THE BRUTALITY OF PUGILISM.

Two Men Fight for a Small Purse Until One of Them Is Killed.

FAYETTEVILLE, Va., March 5.—A brutal prize fight, fought two days ago in a barn near the town, became known only through the death of one of the contestants yesterday. Frank McGonigal and Jas. Sheady fought 43 rounds for a purse of $50. The fight was really an old and bitter grudge growing out of a quarrel about a girl. McGonigal was a young miner, and Sheady, a blacksmith. Each man weighed about 160, McGonigal having the advantage of a few pounds and an inch in height. They fought with but ten men present besides the seconds, John Howley and Peter Jones, local sports. McGonigal had the best of the fight throughout. In the first round Sheady retired to his corner with a broken nose, at the same time spitting out a piece of the little finger of McGonigal's left hand. After the ninth round had been fought strong men turned away sickened at the sight. The flesh was cut away from Sheady's eyes, and hung in pulp on his cheek. The rest of his face was beaten into pulp. McGonigal's right ear was torn almost completely off by Sheady's teeth, his jaw was broken, and altogether he presented quite as terrible a sight as his opponent. Neither man would give in although at the 35th round the seconds urged them to stop. They fought like tigers, and McGonigal's torn and broken right hand felled his opponent to the floor time after time. The forty-third, and last round, found Sheady in his corner lying face downwards and insensible, while McGonigal, who had kicked him there, hurriedly gathered his clothes and staggered out. The seconds carried Sheady to his home and left him, where he died yesterday. The whereabouts of McGonigal are unknown.

Markets and Health Affairs.

Chairman James, Ald. Verral, Piper, Johnston, Fleming, Carlyle (St. Andrew's), Drayton, Shaw and Macdonald were present at a meeting of the markets and health committee yesterday. Richard Smith and M. O'Rourke formed a deputation from the carters employed by the city. They supported their petition that wages for horse and man be raised from $2.25 to $2.50. It was decided to recommend that the prayer of the petition be granted. Dr. E. H. Robinson, Dr. J. C. Bart and Dr. H. Brent applied for appointments as medical missionaries in the event of the adoption of Ald. Frankland's proposal. The commissioner presented a requisition for a new street sweeper, twelve horses and three watering carts. He also asked permission to hire thirty or forty horses for street cleaning purposes. It was recommended that the requisition be concurred in, and $2700 will be asked for. The bread sub-committee's report was adopted. It was decided to put $1500 in the estimates for the erection of public conveniences.

The Voice of Labor.

The Trades and Labor council held their fortnightly meeting last night, with President Whitten in the chair. These delegates were received: George Robinson, James Barret and John Kew, K. of L. 4298; John DeGruchy, K. of L. 3491; T. J. McDonald, Thos. Tracey and John Davis, K. of L. 2211; W. J. Milling, Jas. Dreasey and George Duncan, Hand Sewed Shoemakers; J. Worndell, Stonecutters' union; Thos. Brothers, Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners. The report of the legislative committee expressed the pleasure of the council that it had been decided to enforce the bylaw for the sale of bread by weight. They were also pleased to know that the city council had sent a deputation to Ottawa to interview the government in reference to assisted immigration. Instead of appointing an assistant solicitor for the city, they thought a good one should be appointed, who would be able to do everything. They emphatically protested against Sunday street cars.

Teachers' Conversazione.

The Toronto Teachers' association held their fifth annual conversazione in the Normal school building last night. Geo. McMurrich, the genial chairman of the school board, called off the program. The trustees were present, also a large number of the city teachers and their friends. The lady teachers looked charming. Their sombre colors were exchanged for light and airy dresses. The program was supplied by Mrs. Caldwell, Messrs. Sims Richards and Schuch, vocalists, Churchill Ariedge, flute, and J. W. Bengough, chalk talk. The museum was thrown open for promenaders, and a string band furnished music. The very pleasant gathering broke up at twelve o'clock.

Who Owns Government House.

It seems the site of government house, Toronto, was never handed over to the province of Ontario by the federal government, at least no order-in-council to that effect can be found. All the other property turned over by the provinces is deeded in this way. It was this fact that knocked Mr. McIntyre over when he brought up the question of the vote for that institution on Thursday.

When regard is had for class and number of readers and price per line The World is the best and cheapest advertising paper in the city.

Toronto Annex.

—Over a mile nearer the corner of Yonge and Queen street than is Parkdale, Spadina cars run to the property, high dry land with sandy subsoil. This property and the surrounding district is protected by building restrictions from inferior houses and business places. A large number of houses to be erected this season. We still have for sale a large number of most desirable lots on Bloor street, Huron street, Madison avenue and Spadina road. Will be the finest residence part of Toronto. Our prices are very low, as we desire to make a quick turnover, and our terms are easy, viz.: One third cash, balance on mortgage, payable in five equal annual instalments; interest six per cent.; mortgage can be paid off at any time, giving three months' notice. There is no better investment in this dominion. A few hundred dollars invested now will increase many fold in a short time. Lots are selling very fast. For further particulars please call at our office. S. H. JAMES & Co., 6 King street east. x

—It's a positive fact, Green gives better board, better accommodation, more style and attention than any other boarding house in the city of Toronto for $2.25 per week. Everything around 106 Shuter street is in perfect order, and during this month, March, the proprietor is giving board for $2.25 per week, to equal the best hotel fare in the city. Of course it's quantity only that pays, and the extra quantity of people must come. The alterations, which will cost nearly 5000 dollars, will shortly be started, in fact specifications and contracts for alterations are now being filled. The 18th of March is the anniversary day of starting this business, and the proprietor gives a large supper to all his guests at 10 o'clock. Friends welcome on this occasion.

Up and Up.

Despite all fictitious reports that are being aisod against the Canadian Harness Co.'s work by their fellow tradesmen, they are selling more harness to-day than ever before. Three dozen set sold in the last two days, which is sufficient proof that their harness is what they represent them to be. All intending purchasers will save money by calling and examining stock at warerooms, 104 Front street east. 246x

Another Big Strike.

—At the Canadian Harness Co., 104 Front street opposite Hay market, is the place where they will strike you off a set of harness for $18 that you can't buy in any retail store for less than $25. Call and examine for yourself. They are not glued together as some of our Friends would try to make you believe. But are guaranteed in every respect. 246x

—The Bowmanville Furniture Co. must be selling parlor suites and other furniture at very low prices, judging from the great rush of customers at the "Art Furniture Store," No. 5 King street east. This is a grand chance for any one intending to furnish this spring and many people are embracing the opportunity of getting a good article at a low price. The cheap sale will close in 10 days. x

ROSINA VOKES.

The return of this charming actress and her company of mirth-makers to the Grand opera house next week will be welcomed by all lovers of true comedy. Since their appearance here in December last they have made a triumphant tour through the United States, and are now playing a farewell engagement in Canada, Toronto being the last place they will appear in the dominion.

Miss Vokes is the youngest of the trio of sisters whose musical laugh and merry comedy went so far to win for the family their success and popularity. Off the stage she is known as Mrs. Cecil Clay, her husband being a well known London journalist. Mrs. Clay is petite and her face is of a distinctive English type. She has most expressive features, and converses animatedly. Mr. Clay is a tall, distinguished-looking Englishman, with the frank geniality of manner noticeable in Londoners who are aristocratic without being snobs. In fact Mr. and Mrs. Clay belong to the aristocracy of talent of the English metropolis. They are dwellers in that higher Bohemia whose members comprise such people as Henry Irving, J. L. Toole, W. S. Gilbert, Sir Arthur Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft, and a host of talented and famous men and women.

Business Notices.

Messrs. Cousineau & Co have purchased another immense stock of silks, satins and fancy goods, which, in addition, to Messrs. Brayley, McClung & Co.'s bankrupt stock, is causing considerable excitement at the Bon Marche. The prices astonish the ladies of Toronto, and the milliners who visited the establishment, making extensive purchases, were delighted with the display.

J. A. Campion & Co. have opened a real estate office at 62 King street west, and have some choice properties for sale. The firm have commenced business under favorable auspices, and no doubt will receive a large share of public patronage.

Murdoch & Wilson, 8 Victoria street, advertise some splendid property. Those wishing to invest cannot do better than read the advertisement and then call at their office, where full information can be obtained. They give special attention to exchanging.

The Toronto Wire Mat company will send a full line of their goods to the Colonial exhibition, consisting of brass, steel, nickle, iron and japanned wires. The display will be an attractive one, the inventor, Mr. Windt, and Mr. Ramsay, the president of the company, having given it every attention.

Frank Adams, 24 Adelaide street east, has been appointed sole agent for the Hamburg mail steamship line, running semi-weekly to Plymouth, Cherbourg and Hamburg.

The Allan liner Nestorian will leave London for Quebec on April 22, and the Corean May 6 to Quebec direct. The first steamer from Liverpool to Quebec will leave April 22. Parties wishing to send for friends should secure tickets at once from Mr. Bourlier, Allan line agent, under Dominion bank.

E. W. D. Butler, real estate agent, King street east, reports real estate sales lively, and a good big boom in the near future. Mr. Butler has lots of choice property for sale.

Real Ladies
