POINT LEPREAUX, 9 a. m., Sept. 26.—Wind southwest, strong; cloudy. Teer 53.

THE LANSDOWNE.—At the concert at the Lansdowne rink tonight, the City Cornet band will play a choice programme of music.

TO MAKE A MATCH.—Geo. Calvill has deposited $100 at the Victoria hotel to make a match with Speculation against Sir Garnet.

THOSE WHO COME IN on the trains find Mr. Bailey's restaurant at the I. C. R. depot a very convenient and pleasant place to get a lunch or dinner. Meals are served hot at every hour, and every effort is made by the genial proprietor to suit the tastes of his guests.

HURT BY A RUNAWAY.—Last evening as Thomas Shellington was driving accross Market square his horse ran away. It rushed over the cartmen's stand and upset the carriage throwing Mr. Shellington and his companion out. Shellington received a few bruises about the head.

THE SALEM CADET BAND has returned from Washington where it was much admired, and lately, at the Myopia ball, in Boston, their music was so beguiling that the dancers could not stop till nearly six in the morning.—[Boston Gazette.] Concerts in St. John, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday next.

JOHN R. GILLIS DEAD.—Mr. John R. Gillis died last evening after an illness of some three months. He was about 35 years of age and was a son of the late John Gillis of this city. He was educated at New Brunswick University. Much sympathy is felt for his wife and five little children who survive him. Mr. Gillis was an active mason being a member of St. John Lodge No. 2.

ELEGANT PLUSHES.—One of the most tastefully trimmed windows of any of the St. John business houses is that of Messrs. Daniel & Robertson, Charlotte street. This firm fully believe in displaying their goods to the best advantage possible, especially during such a season as the present, and their third window now contains a very beautiful assortment of plushes. These consist of rolls of many different shades arranged in circular order, and blended in color very tastefully. The window is attractive and has occasioned much admiration.

WINDOW DRESSING.—The white window of Messrs. A. & J. Hay, No. 76 King street, is something every visitor to the exhibition should see. It is a happy combination of white stuffs, of which plush predominates, used as a back ground for some very beautiful articles of jewelry, the whole effect being charming. After enjoying the outside view the visitor should step inside, where will be found a very complete stock of all the latest fads in jewelry, and all that is latest in clockware and silver ware. The most fastidious cannot fail to be suited in the choice little establishment kept by Messrs. A. & J. Hay.

A VERY CONVENIENT ARTICLE.—Mr. Geo. R. Davis, has lately had patented a very neat, new kind of umbrella stand. It is only two feet nine inches in height and weighs about three pounds. This article is suitable for either hall, parlor, office or store, and when not in use may be closed as shown by the cut in the advertisement in another column. It may be seen enter in the Exhibition building or at 73 Prince William street.

THE VALENCIA.—The New York steamer Valencia did not arrive to-day, thus losing two trips. Various rumors have been afloat about the line being in difficulties and going to take their boats off the route. The agent here, Mr. Frank Rowan, was seen this morning and said that a boat would arrive here next week. The company are now re-organizing. The probabilites are that another boat will be put on this route in place of the Valencia.

COLLISION.—A woodboat in tow of the tug Fannie collided with the ferry boat in the harbor this morning. The vessel's jibboom struck the ferry boat in one of her cabins and tore the canvas on its top.

NO "TICKET" PHOTOS at Climo's. Only genuine photographs are made. Our special cabinet the public should see: 85 Germain street.

NOW IN ORDER.

ALL THE EXHIBITS IN THE GREAT FAIR ARE READY FOR INSPECTION.

Second and Third Days of the Exhibition—What British Columbia can Produce—A Trip Through the Machinery Hall—This Evening's Concert.

Thirty-six hundred and eighty-one people paid the price of admission to the big fair yesterday, and the great majority of this number were present during the evening. The scene about the building was so lively that the various exhibits seemed to have developed a vast additional interest since they were first put upon the boards, and everything ran amoothly, and satisfactorily. A big crowd does much to increase the general interest, and it has a further advantage from the financial point of view of inducing people to come again. It took hours to get around the buildings and grounds last evening, and the people will have to go back to see what they were not able to see at "the last" visit. About 9 o'clock the display of fireworks began, and this was very fine, although, perhaps, a little too short. Rockets and bombs went sailing high in the air, and sent down their showers of brilliant lights, fire balls and serpents. The changing colored lights lit up in a lurid manner the thousands of admiring faces, and the various set pieces, were received with abundant pleasure and applause. The fireworks were well handled and were worth seeing. On Saturday night the display will be repeated, and the special attractions committee have had a number of seats erected about the grounds, in order to give spectators a good view. A small fee will be charged for the use of these seats, and the public desiring to enjoy the best possible view of the spectacle, will be glad to learn that this provision has been made for their comfort.

THIS MORNING

there were many visitors to the exhibition, not a few believing in taking a quiet moment for the better inspection of the exhibits. To-day the Manitoba space presents quite a different appearance from that which it presented on Wednesday. The long table is now piled high with the products of the North western fields, every variety of vegetable, and among them some curious looking specimens of what nature produces. Huge cabbages and cauliflowers, potatoes, turnips, and beets line the shelves, and numberless stalks of celery invite the admiring glances of the domestic and household man and woman. These additions to the Manitoba exhibits increase both its worth and interest.

The British Columbia Exhibit.

The British Columbia exhibit is perhaps the fullest representation of products, curios and manufactured goods shown by any province of Canada. The exhibit is sent forward by the British Columbia exhibit association with Mr. R. E. Gosnell in charge of it as their commissioner. Mr. Gosnell is a newspaper man who was formerly city editor of the Vancouver News and is full of information concerning the province and the different branches of its industries and resources represented by the exhibit under his care. The exhibit contains specimens of the products the forests in the way of manufactured woods and timber; of the, farm in the agricultural products and of fruits; and of the sea is the shell fish salmon and marine curiosities.

THE EXHIBIT OF FRUIT

grown in that province is magnificent. A lot of plums which were being brought on the branches cut in six foot lengths and covered with plums like a cluster of grapes were spoiled in transit as was also part of the vegetable exhibit, but these will be replaced by fresh ones, ten cases of which will be here Monday. The fruits shown prove that in this line our most western province is not behind any part of the world in respect to its ability to grow good fruit. Apples, peaches, pears, apricots, grapes, cherries, plums, berries and small fruits are displayed which are very creditable. G. W. Henry of Port Hammond makes the largest exhibit in this line.

THE COLLECTION OF MINERALS

is the finest and most complete ever seen outside that province. West Kootenay is the best represented. There are ores from 42 mines. These ores are principally lead, with a large per centage of silver and sometimes considerable gold in them. Some of the richest of them yield from $40 to $15,000 a ton. The Kootenay district is becoming developed rapidly on account of the railway being opened up there this year. There are also fine specimens shown of the iron and copper ores of the province. This collection of mineral specimens is to be sent to London, Eng. to be placed in the permanent exhibition there. Part of the mineral display which attracts much attention is the coal from the mines of the New Vancouver Coal Company's mines in Vancouver Island. The seam these large pieces of coal were taken from is 600 feet below the surface and is ten feet in thickness. The coal is bituminous, harder than Nova Scotia coal and not quite as hard as anthracite. It is a fine burning coal and about 2000 tons a day are raised at the mines where it is dug. There are also displayed a fine lot of clays, granites, slate and freestone specimens.

THE COLLECTION OF WOODS.

The wood part of the B. C. display attracts a great deal of interest. Sections of the great spruce pine trees that grow from 3 to 16 feet in diameter and 150 to 200 feet high are shown, and there are two boards over four feet wide cut from an average sized tree. These boards are cut with two circular saws, one cutting in the lower side of the log while the other cuts the upper side.

There is a fine collection of manufactured woods from the Royal City planing mills, Vancouver, in spruce, cedar, fir, maple and alder. The doors made of cedar, spruce and fir finished in oil are much admired. They also show a very handsome mantle piece of polished maple and alder.

THE GRAINS.

The showing of grains should entirely dispel the prevalent idea that British Columbia is not very well adapted for grain raising. In this part of the exhibit is wheat 7 feet high with magnificent heads, turning out 35 to 80 bushels to the acre, oats 6½ feet high weighing 50 pounds to the bushel and giving as high as 100 bushels to the acre. Timothy hay is shown seven feet high of which 3 to 4 tons to the acre is sometimes cut. There is one specimen of wheat containing forty stalks averaging 110 grains to the stalk. It was grown in Nicola county.

THE COLLECTION OF ANIMALS

is the finest outside the provincial museum. It is sent by Mr. J. C. Henderson, of Chilliwack and although a private collection it comprises nearly a complete representation of all the native animals and birds of British Columbia. Sixty-five birds and 14 animals are shown. The animals include the mountain lion, panther, wolf, lynx, mountain sheep, and mountain goat, beaver, fisher, and seal. The display of birds includes the golden and bald and other varieties of eagles, several varieties of owls and small birds and all kinds of water fowl such as duck, loons, swans, etc. There is also a lot of beaver, otter, and bear skins shown.

THE CANNED SALMON

exhibit takes in the goods of the canneries on Naas river, put up by R. Ward & Co. of Vancouver, Skeena river, by British American Packing Co., and the Frazer river.

D. J. Mann & Co. make a fine showing of canned fruits.

There is a good collection of mineral waters from the Harrison Hot Springs, which are about 80 miles from Vancouver.

THE MARINE CURIOSITIES

embrace a variety of shell fish, of stones, shells, fossils etc., and form a very interesting feature.

There are also a lot of pieces of bone and horn carved work done by the Indians and a number of other interesting attractions which visitors must see for themselves and form their own opinions of them.

The Citizens Band.

The ex-members of the popular 62nd band have organized a band to be known as the Citizens Band. They have been practising and are in good shape for business with Mr. Morton L. Harrison as business manager. Mr. Landry has ordered a whole set of new instruments for them which will probably arrive here next week. They will be obtained in New York and will be of the best makes and silver mounted. The citizen's band has good encouragement from the right quarters and is fully confident of the support of the public.

Police Court.

Henry Addison and John Hayes, drunks, were fined $4 each.

John McDonald, a lodger, was let go.

Ellen Kane, drunk on Brussels street, was fined $8.

Michael Landers forfeited $7 by not appearing to answer a charge of drunkenness on the King square.

Sarah Collier was fined $20 for assaulting and beating Eva Morrill and Kate Doherty on Sheffield street.

Among the Shipping.

Schooner Ann Elizabeth of Bangor has been sold to Gallagher & Co., and others of Portland Me., for about $1200. She is to be commanded by Captain Kerrigan, formerly master of schooner Maggie J. Chadwick.
