Old World Gossip

Little Interest Taken in the Irish Convention.

Britain Means Business in Her Dealings With the Porte.

A Peerage Goes Begging for the First Time on Record.

Rumors of Dr. Jameson's Coming Marriage Once More Revived.

Special London Cable Letter.

London, Sept. 5.—The Irish National Convention at Dublin, which closed on Thursday, awoke only the faintest interest in England, and it must be admitted by any impartial observer that as a means of promoting unity in the Irish Parliamentary party, it was the biggest failure on record, and only served to widen the breaches existing among the various factions. Even the Liberal newspapers, which for years have had the cause of Ireland at heart, admit this. The Westminster Gazette (Liberal) thinks that as a result of the convention money from abroad will flow into the coffers of the Dillonites for a year or two, but it adds: "There can be no permanent supporter this side of Ireland until there is a united Irish party, and of this there is not the ghost of a chance unless the bishops and priests take the field."

EFFECTS OF PRISON LIFE.

In connection with the assertion that Irish political prisoners have been driven insane by the hardships of convict life, it is interesting to note the report of the Government inspector of prisons, which not only flatly contradicts the statement, but shows to his own satisfaction that the prison management has precisely the opposite effect. The report quotes figures to show that the number of insane prisoners decreases with the length of their imprisonment, and that the average daily population, 3,220, of the convict prisoners for the year ending March 31, there were 11 insane convicts and only 27 deaths, all from natural causes, among them.

IN THE SULTAN'S REALMS.

The recent atrocities at Constantinople have been thoroughly and efficiently discussed by all classes during the week, and have aroused the wrath of Europe to such an extent that they will probably compel action upon the part of at least some of the powers, and force the Sultan to make a radical change in the administration of the Empire. There is already evidence that the bugbear of a general European war is no longer sufficient to guarantee Turkey immunity for its misdeeds. The warships of various nations are gathering in the Levant, led by a squadron consisting of a score of British ships, which are ready to respond to a sign from Sir Philip Currie, the British ambassador at Constantinople. The latter arrived at his post yesterday, armed, it is understood, with definite instructions from the Marquis of Salisbury to compel obedience to certain demands upon the part of Great Britain, either in conjunction with the representatives of other powers or, failing them, to take action alone. That Great Britain means business is emphasized by the fact that prior to his departure, Sir Phillip Currie received a communication from the Queen for delivery, personally, to the Sultan. In this communication it is believed Her Majesty conveys to the Sultan a kindly warning of the approaching storm. Abdul Hamid has a profound respect for the Queen, and her letters to him are never without effect.

The language of Mr. Gladstone on the situation continues to be as vigorous as ever, and there is no doubt that the spurring of the veteran Liberal chieftain has had its effect upon Lord Salisbury and his Ministers.

SOCIAL GOSSIP.

Prince and Princess Charles of Denmark (Princess Maud of Wales) wearied of the dullness of Appleton Hall, are spending a week in town and have been enjoying themselves in bicycling and visiting the theaters.

The Duke and Duchess of Marlborough (formerly Conseulo Vanderbilt) are at present at Blenheim, where extensive alterations and improvements have begun. The Prince of Wales has promised to visit them on Nov. 23, and will remain at Blenheim for a week. A series of battues and a county ball have been arranged for his entertainment.

The broken engagement of Sir Robert Peel and Miss Ella Williamson, daughter of Lord Ashton, brought about by a letter from a lady who was a friend of Mrs. Langtry and Mr. Abingdon Baird, is still discussed, and comment has developed the fact that Sir Robert's projected father-in-law, although elevated to the peerage at the instance of Lord Rosebery, has never taken out a patent of the peerage—that is to say, he has never obtained from the College of Arms, otherwise the Heralds' College, the arms and necessary documents, and he has not paid the necessary fees, amounting to £800. This is the first case on record in which a peerage has not been taken up.

The rumor that Dr. Jameson is to marry the Dowager Countess of Dudley, daughter of Sir Thomas Moncrieff, and widow of the first Earl of Dudley, who died in 1885, is revived by the frequent visits which the Countess has been paying to the prisoner in Halloway jail, and by the fact that she showed the keenest interest in his trial.

SPORTING TALK.

In spite of the belittling in some quarters of Rieff, the American jockey, the latter had his first mount for an English owner at Derby on Wednesday. According to the English racing papers Mr. Pierre Lorillard does not intend to race again in America, until the permanency of racing there is better established.

The Congress of Sanitary Institutes, who have been in session in Newcastle, has strongly indorsed bicycling as being the means of banishing a vast number of the derangements of women, and expressed the conviction that the average standard of the health of women bicyclists has undergone an appreciable elevation.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Trades Union Congress of Great Britain will open at Edinburgh on Monday next and will close on Sept. 12. It is expected that about 350 delegates will be present and the German trade societies will also be represented, their delegates being Herr A. Von Elm, a member of the Cigar Sorters' Union, and manager of the Workers' Productive Association, of Hamburg. The American Federation of Labor has sent over two delegates, Messrs. Straeser and Sullivan. John Burns, Keir Hardie, and Henry Broadhurst, the English labor agitators, who caused so much excitement at Cardiff last year, will not attend.

There are renewed indications of the agitation for the release of Mrs. Maybrick. The newspapers stated recently that the Lord Chief Justice, Baron Russell of Killowen, had sent an appeal to the Home Secretary, Sir Matthew White Ridley, adducing new evidence, and the mother of the prisoner, Baroness De Roques, has had an interview with her, finding Mrs. Maybrick in very bad health. Talking the matter over with a representative of the Associated Press, counsel for Mrs. Maybrick said: "No one can possibly be more anxious for the prisoner's release than myself; but I must deprecate the ill-advised agitation which is constantly occurring on her behalf. I do not think that it does her any good and in several instances it has positively been detrimental. Concerning any new evidence, I have heard nothing, nor am I prepared to say that anything particular has recently been done in the matter."

Li Hung Chang's Visit to Canada Arranged For.

Another Independent Conservative Indorses Government Action on Payment of Employes.

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—The attack of the Opposition upon the action of the Government in availing itself of the provision of the audit act authorizing the issue of Governor-General's warrants to pay wages due and to continue the services of the country pending the meeting of Parliament, was continued in the House yesterday. Though the subject was handled with ability by the gentlemen who championed the opposing side of the argument, it was impossible to sustain the interest, and as time wore on, the number of vacant seats increased, until there was a bare quorum of members in their places. Notable among the speeches of the day were those in which Mr. Russell, of Halifax; Mr. Britton, of Kingston, and Mr. McCarthy, justified the course of the Government, and opposed Mr. Foster's motion of censure. The curiosity of the House as to the position that the third party leader would take upon the question was satisfied by a brief but conclusive deliverance, in which both the policy and legality of the resort to the power conferred upon the executive by the statute were affirmed. Mr. Clancy and Dr. Sproule also spoke. In recognition of the day set apart in honor of labor, Mr. Laurier moved the adjournment of the House until Tuesday.

The debate was not concluded, but Tuesday night will see the end of it. Then will be taken the first division of the session.

LI HUNG CHANG IN CANADA.

Sir Henri Joly de Lotbiniere left by last night's train for Niagara Falls, where he is to join the Chinese Viceroy, Li Hung Chang. He has invited the Controller of the Chinese, Mr. Parmalee, to accompany him on the trip, and the latter will take with him a petition from the Chinese of Victoria, praying Li Hung's intercession with the Canadian Governent for the appointment of a consul at that port. The two will bring the distinguished visitor over to Toronto. From Toronto they will proceed to North Bay, going further west. From that point he will be taken in hand by Dr. Horsey, a former Liberal candidate in North Grey, who will go to the coast with the party and see them aboard the Empress of China on the 14th. Dr. Horsey has resided in Japan for years as the agent of an insurance company.

STANDING ORDERS.

Dr. Landerkin was appointed chairman of the standing orders committee yesterday. The following bills were passed on:

St. Clair and Erie Ship Canal Company, to revive an old act of incorporation and extend the time for the completion of the work.

Albert Nordheimer, for a bill of divorce from his wife, Edith Nordheimer.

NOTES.

Sir Richard Cartwright is asking Boards of Trade today how trade can be extended.

In the Senate yesterday Sir Oliver Mowat introduced a bill intituled "An act to authorize the appointment of judges of the Supreme Court ad hoce in certain cases." The act, he said, was urgently required in order that the legal business before the court should be disposed of. One of the judges, Mr. Justice Gwynne, was now away on sick leave and Mr. Justice Taschereau had applied for leave on account of illness. The Senate adjourned until the 14th.

Senator Vidal gave notice that when the Senate met again he would propose a resolution to the effect that the bar attached to the Senate should be closed. Senator Bowell said the abolition of the bar would not stop the sale of liquors.
