THE ADVERTISER PICNIC TO-MORROW.

The annual picnic of the employes of the ADVERTISER and their friends taking place at Port Stanley to-morrow necessitates a change in the time of issue for the Evening ADVERTISER. The Morning ADVERTISER will be issued at the usual time; but the Evening ADVERTISER will be printed and delivered at a sufficiently early hour to enable every operative and newsboy to participate in the outing.

Arrangements are completed to make this the most enjoyable outing ever held. In former years the picnic has always taken place late in the season, but this year it was unanimously decided to bring it on earlier, when the grounds were in the best condition, and everything bright and beautiful. This will be the first Saturday excursion to Port this season, and as the ADVERTISER picnic has always been noticeable for large attendance, a greater crowd is looked for to-morrow. By permission of Lieut.-Col. Gartshore the Cavalry Band will accompany the excursionists. A long list of excellent sports has been prepared. A string band for dancing has also been engaged. The train will leave at 10 o'clock a.m. and return at 8:30 p.m., although passengers can go home earlier if necessary, on the 4:35 p.m. train.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

Parties leaving the city on their holidays can have the Daily ADVERTISER mailed to any address in Canada or the United States for 40 cents per month.

They continued this
Till one night he kissed her.
Then their bashfulness
They perceived was folly;
Now he calls her Bess
And she calls him Cholly.

Sutton reports that contributions for the programme are exceeding those of last year. Barrels of sugar, flour, cases of canned goods, boxes of soap and general groceries are being contributed freely. Citizens will do well to keep disengaged for July 27.

—"Rev. J. Waddell Black, while spending a few days in London last week, solicited aid for the building fund of Knox Church here from some of the prominent Presbyterians of London. He received in all over $50, for which the Leamington Presbyterians are devoutly thankful." So says the Leamingtom Post. Should any of Mr. Black's friends whom he was unable to see when in London be willing to give a donation to the church in Leamington, he will be glad if they communicate with him (P. O. Box 281, Leamington), or with the minister, the Rev. Murray Watson, or with the treasurer of the building fund, I. McR. Selkirk, postmaster, Leamington.

—Bridge of Weir is a pretty little village in Renfrewshire, Scotland, not much more than a Sabbath Day's journey from Glasgow or Paisley, and it was there Rev. Mr. Herridge found a wife in the daughter of a Presbyterian minister of the Church of Scotland. Mr. Herridge has left for Scotland, and particularly that district. While there he will meet Dr. Gentles, of Paisley Abbey, a leading light of the Scotch Church. This abbey, dated 1160, is one of the historic edifices of Europe, and it is more than probable that Mr. Herridge will occupy its pulpit while so close to its precincts. The reverend gentleman will also, after taking in London, cross the channel to the continent. He is wished bon voyage by this city—. [Ottawa Free Press. Rev. Mr. Herridge is well known in this city, having spent a portion of his boyhood here, when his father was pastor of the Primitve Methodist Church.

The donors of these were as follows: Mrs. Macbeth, $2; Mrs. De la Hooke, $1; Mrs. A. Thompson, $1; Mrs. Shortt, $2; Mr. John Wright, $5; and to them also Mrs. Mills offers her hearty thanks.

An Important Movement.

Mr. W. H. Moore, national financial agent of the Boys' and Girls' National Home and Employment Association of the United States, arrived in the city this morning from Kansas City, Mo. He is quartered at the Tecumsch House. After visiting friends near the city a few days he will meet leading citizens and arrange for the selection of delegates to go from London to the national convention, to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 21.

The association is at work building a system of mechanical training schools in the United States and Canada for housing homeless boys and girls and caring for them at the least possible expense to the State. Several institutions have been built under the direction of the association, and their influence in elevating society and lowering taxation is attracting general interest.

As the association is incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia, Nov. 27, 1889, and Hon. Elijah W. Halford, President Harrison's secretary is vice-president, it emanates from high authority. It is now hoped Canada will join the movement and assist in the deliberations of future conventions.

The association desires delegates to be sent from London, Hamilton, Toronto, Montreal and Ottawa that the interests of the Dominion may be well represented in the coming convention at Des Moines Sept. 21.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

Prorogation Not Likely To Be Reached Until Tuesday.

[Special to the ADVERTISER.]

OTTAWA, July 8.—As prorogation depends on the rapidity with which the Senate gets through the crimimal code, all who are interested in the date—and their name is legion—are constantly asking this question: "How many clauses have they passed now. At 1 o'clock to-day, when the Senate concluded its morning session, the answer was that clause 552 had been reached, or a little more than half way through the bill. The concensus of opinion is that prorogation will not be reached till Tuesday.
