THAT IS NEWSLONDON WINS BOTH OF HOLIDAY GAMES

The Morning Session Brought Home, Although Tecumseh's Had to Fight for It.

AFTERNOON SCORE 1 TO 0

Andrews Hit by Pitcher Twice and Had to Retire in Third Inning.

London won both ends of double-header on the holiday, the morning match coming to a score of 5 to 4, and the afternoon game being put on the right side of the ledger when the finish reached 1 to 0. There was a large crowd on the grounds, and the fans were more than delighted with the quality of baseball shown.

In commenting, it might be said that Cleverly Elliott now has a team equal to any in the league. He has been traveling in the worst kind of luck all season, but there is likely to be a turn in the tide soon, and Cleverly will do some climbing. It certainly is a pity team, and kept the home folks hustling every minute of the time to get by.

In the morning session, the locals did not play their best brand of ball. Six errors were made, and the fans were disappointed in the fourth inning, allowing the visitors to score four runs. They almost tossed the game away in this period.

However, they kept pegging away until they got even with the Saints, and then put the game on ice in the ninth. Andrews was injured.

Andrews was hit twice by pitched balls in the first three innings and had to retire. Keenan went to third and London to short, Sammy Smith playing right field.

Nichols had a bad day at second, making three errors, but this club has few of them, and the fans forgave him readily. He opened the way for the winning run in the ninth, when he hit to left, went to second on Timmer's sacrifice, third on Kyle's out, and scored when Bierbauer lined a beauty to center after Keenan had walked.

Nichols, one of Elliott's new twirlers, showed good form, and looks like a find. Gurney is a fine first baseman. Little Dougherty on second is a fast fielder.

Keenan played brilliantly at third, making several fine stops. Bierbauer put up some good work, and the outfielders handled everything in good style. Sixes should have been an easy winner, judging from the brand of ball he pitched.
