SCOTLAND.

Oh! mountain crested Scotland!
I marvel not thou art
Dear, as a gracious mother,
Unto her children's heart!
I marvel not they love thee,
Thou land of rock and glen,
Of strath, and lake and mountain,
And more—of gifted men.

Oh! wild traditioned Scotland;
Thy briery burns and braes
Are full of pleasant memories,
And tales of other days!
Thy story-haunted waters
In music gush along,
Thy mountain glens are tangellos,
Thy healthy hills are song!

"The dowie dens of Yarrow,"
"The Annan-water wan,"
"The deep mill-dams o' Binnorie,"
Where sailed "the milk-white swan;"
The lovers' bloody meeting,
On "Fair Kirkconnel lea;"
We sing them to the slumbering child
We cradle on our knee!

Land of the Bruce and Wallace,
Whose fery hearts have stood,
And, for their country and their faith,
Like water poured their blood;
Where wive and little children
Were steadiest to death,
And graves of martyr-warriors,
Are in the desert heath.

Land of the social virtues—
Where the tiller of the sod
Saith to his lowly household,
"Come, let us worship God."
Where the lowly shepherd reads
His book within the glen,
And the poorest dwellers of the hills
Respect themselves as men.

Oh! mind-ennobled Scotland!
I marvel not thou art
Dear, as a gracious mother,
Unto her children's heart!
I marvel not that all the world
To thee admiring turns:
Thou gavest birth to Walter Scott,
And unto Robert Burns.

Oh! land of moor and mountain!
Of barren wastes of stone,
Of treeless straths and trackless wilds
I love thee as mine own!
I love thy mournful mosses,
Where sounds the plover's wail;
Where the savage mountains girdle round
The dwellings of the Gael!

I love the grey mist hovering
O'er rocky isle and shore;
I love the castle grey and stern,
The strength of days of yore,
Thank God we are one people,
With but one heart and aim!
For my bosom hath a warmer pulse
To hear old Scotland's name:

MRS. HOWITT.

VARIETY.

A young clerical gentleman relates the following anecdote of one of his Dutch brethren. The old fellow was about commencing his spiritual exercise one evening, owing to his being a little near sighted, was added the dim light of a country church. After clearing his throat and giving out the hymn, prefacing it with the apology—

The light is bad, mine eyes ish dim,
I scarce can see to read dish hymn,

The clerk supposing it was the first stanza of the hymn, struck up to the tune of common metre. The old fellow taken somewhat aback by this turn of affairs, corrected the mistake by saying:—

I didn't mean to sing dish hymn,
I only meant mine eyes ish dim.

The clerk still thinking it a combination of the couplet, finished in the preceding strain. The old man at this waxed wrath, and exclaimed at the top of his voice:—

I dink the debil's in you all,
Dat vash no him to sing at all.

AN OLD BOOK.—The oldest book in the United States, it is said, is a manuscript Bible in the possession of Dr. Witherspoon, of Albania, written over a thousand years ago! He describes it as follows:—"The book is strongly bound in boards of the English oak, and with thongs by which the leaves are also well bound together. The vellum, is of fineness and smoothness little inferior to the best satin. The pages are all ruled with great accuracy, and written with great uniformity and beauty in the old German-text hand, and divided into chapters and verses.—The first chapter of every book in the Bible is written with a large capital of inimitable beauty and splendidly illustrated with red, blue, and black ink, still in vivid colours; and no two of the capital letters in the book are precisely alike."

THE VALUE OF WHAT IS COMMON.—Through the vulgar error of undervaluing what is common, we are apt, indeed, to pass these by as of little worth. But as in the outward creation, so in the soul, the common is the most precious. Science and art may invent splendid modes of illuminating the apartments of the opulent; but these are all poor and worthless, compared with the light which the sun sends into our windows, which he pours freely, impartially, over the hill and valley, which kindles daily the eastern and western sky; and so the common lights of reason, and conscience, and love, are of more worth and dignity than the rare endowments which give celebrity to few.

BRICKMAKING BY MACHINERY.—The Bangor Whig says that a Vermonter has invented a machine for making brick with steam power, by which the clay is pulverised, and pressed dry into the moulds, at the rate of fifty thousand a day, and placed in the kiln for burning, no sun drying being necessary, after the bricks come from the mould. The bricks come out in a very handsome and solid shape.

Napoleon used to say, "Strange as it may appear, when I want any good head-work done, I choose a man, provided his education has been suitable, with a long nose. His breathing is bold and free, and his brain is bold and free, as well as his lungs and heart, cool and clear. In my observation of men, I have almost invariably found a long nose and a long head go together.

He that hath a God, a good heart, and a good wife to converse with, and yet complains that he wants society, would not have been easy and contented in Paradise, for Adam himself had no more. But every married man is not possessed of all the blessing.

LOGIC.—Two weasels found an egg. 'Let us not fight for it,' said elder weasel, 'but enter into parti-tendy.' 'Very good,' said weasel the younger. So taking the egg between them each sucked an end. 'My children,' said Red-tape, the Attorney, 'though you have but one client between you, make the most of him.'—Punch's Almanack.

THE SAME PAGE.—Laura was disconsolate, for Henry had long flirted, but never put the question. She went his way. Laura's mam, for consolation, nursing her a love of a spaniel pup. 'My dear,' said the mam, 'the puppy can do anything but speak.' 'Why will you compare me?' said Laura, 'that's the only trick with the other.'

The far-famed Medicine.
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

SURPRISING CURE OF A CONFIRMED ASTHMA, AFTER FIVE YEARS' SUFFERING.

The following Testimonial has been sent to Professor Holloway, by a Gentleman named Middleton of Scotland Road, Liverpool.

SIR,—Your Pills have been the means, under Providence, of restoring me to sound health after five years of severe affliction. During the whole of that period, I suffered the most dreadful attacks of Asthma, frequently of several weeks' duration, attended with a violent cough, and continual spitting of phlegm intermixed with blood. This so shook my constitution that I was unfitted for any of the active duties of life. I was attended by some of the most eminent medical men of this town, but they failed to give me the slightest relief. As a last remedy I tried your Pills, and in about three months they effected a perfect cure of the disease totally eradicated the cough, and restored tone and vigour to the chest and digestive organs.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant.
Jan'y. 1st, 1853. (Signed) H. MIDDLETON.

PERMANENT CURE OF A DISEASED LIVER OF MANY YEARS' DURATION.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gaunle, Chemist, Yeovil, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir,—In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Bilious complaints, I may mention the following case. A lady of this town with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs, her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This is twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,

Nov. 23, 1852. (Signed.) J. GAMIS.

AN ASTONISHING CURE OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM AFTER BEING DISCHARGED FROM THE HOSPITAL INCURABLE.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. Moon, of the Square Winchester.

To Professor Holloway.

Sir,—I beg to inform you that for years I was a sufferer from Chronic Rheumatism, and was often laid up for weeks together by its severe and painful attacks. I tried everything that was recommended, and was attended by one of the most eminent Surgeons in this town, but obtained no relief whatever, and fearing that my health would be entirely broken up, I was induced to go into our County Hospital, where I had the best medical treatment the Institution afforded, all of which proved of no avail, and I came out no better than I went in. I was then advised to try your Pills, and by persevering with them was perfectly cured, and enabled to resume my occupation, and although a considerable period has elapsed since, I have felt no return whatever of the complaint.

I am, Sir, your obliged servant,
Oct. 8th, 1852. (Signed) W. MOON.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF DROPSY, AFTER SUFFERING FOR EIGHTEEN MONTHS.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. G. Briggs, Chemist, Goole, dated February 15th, 1853.

To Professor Holloway:

Sir,—I have much pleasure in informing you of a most surprising cure of Dropsy, recently effected by your valuable medicines. Captain JACKSON, of this place was afflicted with Dropsy for upwards of eighteen months, to such an extent that it caused his body and limbs to be much swollen, and water oozed as it were from his skin, so that a daily change of apparel became necessary, notwithstanding the various remedies tried, and the different medical men consulted, all was of no avail, until he commenced using your Pills, by which, and a strict attention to the printed directions, he was effectually cured, and his health perfectly re-established. If you deem this worthy of publicity, you are at liberty to use it.

I am, Sir, yours respectfully,
(Signed) G. BRIGGS.
