Christmas Music in The City Churches

Christmas will be observed in the city churches with the usual special programme of music. The various choirs have been preparing for this occasion for some time and the musical programmes promise to be of special excellence. Some of the churches have sent their musical programmes to The Standard for publication. These are as follows:

CARLETON PRESBYTERIAN CH.

Rev. H. R. Read, Pastor.

Besides the usual Christmas hymns, the choir will sing at the morning service, the anthem, "Behold, I Bring You Good Tidings" (Goss) and at the evening service "For Unto Us a Child is Born" (Clare). Soloist, Miss Kate Fox.

ST. LUKE'S CHURCH.

Rector, Rev. R. P. McKim, M. A.

At the morning service, the rector will preach the last of a series of Advent sermons and appropriate music will be sung.

At the evening service, in addition to the usual Christmas hymns, the choir will sing Turner's Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis in F., also the anthem "O Zion, that Bringest Good Tidings" by Stainer.

After the regular service, about 8.30 p. m., the choir will render the following programme of carols, anthems, and solos:

Processional—"Hark! the Herald Angels Sing."
Carol—"Cradled all Lowly" (Gounod.
Anthem—"Sing, O Heavens" (Simper.)

HAMPTON SCHOOL CLOSES FOR XMAS

Hampton, Dec. 21.—The closing exercises before the Christmas holidays, in he Hampton Consoilidated School, were held this afternoon in the exhibition hall, which was filled to its limit with the pupils and an interested audience of parents and friends.

Principal A. J. Brooks delivered an address of welcome. Rev. Mr. Crofter in a congratulatory speech presented Lieut. Gov. Tweedie's gold medal to Miss Helen Scovil, whose Christmas story was found to be the best and most original Rev. H. C. Rice presented the certificates for entrance to the high school to those pupils who had successfully passed the examinations in Standard VIII.; and John March distributed certificates to the twenty-two pupils who stood in the first and second places in Standard I. to XI.

Each spoke briefly to the children, congratulating them on their progress and encouraging them to future effort.

The several numbers on the programme were well carried out and this was particularly marked in the several drills, some of which were full of pleasing effects, and the tableaux of Jean Ingelow's "Songs of Seven" would have done no discredit to older and more experienced artists.

The school closes tomorrow and reopens on Monday, January 8th, 1912. Today's programme was as follows:

Programme.

GAGETOWN NEWS

Gagetown, Dec. 21.—Another well known inhabitant of this little township has passed away in the person of William Gourley. The deceased gentleman was 77 years of age, and although during the past few years of his life he was somewhat deaf, yet his life has been a vigorous and strong one. He will be missed by many who frequented the town. He leaves two sons, and two daughters. The funeral took place last Monday afternoon in the presence of a large number of sympathizing friends. The service was conducted by Rev. W. Smith, rector of Gagetown. The choir attended and sang a hymn and the Nunc Demittis, and as the body left the church Miss Grace Gilbert played the Dead March in Saul. This is the third death which has taken place in the town during the past fortnight.

Last Wednesday the ladies of St. John's church held their annual sale, tea, and entertainment. The elements proved most unkind in every way as not only were the roads in a bad condition for travelling, but it rained hard almost the whole day. Neverthe less the function proved a huge success and considerably over $100 were cleared. Many from the outside districts of Jemseg, Queenstown, Lawfield and Summerhill who usually attend and who were looking forward to the event, were unable to be present. These were very much missed by all. The sale opened at 3 o'clock and the buying was very brisk, no doubt owing to the fact that Christmas is so near and that the useful articles exhibited were suitable for giving away as Christmas presents. Tea was served at 5.30 and no sooner was that over than the hall was converted into a concert room, fitted up with a gay looking stage.

HAMPTON NEWS

Hampton, Dec. 20.—This community heard with deep regret this morning of the death at an early hour, of Mrs. William Ritchie at her home on Main street, Hampton. Everybody knew that she had been subject for years to long and severe illnesses and that for a month past she had been quite a sufferer from old and painful troubles, but not even those in constant attendance on her thought the end was so near, until late yesterday afternoon when the symptoms became alarming, and physicians were summoned. The patient was conscious and waited the final hour with equanimity and confidence. The funeral services will be held at her late home on Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock, after which the body will be taken to St. John for interment in Fernhill cemetery.

A. R. Wetmore, engineer of the department of public works, Fredericton, arrived here yesterday and this morning accompanied by F. M. Sproul, M. P. P., drove out Smithtown to inspect the site for the new covered wooden bridge across the Hammond river, which is to replace the old structure at that place.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE OPENED.

Havelock, Albert Co., Dec. 21.—A new school house was opened here this evening with appropriate ceremonies. Among the speakers were George W. Fowler, M. P.; H. R. Emmerson, M. P., and School Inspector O'Blennis. There was a large attendance. A pleasant social evening was spent.
