MARKET REVIEW AND FORECAST

Toronto, Monday, Nov. 24.—Welcome as mild weather may be to those who find it hard to make ends meet and to whom short coal bills are a blessing, local wholesale dealers are blaming this same mild weather for the shortness of trade. They predict that when the temperature takes a dip that there will be a bigger demand for winter goods and trade will run along normally. When questioned about the situation in the West they admit that trade in that direction is exceedingly dull, and a goodly number attribute this condition of affairs to over speculation in land.

Money is still given grudgingly by bankers, although there seems to be a sufficiency for legitimate business enterprises. A review of farmers' markets for the past week shows few changes. What changes there are have been in an upward direction.

WHEAT

Reports from the Argentine continue to be unfavorable and European demand for our wheat has strengthened accordingly. Many of the bids coming from Liverpool and also from Germany have been such that our commission men have been doing business. Most of the bids, however, are still too low. There is a good trade on local account. Quotations are as follows: No. 1 Northern, 91½c; No. 2, 90c; feed No. 1 Northern, 87½c; No. 2, 85c; wheat, 65c to 70c; Ontario wheat, 82c to 83c outside; 86c to 87c here.

COARSE GRAINS

There has been an upward tendency in grains. Ontario oats are wanted at slightly advanced prices. More barley is coming to hand and is selling freely. Little buckwheat is available. Quotations follow: Oats, C.W. No. 2, 39½c; No. 3, 38c; Ontario No. 2, 33c to 34c outside; 37c to 37½c here; corn, 78c; buckwheat, 68c to 70c; barley, malting, 57c to 58c; rye, 68c to 69c; peas, 95c to $1. At Montreal quotations are: Oats, C.W. No. 2, 40½c; No. 3, 39½c to 40c; local oats, 38c to 38½c; corn, 74½c; barley, malting, 70c to 72c; peas, $1.60 to $1.95; buckwheat, 55c; rye, 72c to 73c; feed wheat, 70c to 72½c.

EGGS AND POULTRY

The rank and file of consumers are not buying fresh laid eggs nowadays. The retail price runs around 45c to 60c. Storage eggs also have taken an upward jump, and No. 1's are now quoted at 31c to 32c, and selects 34c to 36c. Montreal dealers fear that stocks will not be sufficient to supply the demand much longer. They quote No. 1 stock, 34c; selects, 38c; new laids, 60c wholesale.

Wholesale quotations on dressed poultry are: Dressed fowl, 12c to 13c; live, 9c to 11c; spring chickens, 16c to 18c; live, 13c to 14c; geese, 12c to 14c and 10c to 12c; ducks, 12c to 14c and 10c to 12c; turkeys, No. 1, 23c to 25c and 20c to 22c; No. 2, 15c to 20c and 13c to 15c.

DAIRY PRODUCE

Fresh creamery butter is at a greater premium this week than it was last week. Fresh prints are quoted 30c to 31c as compared with 27c to 28c for storage; fresh solids, 28c to 29c; storage, 26c to 27c; dairy prints, 22c to 24c; baker's, 20c to 21c. New large cheese are 14½c; twins, 15c; old, large, 15c to 15½c; twins, 15½c to 15¾c.

LIVE STOCK

The run of live stock for the week has been moderate and prices have been firmly maintained. As usual most of the receipts are unfinished, but packers have to be content with poor quality stuff as it is the best that they can get. Stocker receipts have fallen off decidedly and shipments to Buffalo this past week have been small. Quotations average as follows: Export cattle, choice, $7.25 to $7.75; medium, $7 to $7.25; butchers, choice, $7.25 to $7.75; com. to good, $5.25 to $7.25; heifers, $5.50 to $7.10; choice cows, $5.75 to $6.25; com. to good, $4 to $5.75; butcher bulls, $4 to $7; feeders $5.35 to $6.65; feeding bulls, $4.25 to $5.25; stockers, $4 to $6.25, and canners and cutters, $3.25 to $4.50.

There is a splendid demand for all kinds of dairy cattle. A few extra choice cows have sold for $65 to $90 and from that down to $40. Springers go at $40 to $90. Veal calves are $9 to $10; inferior, $4.50 to $7.

The strongest feature of the live stock market this past week has been the demand for lambs. Wether lambs are now quoted at $7.55 to $8.25 and buck lambs, $7 to $7.50. Ewes are firm at the old levels, $4.50 to $5.50, and bucks and culls, $2 to $4.50.

Hogs are still on the wane. Fed and watered they are quoted at $8.65, and f.o.b. country points, $8.30.

The Buffalo cattle market closed the week dull. Prime steers, $8.25 to $8.75; fair to good, $7.40 to $8.10; common, $7 to $7.35; butcher cattle, $7.65 to $8.25; common to good, $6.25 to $7.50; cows, $5 to $5.75; feeders, $5.50 to $7.35; stockers, $4 to $6.25.

MONTREAL HOG MARKET

Montreal, Saturday, Nov. 22.—Although prices for live hogs in the Toronto market were 15c to 25c a cwt. higher than last week, the tone of the local market, if anything, was easier than at the beginning of the week, and sales of selected lots were made at $9.50 to $9.60, weighed off cars. There was no change in the condition of the market for dressed stock, for which the demand was fair and sales of abattoir fresh-killed were made at $13.50 to $13.75.

EXPORT CHEESE TRADE

Montreal, Saturday, Nov. 22.—The season has wound up with markets quiet and a very slow demand for export, prices at the closing boards of the season being still lower than those paid a week ago. The few cheese that were offered for sale have sold at about 12½c a pound. Most of the factories have closed for the season, but here and there odd factories propose to keep open as long as the supply of milk keeps up. It is not generally expected that the late make will amount to much this year. Receipts are falling off very rapidly, and will soon stop altogether as far as cheese are concerned. A number of the factories have started making butter and will keep open for a week or two longer where such is the case. The stock left in store here is very small, the smallest, in fact, known in the trade at this season of the year, and consequently winter shipments will be small. The bulk is owned in England, and is being held in storage awaiting shipping instructions. Local dealers are not carrying much stock, as prices have been too high to induce buyers to speculate.

Market for butter is very firm and demand fairly active. Prices are very firmly maintained, finest September make being quoted at 29½c, fresh receipts 28½c to 29c. The stock in store is large.
