Then—and Now!

While Canada was engaged in war, Victory Bonds, yielding 5½% were considered an attractive investment by shrewd financiers.

Now, with reconstruction well under way, they can be bought to yield from 5.67% to 6.55%. To purchase Victory Bonds at present prices, is an evidence of sound business judgment.

Mail your order or write for our pamphlet entitled "Some Victory Bond Questions and Answers."

RADVILLE (QU'APPELLE DIOCESE).

Rev. Isaac H. Lackey, who has been in charge of this parish for the last five years, having resigned the parish, and retiring from the ministry, left some weeks ago for Hemmingford, Que., Mrs. Lackey's old home, and of which parish Mr. Lackey was Rector for some years. The high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Lackey are held was shown in good fashion by a large social gathering of the parishioners and friends at the Province Theatre, when they were presented with a substantial purse.
