb or torpedo had been used.

3000 REFUGEES.

Bloemfontein, Aug. 11.—Three thousand Boer refugees are now arriving at Brandfort. They were swept up by the British columns that have been in operation in the northern part of the Orange River Colony. Food, blankets and doctors are being sent from here for the refugees.

Immense quantities of cattle passed Viljoen's Drift yesterday. A number of natives followed the trek and killed any cattle left behind from exhaustion. This meat they divided on the veldt and then carried to their kraals. Many native families obtain food in this manner.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

Newmarket, Aug. 10.—The northbound G.T.R. afternoon express struck and killed a man at the station. Deceased was under the influence of liquor and as trying to steal a ride to Toronto on a freight which was standing on the siding awaiting the arrival of a passenger train. Freight Conductor John Lee had just put him off his train and taken him to the station platform, warning him to look out for the incoming express. He started to follow the conductor back, when the train struck him, not, however, before Conductor Lee made an heroic effort to save him and barely escaped being struck himself. Deceased was about 40 years of age, 5 feet 8 inches in height, and weighed about 160 lbs., dark complexion, clean shaven, except a thin dark mustache. He is supposed to be James Cameron of Oakville, and is said to have a sister living on Bathurst-street, Toronto. Coroner Scott made an investigation and decided that an inquest would not be necessary.

MILNER LEAVES ENGLAND

Without Other Public Demonstration Than the Cheering From the Wharf.

FAVORS PRACTICAL MEASURES

Frankly States That He Will Be Pleased to Be at Work Again.

London, Aug. 11.—Lord Milner, after keeping a private engagement in the country, embarked quietly at Southampton yesterday without other public demonstration than the cheering from the wharf. He has not enjoyed the process of being ionized here, and in country houses, and frankly says that he will be well pleased to settle down to work.

General Lyttelton, who has sailed with him, is a capable officer, with marked talent for administrative detail. He was the best commander under General Buller in the Ladysmith campaign, and has been named by military men as Lord Kitchener's successor, either before or after the close of the present guerilla operations. Lord Milner's return to South Africa will probably be followed by more practical measures than Lord Kitchener's proclamation, which the Unionist journals are making a brave effort to commend as statesmanlike.

The resumption of mining operations at Johannesburg on a large scale, and the widening of the areas where the usual occupations of peace can be conducted, will be facilitated as rapidly as possible. This will be a practical method of meeting the Boer argument from Holland that the war is in progress, with no signs of abatement, and that the British army of 250,000 men is held up virtually as General Buller's army corps was after Colenso and Magersfontein.

KITCHENER IS TOO HONEST

His Truthful Reports of the South African Situation Annoy the War Office.

ALWAYS CALLS A SPADE A SPADE

Again Rumor Has It That He Will Be Superseded and Sent to India.

London, Aug. 11.—Rumors of Lord Kitchener's recall received an additional filip to-day when General Lyttelton really departed with Lord Milner for South Africa.

Nobody ever suggested General Lyttelton for a place on the military staff of the new Governor-General of that part of Great Britain across the seas, where the Boers are still stubbornly contesting, inch by inch, for possession. His military rank precludes such an idea. The alternative is that he goes to replace Lord Kitchener as commander-in-chief.

In this connection, a bit of gossip was related to me the other day by one who has been able to penetrate beyond the outer rim in the secret recesses of the War Office. It may be interesting.

"Lord Kitchener's despatches," he said, "are almost as unpalatable reading to the officials in Pall Mall as were General Butler's before the war began. Kitchener is making the same mistake Butler made—if mistake it can be called—calling a spade a spade. The same fate impends for him, viz., recall.

"Of course, they won't call it recall, or repeat the blunder made with Colvile. Instead, Kitchener will be given the chief command in India, after a reasonable holiday in England. All the same, I believe it means his supersession."

ARRIVAL OF THE KING.

Homburg, Aug. 11.—The city of Homburg was astir early to-day to witness the arrival of King Edward, but, as His Majesty specially requested that there should be no demonstration, the railway station was completely closed to the public. At 9.16 the royal train arrived. King Edward, in blue uniform of the Prussian Dragoons, alighted with Queen Alexandra, Princess Victoria and Prince Nicholas of Greece. Emperor William affectionately grasped the hand of the British monarch and gave him a cordial welcome. He then kissed the hands of Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria. Their Majesties conversed for a few minutes, and their respective suites were introduced. The guard of honor then marched past, after which the imperial and royal party drove to Ritter's Hotel, the Emperor, Queen Alexandra, King Edward with the Empress. The Emperor and Empress remained at the hotel for a quarter of an hour, and then drove to Homburg Castle, the King and Queen standing in the doorway of the hotel until they had gone.

COL. ROSS DEAD.

Ottawa, Aug. 11.—Lieut.-Col. Thomas Ross, a superannuated official of the Finance Department, died at his residence on Stewart-street last evening. He was in his 81st year. Deceased was first colonel of the Governor-General's Foot Guards. He was in good health and going around two or three days before his death. His widow survives him.

C.P.R. WRECK NEAR PROTON STATION

Allan Cameron leave to-morrow morning for the inquest to be held at Proton.

OFFICIALS ON THE SMASH.

Alfred Price, who was superintendent of the division in which the accident occurred up to May 1, last, and is now superintendent of the Smith's Falls to Hamilton division, when spoken to by The World last night, said the trackmen on the line where the accident occurred had been out on strike for a few days, but had all returned to work some time ago, and the section was now fully manned. Indeed, he had heard that the section was overmanned, having made inquiries as soon as he heard of the disaster.

The section was manned with men who had been with the company for years. These men he knew, because he was so recently in charge of the division, and pronounced them first-class employes. Personally, he had no explanation to offer as to the cause of the disaster. Superintendent Brady, who was now in charge of the division, had left for the scene on Saturday afternoon, and would be best qualified to express an opinion. There had been no heavy rains, to his knowledge, and no excessive heat lately, which might account for the accident.

Supt. S. T. Brady, who is now in charge of the division in which the wreck occurred, and the only superintendent to visit the scene from here, declined to say anything when interrogated by The World last night. He said he had made his report to General Superintendent Timmerman, and it was arranged that any statement for publication was to be made by Mr. Timmerman.

General Superintendent Timmerman's explanation of the fatality is as follows: It occurred at a temporary crossing used by contractors who are engaged in the work of grading an embankment preparatory to making an extension of the tracks. Several teams and a gang of men were at work, and a quantity of sand was dumped on the main line. This sand was what caused the train to leave the rails. As soon as the accident was heard of wrecking trains from Owen Sound and Toronto Junction left for the scene, and they expected to have the track cleared by 9.30 o'clock Sunday night and ready for traffic.

The injured men were taken to the Owen Sound Hospital and are doing well. The total loss will be in the neighborhood of $5000. The three cars of freight were not damaged.

MOBBED THE SCABS.

Tweed, Aug. 11.—A gang of C.P.R. scab sectionmen were mobbed here last night. They were boarding in a freight car on one of the sidings, and last night some of the men came up town. When returning they were severely handled by the mob with stones and eggs. They ran to their car and bolted the doors. The mob by this time were furious, and stoned the car, breaking in the end and doing much damage. The C.P.R. Company had a watchman employed, but he, it seems, was nowhere to be found. No one was seriously hurt.

EAST TORONTO VILLAGE STIRRED

wound, very small, evidently having been caused by a bullet of small calibre. There were no powder marks around the wound.

Late in the afternoon another bullet wound was discovered in the right side of the head, about three inches above the ear. It was not as sharp a wound as the one in the back of the skull, and the authorities believe that the bullet entered the head from the back and issued at the side.

The body apparently had been carried to the bank on Lee-avenue and placed carefully in position. There was no evidence of a struggle, and the grass about the body was not crushed. Between his arms and the body the tall blades were standing up straight. Had the man fallen in that position the body would have rolled down the bank into the road; it could not have lain in the position it did if it had not been placed there. The bottles being found at various points in the vicinity indicate that the men who left the body there tried to leave the impression that the murdered man had been carousing in the vicinity and was murdered on the spot where he was found.

No Revolver Found.

The suicide theory is easily disposed of. No revolver was found. There were no marks of the acid about the mouth, showing that the man had not taken acid with suicidal intent.

There are, however, sores on the dead man's legs, and Mr. Kane says that the solution was used by Jones as a douche.

The body has not been examined for other marks of violence. Coroner Britton was out of the village yesterday, and no further investigations could be made in his absence. Crown Attorney Dewart was notified, and instructed County Constable Burns to look after the remains.

Coroner N. A. Powell will hold an inquest on the body to-night.

Dr. Walters viewed the remains, and is of the opinion that the man was murdered. He, however, only made a cursory examination of the body, and would not give a definite statement. An autopsy will be made to-day.

Shots Were Heard.

Richard Rose, lamplighter, and Richard Holman, butcher, East Toronto, were together about 5 o'clock Sunday morning, and heard two shots in the direction of Lee-avenue. They thought nothing of the circumstance at the time, but reported what they had heard to County Constable Burns after the body had been found.

Tina and Nellie Muirhead, daughters of William Muirhead, corner of Lee-avenue and the Kingston-road, passed the corner at 10.30 Saturday night, and saw a man sitting on the bank near the spot where Jones was found. He was within a few feet of the Kingston-road, probably 15 feet from where Jones lay. They noticed him running his fingers thru his hair, and considered this the actions of a drunken man. They ran quickly home. Mr. and Mrs. Lily, who live next door to Mr. Muirhead, also saw the man, but did not take particular notice of him, and continued on their way. They thought he was dressed in dark clothes. Jones was dressed in a steel grey suit of tweed cloth, and wore a black fedora hat. His coat is single-breasted and underneath it he wore a cardigan jacket and neglige shirt. He wore a good pair of heavy boots.

In Jones' pocket was found a well-worn red-colored clasp purse containing a five-cent piece and two keys.

Shots Heard at 10 o'Clock.

John Holywell, who lives with his mother on the southeast corner of Lee-avenue, heard a shot about 10 o'clock Saturday night, about half an hour previous to the time the Misses Muirhead passed the corner. It was like a rifle shot, and sounded to him as if it was on Woodbine-avenue. He remarked to his mother, who also heard the shot, about the circumstance, and said it sounded in a different direction from the place where crow-shooting is generally carried on.

Charles Marquis, who lives two doors from Lee-avenue, and Mrs. Marquis wheeled home about 11 o'clock, and did not notice anyone around. They say the man might have been there and they not see him.

Clue to Identity.

A young man, who would not give his name, called at Hunter's undertaking establishment Sunday night, and viewed the remains. He referred to the man as "Bill," and said he saw him at the Ocean House Saturday. He said "Bill" had plenty of money and was separated from his wife. The stranger was not known in East Toronto, and efforts to learn his name and address were fruitless. He left shortly after the identification, and has not been seen since. Information given by this man turned out to be partially correct. Jones had been separated from his wife for 15 years. He came to Toronto about 16 years ago from the South of England. His wife and daughters are supposed to be living in the States. He, however, did not have any money, according to Mr. Kane's statement, altho Jones frequently represented that he had money. This was looked upon as a joke by those around the Ocean House.

Lightfoot's Second Find.

Alfred Lightfoot, who discovered the body, seems to have a faculty for locating corpses unawares. About a month ago he discovered the body of Alexander Patterson hanging from a tree on the banks of the Black Creek, Etobicoke Township.

Who Were These Men?

East Toronto people are discussing the connection between the visit of two strange men to the village on Saturday and the tragedy. Mrs. Jacob Schlinger, wife of the village blacksmith, residing on Main-street, asserts that the men, one of whom answers the description of Jones, called at her house on Saturday night in response to an advertisement in an evening paper for a blacksmith. She noticed that they were under the influence of liquor, and told them that the man to be engaged must be sober. The applicant said: "I never drink while at work," and on leaving remarked, "I guess that I am boss of my own actions."

The body is lying in Mr. Hunter's barn. All day Sunday an immense number of people secured admission to the mortuary on the pretence of seeking to identify the remains. The crowd was so great at times that Mr. Hunter locked up the place and left to get rid of them, but on his return there was a throng waiting for him.

Third Bottle Picked Up.

County Constable Burns, who is in charge of the case, is working on the theory that the man was murdered. All day yesterday the vicinity of Lee-avenue was stamped for further proof. Nothing more, however, was found until late in the evening, when W. T. James of 80 Waverly-road, who, with his wife and family, was passing up Lee-avenue, found an empty bottle on the opposite side of the road, and about 50 feet from where the body was found. He turned the bottle over to County Constable Burns. There was no odor from it.

BOMB EXPLODED.

Paris, Aug. 11.—A bomb was exploded this afternoon near the altar of the Church of St. Nicier at Troyes, doing considerable damage to the thirteenth century windows, but not injuring any of the hundreds of persons in the church.
