A few days since, a young man attempted to cross Lake Champlain, alone in a small boat, but was upset by a squall, near Fort [illegible] and drowned. The gentleman, however, succeeded in clinging to the bottom of the boat until [illegible] was seen from a vessel at quarantine, and he was taken off in quite an exhausted condition. It is said that the pearl and [illegible] of the gentleman were so [illegible] and the plaything of the waves and the sport of the billows, which an hour before, when beautiful as Adam, turned almost white, and he now appears as a leader, not from age, but from fright.

Brogden Case.—At Rochester, N. Y., on the 23d ult., Mr. George Brogden, of Port Hope, Canada West, deliberately shot Thomas Henderson dead, for eloping with his wife. Henderson ran away with Brogden's wife several weeks ago. Brogden followed them, and after a chase between several places, the guilty pair separated. But the injured husband vow[illegible] would have vengeance, and finally accomplished his purpose. Both were young men, residents of Port Hope, who were educated and grew to manhood together, and both embraced the same profession, that of the law. Henderson made no attempt to escape.

From Havana.—New York, Sept. 25.—Advices from Havana to the 27th August have been received. The British Colony of the Bay Islands had virtually ceased to exist, and the Mosquito flag had been lowered by the officers of Her Britannic Majesty. Alejo Cossack of the terminations of the English protectorate, and consequently the coast of Mosquito. The Islands would be transferred to the Republic of Honduras.

The announcement of the Walker blockade decree had caused much sensation.

Owing to the non-arrest of the incendiaries who fired the town of Belize, the inhabitants were in great terror, and a sort of general panic prevailed.

The Underground Railway seems to be doing a large business throughout this city the present season. On Friday last, a man with his wife and four children were dispatched from this City to Toronto. They were mostly intelligent fugitives though in rags, and their backs scarred with the lash. They have ere this taken shelter from the devouring claws and bloody beak of the American Eagle, between the paws of the British Lion.—Buffalo Express.

Don Vincente Hernandez de Azala, Minister Plenipotentiary and Envoy Extraordinary from the Republics of Venezuela and Granada to the United States, has been arrested at Mobile, charged with swindling and forgery. After his arrest he made an attempt to swallow forged drafts to the amount of $7,000.

The amount raised by direct taxation in the United States last year, not including Municipal Taxes, was over one hundred and twenty-six million dollars. The amount paid to members of Congress, travelling expenses, and stationery, was $7,000,000.

Should Col. Fremont be elected President of the United States, there will be almost the South with unanimous consent submission and sincere congratulation. They shall be promptly driven back to their original companionship among the abolitionists of the North.—Georgia Telegraph.

Mr. Cullom, a member of the U. S. House of Representatives, in a speech at Lynchburg, Virginia, said: "If I go to me, I want to stand more with Massachusetts, except on the battle-field."

Holloway's Ointment and Pills have established a reputation in every land, Christian or Savage, to which commerce has carried the world, they have become standard remedies for the various complaints to which humanity is liable. The ointment is an acknowledged cure for scalds, tumors, and ulcerous complaints, and there is no disease of the stomach, the liver or the bowels, that may not be subdued by a persistent use of the Pills.

Notice to Delinquents.—Those of our subscribers who are in arrears for two years and upwards and who have shown no disposition to make payments are informed that their accounts will be put in suit forthwith, not those who intend to send payment if possible, will be exhibited in a Black List which we are preparing for publication. CHALLENGE!

TO JAMES PRYOR, ESQ., AND OARSMEN OF HALIFAX.

GENTLEMEN:—As the Indian Town Club of St. John has refused to accept our Challenge, as published in our City Papers, and we have a little leisure time before the close of the season, We, the Union Boat Club of St. John, wish to have one trial more with our brother Oarsmen of Halifax, to decide the Championship of North America. We will meet any Race Boat and Crew from Halifax in the City of Boston, and row them for One or Two Thousand Dollars, each party paying their own expenses; or, we will give the Oarsmen of Halifax Three Hundred Dollars to pay their expenses to come to St. John to row us, the race to come off in twenty days after the preliminaries are drawn up.

Signed on behalf of the Union Club of St. John.
