There was preaching on Queen Square yesterday afternoon. The preacher looked like a man whom we have seen driving a horse and sloven round the city.

Lord Campbell en route for Ottawa.

Lord George Gordon Campbell, son of the Duke of Argyll and brother of the Marquis of Lorne, was at the Victoria Hotel yesterday. He is a Lieutenant in the Royal Navy, and is at present, attached to H. M. ship Challenger, for some months past engaged in making scientific deep-sea soundings in the Atlantic Ocean. His Lordship is accompanied by three or four brother officers, and goes direct to Ottawa to visit Lord Dufferin. He is about twenty-three years old, and has a very pleasing manner. In conversation with a TRIBUNE reporter yesterday he gave many interesting details of the deep-sea soundings in which they have been engaged, describing very graphically the strange dead and living things brought up by the grapples from the depth of the great ocean. He acknowledged, however, with sailor frankness that he had grown rather weary of the work and received his leave of absence with much joy. He called on his old friend, Rev. George J. Caie, yesterday. It was the intention of the Captain of the Challenger to land the party at New York, but a gale at Sandy Hook forced him to bear up to Halifax.

Shipping Notes.

H. M. S. Challenger, with the exploring expedition on board, arrived at Halifax on the 9th inst. from Bermuda, from which port she sailed on the 21st inst. She had been dredging all the way, which caused the delay in reaching her port. Since she left nothing unusual has transpired, with the exception that on the 7th inst., while dredging, and at a depth of nearly two miles, the dredge brought up a large rock, weighing upwards of 400 lbs.; it is granite, and a lot of dark mud was around it. The following gentlemen compose the expedition: Prof. Myville Thompson, leader of the expedition; Mr. Mosley, naturalist; Mr. Wylde, draftsman; Dr. Buchanan, analysist; John Morray, the great Arctic explorer, and Dr. Shum, surgeon. She will leave again on or about the 18th inst., for the Western Isles and Madeira, and will remain from home three years longer, during which time it is intended she will make a tour of the world. She reports that H. M. S. Royal Alfred was to come out of dock on the 4th, and to sail for Halifax on the 10th inst.

The Governor Wilmot.—This superb vessel was launched from Messrs. Cruikshank & Pittfield's yard at noon to-day, and towed round to the harbor. She now lays moored at the Custom House wharf, where she is to be rigged and fitted for sea. She is a handsome vessel and well worthy inspection.

The schooner Jeddo, Kingston, master, on her passage to New York with a cargo of spilings, struck on the Ledge Rocks, Two Rivers, N. S. She listed off shortly afterwards. Is much damaged.

"THEY'VE GOT TO COME" and try the Cool and Sparkling Soda Water from F. B. MARTER's new and elegant Fountain 81 King Street. tf

The St. George Red Granite Co.

A number of the Directors of the above company returned this morning from a visit to their quarries at St. George. Operations will be commenced at the quarries on Monday next. A comfortable boarding house has been provided for the workmen, a number of whom are expected to go from this city on Saturday. The sleepers for tramways are all out on the ground ready for use, and the tools for blacksmiths and workmen will be placed on the ground at once. A special meeting of Directors has been called for Tuesday, May 27th, at which it will be proposed to increase the capital stock. At that meeting it will also be decided whether the polishing mills will be located at St. George or in this city. The enterprise is now in the hands of energetic capitalists, and liberal dividends will doubtless reward their enterprise.

For Monday morning there was a very slim attendance at the Station. The dock also had only five occupants.

Hugh McCaullich, a stranger, with no home to go to, went for protection, and was let go.

Mary Ann Scott was found late on Saturday lying in the porch of an unoccupied house in Queen street. She had a young child in her arms, was homeless and friendless, and willing to die. The policeman took her to the Station and this morning she was allowed to depart.

Pat Clancey drunk on Duke street, Michael Burke on Sheffield street, and John Finnegan on Prince Wm. street, were each fined $8.

James Patieure, a sailor, was given in charge by the Chief Mate of the Castalia for being drunk and fighting on board that steamer. He was sent to gaol for two weeks or until his ship leaves, and the time is to be deducted from his wages.

Rats at the Water Works.

Hon. Mr. Willis retired to bed last night very weary with his labors on behalf of the colonists, and hoped to get a little rest. But, alas, there is no rest for men who combine official and journalistic duties. The gnawing of a rat in the bath room awakened him, and on opening the door of the "water arrangement," to quote Mr. Willis, the water rushed out on the floor and out through the hall. A rat had gnawed through the water pipe.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD, nothing has ever been offered which can compare with this EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It is found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the humors that rankle in the system at this season of the year. Many complaints have their origin in the spring, and in the causes above mentioned, for which no better remedy has ever been devised. By its use multitudes can spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system strives to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with this paramount of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Prepared by
