

SCATHING ARRAIGNMENT OF GOVT. OVER SOUTH RENFREW SEAT

Sharp Criticism of Methods Employed By Minister Reid Nettles the Premier, Who Makes Evasive Defence—Sir Wilfrid Compares Present Govt. With Sir John Macdonald's.

Ottawa, Jan. 31. — Two "reasons" for continuing the South Renfrew vacancy were presented to Parliament by the Government today. Premier Borden gave one, and Hon. Dr. Reid gave the other. Mr. Borden's "reason" was that the Federal Liberal Government had permitted seats to remain vacant for longer periods, and that the Ontario Liberal Government had left the North Renfrew seat unoccupied in the Legislature for over a year and a half. Dr. Reid's "reason" was that it was necessary to wait till the men in the woods came down. He added that if the election had been held promptly a vote would have been taken in which Mr. Graham might be elected. Practically no attention was given to the subterfuge of a revision of the lists, previously advanced by the Premier, after Mr. A. H. Clarke's exposure of the hypocrisy and legal absurdity of that position. It is inferred from the remarks of the cabinet ministers that the election will be held some time in March, probably on the 25th.

A Charge of Bribery.
The House witnessed an unusual spectacle. The member for South Essex charged the Minister of Customs, on the authority of the Ministerial press reports, with visiting the riding of South Renfrew and making to the people there a "statement of unequalled recklessness and disregard of the same authority he accused the minister of reckless and barefaced bribery in taking the position: "Vote for Maloney, and the Borden Government will then spend money in this district for good roads."

Of Dr. Reid's statements in this connection, the Renfrew Ministerial organ had said, under the caption of "Low Appearances of Ministerial Integrity": "The bald way in which he handled this topic disgusted all decent men."

These were direct charges, and the House waited with expectation for Dr. Reid's defence. The minister forthrightly. The minister allowed them to go without explanation.

Mr. Clarke Arraigns.
Mr. Clarke's arraignment was a scathing one. He moved the adjournment of the House in order to bring to the attention of the Government the matter of the continued vacancy in South Renfrew, now of nearly two months' duration. He charged that this was a direct violation not only of the spirit of the law but of its very letter. The act required the Speaker to forthwith issue his warrant to the clerk of the crown in chancery and decreed that the writ thereupon should issue for the election. The Speaker had acted upon the law with commendable promptness, but the Government had refused to determine the date and appoint the returning officer. For this breach of the law the minister of customs had undertaken to give no reason or pretext. It was a "statement unequalled for reckless disregard of truth." He had resorted to fiction, and invented a condition of affairs.

The study of history, continued Mr. Clarke, went to show that statesmen were always prepared to set before them some prototype, some example to follow. Sir Wilfrid Laurier had more than once spoken of Mr. Gladstone as his model, but the member for Essex had searched some time before he found a day in the life of the present Government upon which to base his criticism. The members of this Government," said Mr. Clarke, "have evidently taken for their patron saint a notorious Secretary of State, one Nicholas Macdonald, who decided, by fair means or foul, to put out of existence everyone who stood in his way."

"But Graham's not in yet," shouted Mr. Bennett (Simcoe).
"And the hon. gentleman and his friends relish the fact that he's not in to molest them," retorted Mr. Clarke.

Dr. Reid Replies.
Hon. Dr. Reid, who was received by cheers from the Government ranks and jeers from the Liberals, said that all

Lumbago Never Came Back

AFTER HE TOOK GIN PILLS

If you dread winter because of Lumbago or Rheumatism, read this letter of Mr. Jukes is a special message to you.

"Winnipeg, Jan. 6, 1911.
"I have been a sufferer from Lumbago for some years past, and during Christmas week of 1909 had a very acute attack which confined me to the house. About the latter part of April following, I met your Mr. Hill and mentioned my complaint to him. He advised me to take GIN PILLS, I have been taking them at intervals during the early part of winter, and up to date, have had no return of my old trouble—in fact, I feel better than I have for years, and think that my old enemy has vanished for good and all. H. A. JUKES."

practice what he proposed in Opposition?
"Would you support it?" questioned the Premier.
"If I was wrong in the past I have been chastised," replied Sir Wilfrid, smiling.

Mr. Borden and his colleagues had made great promises. They pledged themselves to do better than the former Government, and instead they were doing much worse. They were making a sorry spectacle of their attempt at government.
"I am very sorry, for my right honorable friend," continued the Liberal leader. "I am confident that had he the courage to allow his own inclinations and better judgment these things would not be. But he is inspired from behind; he follows where he is led, and the result is not creditable to him or his Government. His party friends in the riding have vacillated against the sinister and evil influence. But I fear my right honorable friend has not courage to do what his own better judgment tells him. He has listened to the voice of the sergeant and been lured or led by it."

"There was all the difference in the world between the South Renfrew vacancy and the others Mr. Borden had alluded to in his speech. It was for a purpose, and it never happened before that a Canadian Government had refused the way for an opponent to come into the House. We ask no favors, Sir Wilfrid. The Government wants to oppose Mr. Graham let it do so. But we ask fairly. We ask it to play the game. We ask it to give him what is his right, the voice of the electors at the hands of the electors. But members of this Government refuse Mr. Graham that chance."

"The Government is not what it was in the days of Sir John Macdonald. I have been in the House a long time. I have sat in this seat when Sir John Macdonald sat where the right honorable gentleman now sits. I tell him that the Government is far short of the Government of Sir John Macdonald. It does not follow the example of his predecessor. When Mr. John McMillan resigned in South Huron to give a seat for Sir Richard Cartwright, within ten days of the issue of the speaker's warrant Sir Richard was elected by acclamation. But now, Sir Wilfrid, Mr. Macdonald is no longer at the head of the Conservative party. His traditions are not the traditions of the Government of today, and he has been succeeded by men and methods unfamiliar but for the fact that they call themselves by his party."

"What about the election of Mr. Foster in 1893?" questioned Mr. Borden.
"The cases are not similar," replied Sir Wilfrid. "No one resigned for Mr. Foster. There was a vacancy, and he became a member. My right honorable friend must not cloud the issue. Let him fight Mr. Graham if he chooses. It will be more graceful and in accord with precedent to do otherwise, but he is expecting favor. We call for rights."

March 25 Probable Date.
The inference to be drawn from Premier Borden's statement is that the Government wished to hold the election on the revised lists is that the date of polling will be delayed until some time in March at the earliest. The last time the revised list of the clerk of the crown in chancery were for the December revision in a number of the South Renfrew municipalities. If 60 days has to be allowed for the Government for polling, a March 25, by that time Dr. Reid's "men in the woods" will have returned, and the "support" from Ottawa will be used to the best advantage.

DEAN TO FIGHT

Los Angeles, Jan. 31.—A determined fight against extradition will be made by Charles Dean, alias Hoffman, who is being held here for alleged complicity in the robbery of the Bank of Montreal, at New Westminster, B. C., of $250,000. His attorneys assert that if his hearing on March 5 results in his being held here, he will return for an Ontario port on Hudson Bay. Columbia, the matter will be carried to the Secretary of State, and to the President, if necessary.

OSGOODE REGISTRAR DEAD
Alexander Farquhar MacLean Succumbs to Attack of Acute Bronchitis.
[Canadian Press.]
Toronto, Ont., Jan. 31.—Alexander Farquhar MacLean, junior registrar of the high court, and for forty-five years a familiar figure at Osgoode Hall, died of acute bronchitis shortly before eight o'clock this morning after an illness of but a few hours. He was in his office until four o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was born at St. Andrews, Stormont County, and educated at Cornwall. Later he studied law at the same place in the office of the father of A. McLean McDonnell, K. C., but was appointed clerk to the registrar of the court of chancery at Osgoode Hall before being called to the bar. He was appointed junior registrar of the high court in 1892.

THE JESUIT OATH
Rev. Mr. Johnston Replies to Statement of Counsel for Priests.
Toronto, Jan. 31.—The Montreal dispatch attesting the authenticity of the alleged Jesuit oath, given by Rev. C. O. Johnston, but admitting it to be obsolete, has been refuted by the Montreal headquarters of the Society of Jesuits in Canada.
"I have been instructed to say that the oath has never been used by the Jesuit order," said E. V. O'Sullivan, Toronto counsel for the society, today.
"Such instructions have come to me from Montreal. The dispatch said there had been such a Jesuit oath, but that it was no longer in use. I wish to state emphatically as I can that the Jesuits do not admit having had such an oath."
In reply to a dispatch in yesterday's Star, Rev. C. O. Johnston made the following reply to the Star this morning: "Very respectfully, but quite candidly I wish to answer the priest who wrote in your issue of yesterday regarding the Jesuits. Now, Jesuits are not what they used to be, and they are different in different countries, and if their doings in South America are not possible in Canada, then let this priest come forward and make the statement that Jesuitism has changed in doctrine and spirit, and not merely in circumstances. But his statement, to be of value, must be over the signature of the Pope, for Cardinal Manning says, 'No priest can be held to his word unless it be approved by the Pope.'"

ULSTER DIVIDED ON HOME RULE SIR JOHN SIMON DECLARES

Says Belfast Intolerance Is the Cause of All the Trouble.

London, Feb. 1. — Sir John Simon, solicitor-general, dealing with Sir Edward Carson's recent speeches, said Carson bitterly complained that no minister came forward to explain home rule, yet all the time he was doing his utmost to prevent Winston Churchill from explaining it. Sir Edward had referred to the tragic circumstances in which he stood, but if any tragedy were to occur, did any there were any riot or bloodshed, did any

ASKS FOR INQUIRY IN POSTAL MATTERS

Armstrong Wants a Royal Commission Appointed to Investigate Conditions.

Ottawa, Jan. 31.—Two of the disappointed aspirants for cabinet positions succeeded in securing publicity for views in favor of Government action popular with the non-vested interests in the postal matters. Sir John Macdonald, a witness produced by the Lorimer side, had admitted he was paid by the Hines crowd to testify for Lorimer; that he had a hard time getting his money, that he did not get as much as he had expected, and finally he made them "come across" by a threat of exposure.

McGowan got into the Lorimer case in a remarkable way. One Burgess, a witness, introduced by counsel for the Lorimer committee, testified that while travelling on the Winnipeg flyer from Duluth to Virginia City, in Minnesota, C. F. McGowan, brother-in-law of Edward Hines, the lumber merchant, who has figured in the case as the man who is alleged to have raised $100,000 to "put Lorimer across," boasted that he had contributed $10,000 to this fund. Burgess testified that among other passengers on the train who had heard the conversation was a young Canadian, name unknown, who was journeying to Canada.

Later the Lorimer people, realizing that this testimony was perhaps vital as tending to corroborate other statements that the Hines fund of $100,000 really had existed, sought out and produced this unidentified Canadian in the person of young McGowan. The Lorimer people procured the name of McGowan from the Canadian officers of Winnipeg, where he made his declaration as required by law on entering Canada from the United States. McGowan denied that the conversation in the smoking compartment of the Winnipeg flyer to which Burgess testified had occurred. Then the anti-Lorimer people started after McGowan.

DARROW DEFENCE BEGINS ACTION

Alleged Briber's Lawyers Will Ask For Dismissal of Indictments.

Los Angeles, Feb. 31.—Technical motions attacking the two bribery indictments on various grounds will be made today on behalf of Clarence S. Darrow, when the former chief counsel of the McNamara brothers is arraigned before Presiding Judge George H. Hutton, of the supreme court. Darrow said his attorneys were preparing a demurrer. They also will move to dismiss.

These two preliminary moves will be made in order merely to prevent the jury from reaching a verdict of "not guilty," rather than one of "not proved," which would be the result in effect, they say, of a dismissal of the cases.

Hamilton, Jan. 31.—City Treasurer Leckie's annual statement for 1911, completed today, shows that the city's $1,448,635 last year, and finished the year with a surplus of $28,000. The rate last year was 20½ mills, and some of the aldermen were hopeful that it would be possible to get it back to 20 mills, but in view of wholesale applications for salary increases and other extra demands, Hamilton will be lucky if the rate is not up to the 21-mill mark this year.
