False Report!

THE Subscriber having heard, on several occasions, his name mentioned as being one of those who are said to have been brought up lately by the City authorities, and fined for having sold Bread deficient in weight, takes this method of giving a POSITIVE contradiction to the charge, so far as he is concerned; and would now give Public Notice, to all whom it may concern, that he will not hold himself accountable for the weight of Bread, except that sold in his own establishment.

Those Shopkeepers who are supplied by the Subscriber, are requested to see that the Bread is sufficient weight, when delivered,—after which, they will be responsible.

JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT.

Salem, Columbiana County, Ohio, April 1841.

DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir: I feel bound to you and the public, to avail myself of this opportunity of giving publicity to the extraordinary effects of your Expectorant on myself. Having been afflicted for several years with a severe cough, hectic fever, and its concomitant diseases, I seemed only doomed to linger on a short but miserable existence, until the fall of 1839, when being more severely attacked, and having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of two of the most respectable physicians in the neighbourhood, without deriving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving but a few days, or weeks at farthest, when the last gleam of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant,—and blessed by that Being who does all things in the use of the means—and contrary to the expectations of my physicians and friends, I was in a few days raised from my bed, and was enabled, by the use of a bottle, to attend to my business, enjoying, since, better health than I had for ten years previous. JAMES W. ESTILL.
