HAPPY SMILING BOYS

Were in order all last week, and we expect by the end of this week to wind up the biggest year we have ever had in our Boys' Clothing Department. The Air Guns have been popping, the Boys have been smiling and the Suits and Overcoats have been rushing out in parcels, and on the backs of delighted boys. What more could any one ask?

We have about 60 Air Rifles left.

LUCKY, AND SHOTS GO WILD STEALS HORSE AND ESCAPES

"Wild West" Incident at Harrow—Two Men Are Slightly Wounded.

Harrow, Dec. 25.—Saturday night James Jones, known as "Sunny Jim," who has been employed in Drummond's livery stable here for six months, shot at Roland Halstead, sr., in John Halstead's Hotel.

Roland Halstead escaped, but John Halstead, who tried to shield Roland, was shot thru the hand, and a second shot from Jones' revolver passed thru the cheek of William Ridout, a bystander, and knocked out several of his teeth.

Jones immediately ran to Drummond's stable, saddled a horse and escaped. A posse was organized and followed him, but did not find him. Later the horse came back alone.

It is believed Jones rode to Marshfield, caught a Pere Marquette freight to Walkerville, and made his way to Detroit.

Roland Halstead and his son had trouble a few days ago with Jones. The quarrel was renewed Saturday night in the street. Jones followed Halstead into the hotel with the above results.

DIDN'T SEE THE HUMOR.

Dr. Osler is Introduced to Hearty Mariner Aged 70.

New York, Dec. 25.—Returning to give a series of lectures in Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, and also to spend the holidays among friends in this country, Dr. William Osler, professor in the niversity of Oxford, arrived yesterday on the Caronia.

"I have nothing to say to the newspapers," said Dr. Osler, "except that after going to Boston, and then to Canada, I shall go to Baltimore and about Jan. 5 will be found in the medical department of Johns Hopkins University." Mrs. Osler and their son accompanied Dr. Osler.

Knowing that the public utterances of Dr. Osler had placed him on record as being opposed to the continuance in service of men beyond the forty year age limit, John M. Bishop, the deputy surveyor in charge of the customs officers on the pier, introduced to the physician Captain J. S. Watson, the port captain of the Cunard line, who for more than twenty years has acted in that capacity and who took the position after relinquishing a command in the United States Navy. Hale and hearty, Captain Watson is near the seventy year mark.

"Dr. Osler, let me introduce Captain Watson of the Cunard line," said Mr. Bishop, "who served with Admiral Porter during the civil war, and is yet in pretty fine shape," and there was a merry twinkle in the eyes of the customs officer. "Glad to meet you," said the doctor, but there was an evident lack of appreciation of the situation.

Several of the passengers who came with the physician had a hearty laugh when they saw the venerable and active man and the doctor meet.

MAN AND DAUGHTER KILLED BY PENNSYLVANIA FLYER.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Dec. 25.—A horse attached to a buggy ran into the Pennsylvania 18-hour "flyer" at Delphos, Ohio, to-day, and Henry Honorst and daughter Rose were killed, and Mrs. Barney Washomhoff, also a daughter of Honorst, was severely injured.

REAL DAUGHTER OF REVOLUTION.

Milford, Mass., Dec. 25.—Mrs. Almira Pierce Johnson, one of the oldest members of the Woman's Relief Corps, and one of the Daughters of the American Revolution, died here to-day at the age of 101 years 6 months.

Her father, Levi Pierce, served in the war.

MUST BE IN MOROCCO.

Tangier, Dec. 25.—The Sultan of Morocco refuses to agree to the hearing of the international conference on Moroccan reforms at Madrid, instead of at Algeciras.

Piff, Paff, Pouf.

B. C. Whitney's gorgeous musical production, "Piff, Paff Pouf," which will begin an engagement of one week at the Princess on New Year's Day, was written by Stanislaus Stange, librettist of "Dolly Varden." The music and lyrics are by Jerome and Schwartz. "Piff, Paff, Pouf" was first produced at the New York Casino, where it enjoyed an uninterrupted success of eight months.

XMAS SKATES HIS DOOM BOY DROWNS UNDER ICE

Fate of Jack McIntyre—Road Race Fizzles in Peculiar Way—Plumbers in Court To-Day.

Hamilton, Dec. 25.—(Special.)—Little Jack McIntyre, the nine-year-old son of J McIntyre, the G.T.R. agent at Beamsville, was drowned to-day. This morning he put on a pair of skates that had been given to him as a Christmas present, and went on a little pool that had formed on the roadside. When the family were ready for dinner about 1 o'clock Jack was missing. A search was started, and his dead body was found in the pool. The water was only about three feet deep, but he got under the ice and was held down until he drowned.

Plumbers in Court.

The plumbers' cases will be called Tuesday morning in the police court. Crown Attorney Washington said this evening that he did not think the preliminary hearing would be finished Tuesday. He has subpoenaed George Stevenson, and R. Ellicott, two plumbers who, it is claimed, were forced out of the alleged combine. Mr. Washington thinks that it will take a whole day at least to examine one of them.

Road Race Fizzled.

The Christmas road race was a fizzle, but thru no fault of the management. Twenty-two runners lined up at 2 o'clock ready for the ten mile run. The best runners in the district were entered, and it was expected that some of them would lower the Canadian record for the distance. Just as they were lined up some irresponsible person in the immense crowd that gathered shouted "Go" and nearly the whole bunch went without waiting for the starter's pistol. All efforts to call them back proved futile. Billy Sherring, Ayrs and Anderson were left at the post, and there was nothing for it but to call the whole thing off, including the bets. Twelve of the runners went over the course, Adams finishing first in 55.20, with Frosty Sims second in 57.28, and E. Hughes, Toronto, third, in 57.40. The fizzle caused much disappointment. Billy Sherring finished ninth.

A Fruitless Raid.

Chief Smith and a posse of his men made considerable excitement late last night by breaking in to the top storeys of a store near the corner of King and Macnab-streets. They found quite a crowd of men, but not much else, and Chief Smith said this evening that there would be no prosecution.

Dead at 102.

Mrs. Eliza Wright died to-day at the age of 79 years. Three sons, Ald. H. G. Wright, E. T. and W. G. Wright, and one daughter, Mrs. Nelson, wife of Francis Nelson, sporting editor of The Toronto Globe, survive her. The funeral will be private.

Margaret Nichol, who had reached the remarkable age of 102 years, died to-day at the House of Refuge. She had no relatives.

James R. Philp, who has been a harnessmaker here for years, died at his residence, 108 Young-street, to-day. He was 84 years of age. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon.

HON. R. PREFONTAINE DEAD

ed the annexation of that town to the City of Montreal, and the union was completed in 1884. For some years before he had acted as mayor of Hochelaga, and was returned to the ward as alderman to the city council. He sat continuously until 1898, when he was elected mayor by acclamation, re-elected in 1900 by a large majority. He withdrew voluntarily in 1902, altho nominated for re-election. He also acted on the board of school commissioners, to which he was elected in 1886.

A Noteworthy Inaugural.

M. Prefontaine's appearance in the field of national politics was made under circumstances of peculiar interest. After the Northwest rebellion an election occurred in Hochelaga County, which had been arranged by the late Sir John A. Macdonald, apparently to test the strength of the parties. The Liberal candidate was M. Prefontaine, and the election become of national importance. He won a decisive victory. He was re-elected in 1887 and 1890, and, in 1896, became first member for the new constituency of Maisonneuve by a majority of 1670, which was increased in 1900 to 1774. In the latter year he was also Liberal candidate in Terrebonne, and was elected for that constituency also.

On the reconstruction of the Laurier cabinet, brought about by the resignation of the Hon. J. I. Tarte in November, 1902, M. Prefontaine was appointed minister of marines and fisheries, and had ever since held that portfolio.

M. Prefontaine, married in June, 1876, Hermantina, a daughter of the late Senator J. B Rolland, by whom he had three sons, Rolland, Adrien and Fernland. He was on the directorate of the Confederation Life Assurance Company, the Montreal Land and Improvement Company, and other important concerns.

Interviewed in Paris.

A few weeks ago M. Prefontaine, accompanied by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, went over to London, and from thence to Paris. It was but Saturday that he was interviewed in the French capital, and quite approved of the entente cordiale between France and England, and expressed the opinion that the new premier, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, would be defeated at the coming election if he did not back it up.

"As Canadians are loyal to the crown," both M. Prefontaine and his colleague remarked, "We think that no better course could be adopted."

M. Prefontaine has frequently spoken in Toronto, and he has been a consistent advocate of unity between the French and English speaking populations of Canada.

WAS IT PANGS OF DESPISED LOVE OR JUST MEDICINAL ERROR?

Detroit, Dec. 25.—Frank Kuhn, who says he comes from Williamsburg, Ont., was found on the street by a policeman last night, well-filled with a mixture of carbolic and alcohol. He was hurried to the Emergency Hospital.

His first explanation was that he took the acid with suicidal intent because a young woman, whom he came here to see, has jilted him. Later he denied this, and claimed that he had taken it by mistake, supposing it to be cough medicine.

His mouth was severely burned, but he will recover.

FIVE ALARM NEW YORK FIRE DOES DAMAGE OF $300,000.

New York, Dec. 25.—Five alarms, summoning thirty-two fire companies and the reserves from nine police precincts, were sent out to-night for a blaze which completely gutted the six-storey factory building, Nos. 102, 104, 106 Wooster-street, entailing damage estimated at $300,000.

Five firemen sustained injuries, but were able to continue at work.

SOME BARS CLOSED EARLY

E. J. Jones, Bowmanville; W. J. Thompson, Stouffville; J. P. Secord, Orillia; J. W. Beer, Owen Sound.

Some of the late arrivals at the Iroquois last night were: W. Strain, Millbrook; Mr. and Mrs. Waldie, Gananoque; Charles Stewart, Brampton; W. F. Baines, Elora; B. J. Thornton, Orillia; Robert Deys, London; W. C. Workman, St. Mary's; Julius Perrolt, Chatham; G. Walkim, Banff; J. S. Donohue, Regina.

Late arrivals at the Palmer House were: W. R. Holden, Winnipeg; A. J. Brown, Mitchell; A. Frank, Hamilton; W. G. Story and wife, Gorrie; W. E. Dick, Dundas; H. Cameron, J. W. Reid, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Packard, Seaforth; Mr. and Mrs. P. Gannon, Durham.

Among the late arrivals at the Rossin House were: T. J. Stafford, London; Rev. C. E. McGee, Stratford; Dr. Cormack, St. Thomas; Dr. Ryspark, Hamilton; Dalton C. Nixon, Montreal; Miss Andrews, Collingwood; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Andrews, Ogdensburg; and M. Harris, an engineer of the Transcontinental Railway.

Christmas Day arrivals from outside points at the Queen's were very light, among them being: Mr. and Mrs. Morton, Selton, N. Y.; Rene Beauchemin, Placid Spring, Me.; Mrs. Acob Brookhart, Celina, Ohio; Miss Ruth Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Turner, South River; J. Cayre, New York; Morley Wilkins, Galt; R. F. Harding, Stratford.

At all the hotels the local guests were numerous.

Nice Things From the Farm.

As early as yesterday afternoon the Christmas excursionists began to return. Each train as it entered the Union Depot contributed its quota of returning holidayers. Every one wore a tired but contented look and the presents of poultry dead and alive, and other farm produce were much in evidence. One family who got off the train about 10 o'clock appeared to be carrying the whole stock in trade of grandfather's farm.

Father had a crate which by the sundry sounds which issued therefrom suggested a half dozen chickens. A basket of apples was carried in the other hand, and under his arm was tucked a bundle that smelt and looked suspiciously like cheese. Mother staggered under an enormous valise that might have contained potatoes, eggs or half a hundred other things. Brother had a pair of rabbits, and a crate of granny's best raspberry jam, while little sister had nothing much to carry but a suspicion of molasses candy around her little mouth and a very tired and dejected look. This noteworthy family emphatically refused to be interviewed, so that it was impossible to ascertain the contents of several other parcels not inventoried.

Presents for Red Caps.

The red caps, depot masters and gatemen of the Union Station were the happy recipients yesterday of gifts presented by the Canadian Railway News Co. Each red cap received a box of bons bons and each depot master and gateman received a turkey. The gifts were a complete but delightful surprise to the station officials.

ROOSEVELT WOULD BE BOSS

playing on that to get the benefit of Root's wonderful intellect and his remarkable political insight.

If Theodore Roosevelt has his way he will be the supreme boss of a party organization in 1908 that will comprehend the present Republican party, as many of the new-line Democrats and other brands of politicians, such as the municipal ownership people, as he can control and all stragglers who are willing to acknowledge him as the fountain head. Supremely selfish and a most adroit politician, there is nobody in his vision but Theodore Roosevelt. He is after a political dictatorship and he is having much success in getting his preliminaries in the proper shape.

Boss of the State.

The Herald's Washington correspondent says:

Is President Roosevelt reaching out to seize the national organization of the Republican party, and, if so, will he insist on nominating the Republican candidate for president in 1908?

These questions are being asked by every Republican politician in the country since the action of the president in overthrowing Benjamin B. Odell, the "boss" of New York State.

That the president, thru Governor Higgins and a coterie of former Platt and former Odell followers, is now easily the "boss" of the party in the Empire State is admitted on all sides. What is his object, if he has an object, beyond getting the organization out of the control of the speculative statesmen who have been mixing business with politics? Is it to make Elihu Root his warm personal friend and counsellor, the choice of New York for the Republican nomination? Or is it for the purpose of holding the New York delegates aloof from any candidate until the president has decided for whom the administration will throw its influence?

He has New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Massachusetts and Maryland furnishing 240 delegates out of a total of about a thousand. This is a very good beginning at the outset of 1906, two full years before the national convention will be called.

But the president's influence doesn't stop here. His friends say that he is so managing affairs in the south that they expect him to have practically every delegate from the southern country. Thirteen southern states where his friends expect his influence to be potent will furnish 302 delegates. This, added to the delegates already in sight in the five states already mentioned, will give him easily a majority of the delegates in the convention—542.

Mr. Roosevelt, however, if he should decide to control the national convention for Mr. Root or Judge Taft or Senator Lodge, would not find his influence confined to the five northern states and the thirteen southern states mentioned. His critics say he is "playing politics" all over the country. In Delaware he is doing his best to uphold Senator Allee and drive J. Edward Addicks out of the party. In several western states he is putting his own friends on guard. Such attention has been attracted to the situation by what has happened in the State of New York that influential members of the party who are not followers of the president have awakened to the realization that they must begin working late of nights if they are to prevent the president from dominating the next national convention in organization, in platform and in candidates.

Good Tactics.

In passing it may be said that sight has not been lost of the fact that George B. Cortelyou, the postmaster-general, is still holding on as chairman of the Republican national committee.

It is also recalled that Mr. Cortelyou more than a year ago announced that he was making arrangements to retire from the chairmanship and would designate Harry New, of Indiana, as his successor. But twelve months have passed and Mr. Cortelyou is still chairman. By the same token the president is still as much the master of the national committee as tho he were chairman instead of Mr. Cortelyou.

Politicians say the president is indulging in good tactics in extending his influence over the party. They say he has a fight ahead of him with congress which is likely to last for the next two years. The stronger he can make himself with his party, in view of the criticisms levelled against him for taking up Democratic doctrine, the better equipped he will be for coping with those influences that are now giving him battle on rate regulation, the Panama Canal, the federal control of life insurance, and the various other things on which the president has taken a strong stand.

REFORMING CHINESE EMPIRE LOCAL CELESTIALS ARE IN IT

Organization Meeting of World-Wide League is Held and Evident Enthusiasm Exhibited.

The members of the Toronto branch of the Chinese Empire Reform Association of Canada have pleasant quarters at 169 West Richmond-street. The branch has not been in existence very long, but it has already the highly respectable membership of over 200. The object of the association is to stimulate thought with a view to the general introduction in the Celestial empire of westernism in all its phases, political, social, commercial and so forth. The Dowager Empress is now well advanced in years, and it is hoped by these reformers that with the accession of her grandson they will see a realization of their desires for a free country generally. There are about 170 lodges in the United States and this country, and the headquarters on the continent are in Vancouver. There are also organizations in Westminster and Montreal, and, across the ocean, in Honolulu and South Africa.

Last night was the inaugural gathering of the Toronto Association, and it was of a highly enthusiastic character, the attendance including Chinese ladies, the wives of Chinese merchants, and English women who have married members of that race. The Woy Jung (or chairman), was Hong Woo of Toronto. The speakers, in addition to Hong Woo, included Wong Sing, Lee Fay and Fong Luin, who hails from Hamilton.

The last named spoke for about an hour with considerable enthusiasm, and evidently he never tired his hearers, who often laughed gleefully with him, especially, when at the end of a sentence, delivered so rapidly, he gave an exultant laugh.

There was much to instruct his hearers, to whom he related a part of the history of China four hundred years ago. He urged that everybody in that land should have scope, and he incidentally advocated the formation of all kinds of factories for the development of the many industries.

The head of the organization emphasized the points advanced by the speakers, and the pleasant Yuletide gathering ended at half past ten. During the evening several telegrams, including one from Vancouver, were read amidst much enthusiasm.

Newspaper men who were present never received a more friendly greeting. Handshaking and the compliments of the season passed between the easterners and the westerners. Of the future emperor they spoke in terms of the greatest esteem and confidence. "All the Chinese will love him as their own father," they declared.

NEW CONCILIATION BOARD IS MITCHELL'S PROPOSAL

By it is Demanded Full Recognition of Union and Operators Will Object.

Philadelphia, Dec. 25.—The press tomorrow will say:

President John Mitchell of the United Mine Workers' Union has communicated with the presidents of the anthracite coal producing companies in regard to the demand the miners will make for the continuance of work in the hard coal fields.

It is understood the letter is in regard to holding a conference between the committee representing the United Mine Workers and the operators.

Besides making for an eight-hour day, there are also to be presented other demands. The most important and one that if adopted will mean the complete recognition of the union is the request that an entire new conciliation board be formed, one that will always be in session and will go from place to place to settle disputes.

This request will meet with considerable opposition from the operators.

The proposed new board is to be composed of three members representing the miners and the same number representing the operators and a seventh member to be chosen by the six.

CITY COUNCIL TO-DAY.

Not Much in Program to Keep Alderman Busy.

The meeting of the city council this afternoon will be the last business session of the civic term. There is little work to be done, but among other matters to be brought up is the sanctioning of a five-year contract with the Toronto Electric Light Company. The granting of over $4000 as an additional appropriation for building the new fire station on Berkeley-street, makign a total outlay on the structure of $45,537.06, is asked.

The members of the fire and light committee are expected to shy at the eliminating by the board of control of the salary recommendations for lieutenants in the fire department.

SLAPPED HER IN THE FACE.

Highway Robber, However, Couldn't Escape His Victim.

Wm. Dolman, 27 Wilton-avenue, an English laborer, aged 26, is locked up, charged with highway robbery.

Miss Annie Cameron of 42 West Gerrard-street was walking on Louisa-street, towards Yonge, about 8 o'clock last evening, when, she says, Dolman accosted her, slapped her in the face and attempted to grab her chatelaine. She followed him to McGill-street, where he ran up a lane. She gave a description of him to P. C. Dixon (274), who arrested him in Elm-street.

She identified Dolman.

3-MASTED SCHOONER SUNK. FATE OF CREW NOT KNOWN.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 25.—With all her headgear torn away and her topsails set, an unknown three-masted schooner has sunk in 12 fathoms of water six and a half miles northeast of winter quarter lightship and directly in the path of the coastwise navigation.

This information is contained in a statement made here by Capt. James of the Merchants' Miners' SS. Juniata, which passed the wreck yesterday.

The fate of her crew is not known here.

DEATH OF JAMES WATKINS.

The announcement of the death on Sunday at Regina of James Watkins, formerly of this city, will be received with regret by many Toronto friends. Deceased, who was 23 years of age, left for Regina about 16 months ago to take a position with the Canada Permanent. His death resulted from pneumonia, after a brief illness. Walter F. Watkins of the Canada Permanent and William Watkins of Mason and Risch are brothers.

N. Y. BUILDING TRADES SIGN TRADE AGREEMENT

Every Union Except Housesmiths and Bridgemen at Peace With Employers for Years Ahead.

New York, Dec. 25.—No workers were happier to-day than the 100,000 skilled men in the building trades when it was announced that every union with the exception of the housesmiths and bridgemen had signed a trade agreement of from one to three years to go into effect on Jan. 1 next.

By this action the unions have officially repudiated the strike of the structural iron workers.

In many of the trades the prevailing wage will continue for the coming year. The wages of the house carpenters, however, will be increased 20 cents a day, and thee abinet makers will receive an increase of 22 cents a day, beginning next July.

The trade agreements now date from January1, instead of May as heretofore.

This step was taken because the employers don't want strikes on their hands on May 1, when the busy building season begins.

ENGLISHMEN DINE.

Guests of the Albion Hotel lately arrived from the Old Country spent their first Christmas in the Dominion by holding an enjoyable concert at that hostelry last night.

T. Scott, of Lloyds, Eng., was in the chair, and several songs, recitations and other items were contributed.

The toast of the King was drunk with much enthusiasm, and the evening wound up with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" and the national anthem.
