NON-SUPPORT CHARGE. Toronto, Dec. 9.—Thirty-five years missionary in the wilds of Northern Ontario and for the same length of time a colporteur, Mr. George Buskin, was summoned to the police court on charge of non-support laid by his wife. His lawyer raised the question of the validity of her marriage and she explained that she had been married 33 years ago in the United States, but had divorced her husband for "incompatibility of temper," and since then he had died. The case was adjourned until Monday.
