COUNTY NEWS.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

A Budget of News and Gossip.—Persons Intelligence.—A Little of Everything well Mixed up.

GREENBUSH

WEDNESDAY, April 15.—On Monday last, Mrs. Nancy Blanchard, who had been around the house as usual attending to her usual work, having washed, and got dinner, was taken suddenly with a paralytic stroke. She has lost the use of one side and is very low. Slight hopes are entertained of her recovery.

Abraham Horton is around again, after a severe attack of the mumps.

The grangers have about ceased the manufacture of the sweet and turned their attention to agricultural pursuits.

Mr. James Hewitt, blacksmith has bought the house and lot on the corner of Spadina avenue and Main street and will erect a large commodious blacksmith's shop, in order to accommodate his fast increasing trade.

Mr. Byfield of Ottawa, photographer, photographed the school building, teacher, trustees and pupils of this section yesterday. This is his second attempt, and he complained of it being a very difficult task. We hope that he has been successful this time, he also photographed a few private residences. We expect to be presented with a photo gratiously.

Charley the Ripper and his best girl passed through our town last evening. He was well filled with bug juice.

WESTPORT.

SATURDAY, April 18.—Our merchants are enjoying the sweets of a rushing business.

The Baptist Sugar Social Thursday evening was a sweet success. A large number attended and enjoyed themselves highly.

One would imagine by the long string of letters which the Westport Journal places after J. Whelan's name that he was a "Jack of all Trades" with a strong accent on the Jack.

The funeral of Katie, daughter of Rev D. Y. Ross took place on the 17th. The body was interred in the Presbyterian cemetery near Newboro. The burial services were conducted in the Presbyterian church Newboro.

A new industry has commenced in town. Its work is performed during the wee sma hours of the morning and consists in teaching such of our citizens, as desire to be taught, the art of swimming. The initiatory ceremonies were conducted on Friday morning at the hour of two, and were superintended by Don Curtis, who seemingly fills the office of "The Great Dipper." His duties are to give his pupils an impromptu bath in the cooling waters of the Rideau. No tuition fees are charged the only thing necessary being that the pupils should have unbounded faith in Don's ability to do the business without a mistake.

ADDISON.

MONDAY, April 20.—The wife of Senator Roberts, presented her liege lord with a fine baby boy on the 18th inst. The Senator is the proudest man in town. Mother and child are doing well.

Wedding bells have again pealed forth their melodies at Mount Pleasant, this time the happy man is Mr. John Paterson of Amsterdam, N. Y., and the bride Miss Frances Mullen daughter of David Mullen of Mount Pleasant. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Oliver in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The number of presents was large, some of them being very valuable. The happy couple left for their home at Amsterdam on the 18th, taking with them the best wishes of all that thus may be a long and prosperous life.

Palace factory has opened again for the season, with Mr. R. Kelly jr., as cheesemaker. We expect Palace factory to produce some of the finest cheese in the Dominion this season.

Our Mayor is getting very poor health this spring. We hope it is nothing serious.

DELTA.

MONDAY, April 20.—Messrs. Strong & Davison are rushing the cheese factory and expect to have it completed by first of May. When finished, Delta can boast of having one of the finest factories in the Dominion.

Why comest thou with "Wind" to "Gush." The small boy with the long rubber boots and hound caught a great big "Sucker" while wandering by the brooklet. Birds of a feather flock together.

Mr. Delorma Brown of Phillipsville died suddenly Sunday evening of heart disease. He was a brother of John E. Brown, Township Clerk of Bastard, and has always resided in this vicinity. The funeral takes place tomorrow (Tuesday) at 2 p.m. from his late residence to the Methodist church.

Mr. Stearns Ransom has shipped nearly three thousand gallons of syrup. Seventy cents being the highest price paid.

F. R. Kearns is doing a rushing business in the lumber trade.

The sugar party up at "The Farm" was thoroughly enjoyed by quite a number of our young people.

John E. Brown has shut down his saw mill having finished a successful seasons cut. He informs us that he is going in the tile manufacturing more extensive than ever the coming summer.

Miss Leggett of Newboro is the guest of Mrs. H. C. Johnson.

LYNDHURST.

SATURDAY, April 18.—Samuel Jacob, an old an respected resident in this locality, died last week after a long and painful illness.

Daniel Berney has gone to St. Paul, Minn., where he has secured a good position.

Miss Stella Cheetham has returned after an absence of two weeks spent in attendance on her sister who has been very ill.

A few days ago there were several loud reports in the direction of Roddick's mill yard. An attempt was being made to split some very large pine logs. After gunpowder had been tried, without success, dynamite was resorted to and had the desired effect.

J. Mills and J. Wiltse have removed from the village, having secured positions as cheesemakers.

Miss Maggie Singleton is absent visiting relatives in Delta.

The youth of the village have been seized with a mania for jumping. From children ten year old up to men with beards, they are all jumping, until we are reminded of those musical little denizens of the marshes.

ELLISVILLE

SATURDAY, April 18.—Sugar making is done and spring's work will soon commence.

Charles Pritchard's new building, which is being erected will be quite an improvement to the village.

Not more than a mile from our village, lives a person, who stiles himself a "Reader," and takes it into his shallow brain to find fault with what we have to say, going so far as to charge us with untruthfulness. We would just like to say to "Reader" that there was nothing said about the broom-factory meeting that was meant, to offend anyone. We are sorry to know that we have a person in our vicinity, who is so feeble minded, as to get offended at what we only meant to be a joke.

Mr. J. MacMillan is taking the people's senses (census.)

W. G. Brown and G. Ellis recently purchased a fine thoroughbred bull from Mr. J. Brown of Sweet's Corners.

NEWBORO.

MONDAY, April 20.—Mr. R. Gallagher with his bride paid us a flying visit on his return from Toronto and the west. He left on Thursday to resume business in the far west. We wish the young couple much joy and prosperity.

The ice has entirely disappeared from Mud Lake and it is expected navigation will open promptly on the 1st of May.

It is estimated there are enough brick on the site of the proposed starch factory to erect a suitable monument to its premature demise.

The Rideau Nine has re-organized and expect to go into training in a few days. It is to be hoped they file a cleaner record this year than in the past.

Pike are running but there are more "Suckers" than pike this spring.

The syrup car drew out from the station on Saturday so the "little draw" will have to be conducted in other quarters for the present.

The "peerless-mica" libel suit is still pending but the old miner's head will, no doubt, be equal to all emergencies. It always has been and why should it fail now?

Ambrose Singleton who has been attending "Trinity College," Toronto, returned home last week.

Our correspondents account of the re-organization of the base-ball, left over for want of space.—ED.

For some time a feeling of uneasiness and general hostility has been noticed among our native red men. Arms and ammunition have been secretly collected, this together with Antoine's serious countenance and Pia-Pot's mysterious movements, suggested that the bloods were about to go on the war-path and "Van" would, in all probability, lock the first boat in a lock full of blood. A general council was held the other night in lower town (the reserve), headed by Pia-Pot or the great medicine man of the band which we pride ourselves upon and call our own. By 11 o'clock p.m all had arrived decorated in feathers, red paint and all the paraphernalia of their peculiar tribe. The most prominet braves were "Early-dawn" (Pia-Pot's son), his grandson "Seeley" the papoose, whirlwind alias Wild Bill and Antoine. Seeley who has nothing to do and won't work, of course, arrived first and would say is more of a roadster than an animal of burden. He is the fleetest brave of the band and in his young days no white man ever overtook him. His legs never would stand around and see his body punished. He claims a fighting record but it goes back beyond the recollection of the oldest inhabitant. His banner dash for liberty occurred some 15 years ago when some 10,000 men from Smith's Falls, who came to town on an excursion, undertook to capture him at the warehouse. Did they catch him? No, you bet, when they went to put their hands on

The Truant Strand.

'Twas only one wee wavelet
From one sweet woman's head;
A blonde and curling truant—
A strand of golden thread.

It lay athwart his shoulder,
Like bright silk finely spun;
In graceful curves it nestled,
And gilinted in the sun.

It told of amber tresses,
And eyes of violet blue,
Lips like bow of Cupid,
And cheeks of rosy hue.

Unconscious of its presence,
He wandered home to tea,
And there within the portal
Stood "wifey" all agleo.

Within a little second,
Ere her he could embrace,
Her dark eyes flashed their feeling,
A cloud burst o'er her face.

With woman's quick perception,
The tress had caught her sight—
She went for him like blazes—
Her hair was black as night.

AMERICAN FARMER CO., HAMILTON, Feb, 14. CLEVELAND, OHIO.
GENTLEMEN:—We desire to say that as a Premium Paper we have found the American Farmer to be a first class journal in every respect. It has enabled us within the past four months to add several hundred new subscribers to our list, besides clearing up our ledger of several thousand dollars for arrearages, and renewals in advance. As a success with us we cordially recommend it to others as one of the best Premium papers published to-day.
TIMES PRINTING COMPANY.

This means that at least that many persons have paid in advance for the Times, and surely we ought to reap rich returns also.

Athens Council.

The regular monthly meeting of the municipal council of the village of Athens was held in the post office building on Wednesday April 8th. The Reeve and all the members present except Mr. G. W. Greene. The minutes of the last regular and special meeting was read and adopted. Clerk read bill from the Dorrien M'f'g. Co., amounting to $3.00 for 60 dog tags.

Mr. Halladay moved that John Wiltse and Thos. Berney be a committee to oversee roads, bridges and sidewalks in this corporation and lay out the moneys granted by this council for that purpose for the year 1891. The sum of $8.50 was granted to John White on poor account. An order was drawn on treasurer in favor of clerk for $3.80 to pay for dog tags and express charges on same. On motion the sum of $500 was placed to the credit of the road commissioners to be used in repairing roads and sidewalks. All money to be paid out on checks signed by them.

H. C. Phillips was voted $4 to see that the dog tax by-law was enforced and poll tax collected for 1891.

The council then adjourned until the second Wednesday in May, unless sooner called by Reeve.

B. LOVERIN,
Village Clerk.

The funeral of the daughter of the Rev. D. Y. Ross, Katie May, who died at Westport Mar. 31st, aged 3 years, 10 months and 28 days took place on April 17th. The cortege left the manse at 1 o'clock reaching the Presbyterian cemetery at Newboro about half past two where the remains was interred. Afterwards services were held in the Presbyterian church with Rev. W. A. McKenzie, (Brockville) presiding minister, assisted by Rev. Messrs. N. Campbell, (Oliver's Ferry), J S. Stewart, (Morton), Rev. Mr. Huff, (Baptist, Westport), J. H. Stewart, (Methodist Newboro) and Rev. Mr. Baily of Westport (Methodist). An able sermon was delivered by Rev. W. A. McKenzie from Amos 5th chapter 8th verse, "And turneth the shadow of death into the morning and maketh the day dark with night." Much credit is due the ladies of Newboro for the tasteful manner in which the church was decorated. The heartfelt sympathy of the community is extended the bereaved parents on behalf of their sad affliction.

The Late James Carss.

We had only space last week to announce the death of Mr. Carss, which occurred on Tuesday morning, 14th inst. The funeral which took place on Wednesday at 2.30 p.m in the Methodist church was largely attended, testifying to the respect in which he was held by his friends and relatives. James Carss was born in the County of Wexford, Ireland, in 1808, his parents being of Scotch origin from Berwick-on-Tweed. In the year 1820 his mother emigrated to America bringing her family with her and settled in the Township of South Crosby. When a young man James helped to underbrush and clear the land on the spot where the canal locks are built at Jones' Falls, and afterwards worked on the construction of the canal between that place and Newboro. He also assisted to cut the first roads through the woods from Thos. Ripley's farm, in South Crosby to Haskin's mill. He also resided for a time with the Green family in Lansdown rear and while there took a grist of wheat on the back of an ox, through the woods to Bailis Mill. In the year 1831 he married a Miss Alice Wilson of Crosby. In 1837 he joined the Methodist church and was a consistant member of that body up to the day of his death. During the troubles in 1837-8 he was employed to warn out the Malitia, travelling many miles on foot to perform that service for his country. In 1840 he moved to the township of Bastard near Breese's Mill. In the year 1860 his wife died and three years later he married Miss McNish of Delta. In 1865 his second wife died, when he gave up housekeeping and lived with his son John. In 1875 the family purchased the H. Alguire farm about two miles east of this village, until 1886 when owing to his sons failing health they removed to Wellington street, Athens where he resided until the day of his death. Several years ago a cancer commenced eating away the end of his nose, but by surgical skill this was kept from advancing very rapidly. Within the past few months another and more rapidly growing cancer became troublesome on the side of one of his eyes. This however was not the cause of his death, as that was caused by general debility. Mr. Carss' family consisted of six sons and one daughter, of whom John the eldest resides in Athens, Henry, a commercial traveller and Ogle who holds the honorable position of Mayor of the town of Smith's Falls. Of a quiet and unassuming disposition, strictly upright and honorable in all his dealings, he had a host of friends who cherish kindly feelings of his memory. His life was in every way worthy of imitation, and his death was deeply regretted by all. Thus one by one those pioneers of our country pass away, leaving behind them many lessons and examples, for posterity to follow.
