GRAND WELCOME FOR LOU SCHOLES

Toronto Gives the Champion a Splendid Reception.

THOUSANDS CROWD STREETS

City Presents Him With a Set of Sliverware and Baseball Club a Diamond Pin.

Toronto, July 25.-Lou Scholes, vinner of the Diamond Sculls, and the hampion amateur oarsman of the world, was given a magnificent reception this evening on his return. deputation of about 200 members athletic organizations and citizens genrally, headed by Alderman Jones, as hairman, went over to Lewiston he Corona, and welcomed him back to anada. On the trip across, Scholes was nearly overwhelmed by the kind-ness of the deputation. The celebrated sculls of which he has temporary possession, and the magnificent cup, which becomes his property, were produced for the admiration of the visitors. At the eastern gap of the harbor, hundreds of sail and steam craft of all sizes and shapes, assembled to greet the incoming champion, and making one of the prettiest sights imaginable as the day was perfect for any such demonstration. The dock was jammed with an admiring and enthusiastic growd, who cheered lustily as soon as the Corona drew in and moored. Ald. Ramsden, acting mayor, and the members of the city council here greeted the champion. An attempt was made to form a procession, but the crowd was so great that this took considerable time. When the procession finally started it was after 6 o'clock, and all the employes of the city factories and stores joined the thousands who already thronged Yonge street. It was certainly a magnificent and spontan-eous tribute to the young Canadian. All up Yonge street there was continuous cheering. Scholes was compelled to remain standing in his carbowing his acknowledgments. Two features of the procession were the shell in which he won the Diamond suspended on a fire brigade ladder truck, and also the old shell in which he learned to row, in a wagon Rider on a charge of stealing the sum elonging to the Don Rowing Club. of $60 from Mrs. Burdon, of the same At his father's establishment, just town. above Queen street, he met with a The perfect ovation. The procession con- description of the suspect was sent to tinued on to Queen's Park, where an enormous crowd gathered. Ald. Ramsden, as acting mayor, on behalf of who answered the description of the the city, presented Scholes with a $500 one wanted in Ridgetown and took him cabinet of silverware, an appropriate in. When arrested Smith admitted his present in view of his approaching identity, but did not admit the truth wedding. Speeches of congratulation of the charge. He was taken back to were then made by Ald. Jones, Ald. Ridgetown by Constable Grant, of that Coatsworth, Ald. Hay, E. F. Clark, place. M. P.: Edward Hanlon, P. Mulgueen

Water-flowing. He had gone away with the intention of doing his best to bring honor to his country. He thanked all for the honor and hospitality shown him. The Toronto Baseball Club the presented him with a $300 diamor medal, and the meeting broke up with cheers for the King and Scholes. PERSONAL NOTES

Walter Obernesser Gets a Send-Off on His Way to St. Louis.

Obernesser, of this city, who is entered for the junior championship of the world sculling contest at St. Louis, passed through here this morning from Toronto, where he has been training for the event. He was met by his father, who accompanied him to St. Louis, and a number of friends, who gave him an informal reception. Obernesser is in fine condition and is onfident—as are those who have seen im training—that he will make a good showing in the big race, which comes off on Friday. Oarsmen from nearly all parts of the world are entered in the event, and if Obernesser should vin, as all his friends sincerely hope, he will bring to Canada an honor secnd only to that won by Lou Scholes, whose victory fills with pride the bosom of every true lover of sport in Canada. Obernesser is well equipped for the race, and his trainers are men who would not have sent him to the contest did they not think he had a good
