BUTTER LOWER ON LOCAL MARKET

Drop of a Cent All Round Was Noted This Morning.

BEEF WAS ALSO LOWER

Poultry Was a Little Higher—Hay Prices Remain Unchanged—Other Quotations.

There was a very good showing on the local market this morning. The sales were very brisk and the demand for most lines very keen.

There seemed on the whole, however, to be a tendency toward easier prices in almost all lines.

Butter was about a cent less on the average than it has been for some time past, with crocks at 23 to 24 cents, and rolls at 21 to 22 cents. The highest figure asked being 25 cents, while they sold at whole sale for 20 cents for strictly fresh milk.

There was a good supply of poultry offered, mostly chickens, which sold at 12 cents, a slight advance on the prevailing price.

Beef is lower. In the meat market the decrease in price held good. Beef sold mostly at $3.50, though some very choice varieties brought the higher price of $3.75.

Dressed hogs, too, were considerably easier, the greater majority selling at $11.25, and only a few at the higher figure of $11.50.

The price for live hogs has not been set, and it is expected that the price will be somewhat less than last week, as there is quite a slump in the Toronto market.

Hay unchanged. Hay remained at the same figure, $15 being paid for very choice quality. Oats remained firm at from $1.15 to $1.20, while wheat sold at $1.07 to $1.10.

Vegetables were rather scarce with the exception of potatoes, which were offered in large quantities. There was very little sale for them, however, 50 to 60 cents a bag being the prevailing price. In large lots, while single bags sold for 60 cents.
