RICHARD SCOTT BUYS GOOD GREEN PACER

Richard Scott, a west end merchant, bought from T. McCarthy the green pacer, George M., a bay gelding by Satrap (Satrap was the sire of Jubilee, 2.05¼). The dam of George M. was a thoroughbred.

George M. gives promise of showing a good performance on the ice this winter. It is reported that $1000 was paid for this green pacer.

Cobb's average for the remainder of the season, in which he played in forty-one games for the Tigers, was .246. In 1906 he batted .320, and he has never fallen below that mark since. In 1911 he batted .420, and the following year .410.

FORECAST OF AMERICAN LEAGUE FOR NEXT YEAR

New York Yankees Have Excellent Chance of Hitting Top of List.

Too much prosperity and the aging of many stars may weaken the Boston Red Sox in 1917. Yet Foster, Mays, Shore and Ruth should be better pitchers in 1917 than they were in 1916. Hoblitzel never showed better form than in 1916. It is not reasonable to expect that Sir Richard will go back over the winter. Barry will not go back, and if he does Janvrin is improving. Scott, too, is very young and will improve.

Gardner is aging, especially in winning world's championships, but 1916 was his best year. Lewis probably will go back. Walker will not improve, but Shorten, a really great hitter, will. Hooper seems to defeat time.

It may be that Boston will not go back, but three-time winners are due to retrograde.

One cannot predict for Chicago. Jackson and E. Collins, the great pair, are slipping. Yet Chicago's pitching should be better in 1917 than in 1916. Comiskey may require a new first baseman. In that event Chicago may be stronger than in 1916.

Detroit almost assuredly will be stronger. Jennings has everything but pitchers. He will get one or two good pitchers next year.

New York already is strong enough to win the championship of the American League in 1917. Only an unexampled run of bad luck, injuries to Baker, Maisel, High, Magee and Caldwell's dereliction kept New York from being a keen contender in 1916.

Washington is stronger than in 1916. The acquisition of Leonard and Smith helped Griffith's hitting in the late autumn. Milan was ill and injured and will bat better next year than he batted in 1916.

Cleveland needs some pitching, which it will probably get. Chapman will have a better year in 1917 than he had in 1916. Wambsganss will be a vastly improved player. Cleveland showed enough last year to be feared in 1917.

The Athletics will be stronger, too, but scarcely strong enough to get out of eighth place.

The Browns should be a more vigorous factor next year than they were this season.

County Court Will Likely Give This Mutuel Bettor His Money

Windsor, Dec. 19.—Seeking to recover $633, which amount it is alleged is due on a pari-mutuel ticket, purchased at a meeting at the Windsor Jockey Club, August de Gentenaar, a Detroit business man, has thru his attorney issued a writ to be served on the club here.

The claim made is that De Gentenaar and a friend bought two $5 straight tickets on Ophelia W. on this occasion. Auriga, with Jockey Robinson up, finished first, but was disqualified when it was discovered Robinson was under weight.

When Auriga's number appeared as first past the post, De Gentenaar and his companion, Joseph Van de Weghe, threw away their Ophelia W. tickets in disgust, only to find a few minutes later that their choice, which had finished second to Auriga, had been declared the winner. Then following a frenzied hunt for the discarded tickets, Van de Weghe recovered his, but De Gentenaar was not so fortunate. A claim was made, however, but as he couldn't produce a ticket, the jockey club refused to settle, altho it is claimed that only two $5 straight tickets were sold on Ophelia W.

The claim will be settled at the next session of the Essex county court.

KENNEDY PREDICTS BIG LEAGUE ACROSS LINE

Montreal, Dec. 19.—The Casquettes of Montreal returned to Montreal this morning after having played a series in Pittsburg. Manager George Kennedy of the Canadiens, who accompanied the team for the purpose of watching two of his prospects perform, came back very favorably impressed with the hockey situation in Pittsburg and other American centres. He predicts that next season there will be a circuit made up of Pittsburg, St. Louis, Cleveland, Chicago and Detroit. Each of these cities now has artificial ice rinks and already plans are being laid for operating a league next season.

Manager Kennedy was favorably impressed with the performance of both Couture and Roy, his latest recruits, who lined up with Casquettes. It is likely that the first-named will become one of the regular substitute players on the Canadien bench.

The regular line-up of the Canadiens will be Vezina, Mummery, Corbeau, Lalonde, Pitre and Laviolette.

Must Show Respect To Baseball Moguls

New York, Dec. 19.—Ball players who abuse magnates in the future will be disciplined. This evil has become so flagrant that the governors of baseball are determined to put an end to it.

Last summer a certain club owner was vilified by several National League players, but after he had filed charges the case was dropped. The other night a prominent magnate was verbally assailed by a player, who had been released for alleged misconduct last season. The magnate was subjected to a string of insults in a public restaurant and received no protection. Other club owners in recent years have been openly abused by ball players in the hearing of spectators.

As a result the big leaguers have decided to punish some of these offenders with indefinite suspensions on the same tactics were employed on the race tracks the guilty persons would be ruled off the turf. So why should unruly players who indulge in obscene language during altercations with their employers be allowed to go unscathed?

LEFTY GILBERT IS NOW FULL-FLEDGED OWNER

Terre Haute, Ind., Dec. 19.—Rufus (Lefty) Gilbert, manager of the Terre Haute Central League Club, has purchased the club and all its holdings for a sum not announced. Gilbert has given Terre Haute citizens until Jan. 5 to rebuy the club, and in event of failure, he announced, he is ready to place it in another city. He has been asked to become athletic director of the Rose Polytechnic Institute.

This is the pitcher who reported to the Toronto Club on trial some years ago, after purchasing his release from a Western League organization for $1000. He made a hit with President McCaffery by declaring that if he did not make good he would not ask a cent for his services. He didn't perform in winning style, but he got his money, nevertheless.
