pack my box with five dozen liquor

New York Sept 15.—The impression prevailed this morning that yesterday sinister rumors had either no foundation of fact or had been grossly exaggerated and this, coupled with the better tone of freign cables caused further short covering during the morning and a fairly steady market. Cable advices were hopeful of a peedy reomval of the Moroccan controversy to the channel of arbitration and there was less pressure to sell sicks in this amrket for foreign account. As the session progressed however, it became evident that the support afforded came largely from bear sources and that there had been no incvrease of buying either on the part of the large interests or of small investors. In fact the improvement of prices has been due largely to technical conditions. Until there is more tangible evidence of a change of attitude by the large market interests the investment demand will hardly be forthcoming. It is hard, therefore, to forsee any permanent recovery of prices for the present.

CLOSING COTTON LETTER.

By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

New York, Sept. 15.—Today's cotton market remained quiet but very firm of undertone with the trend of prices upward. There was no fresh news other than routine bullish crop advices and rumors that the Giles report usually published around the middle of the month would tend to confirm other recent private estimates of crop deterioration. There has been little change of sentiment so far as the ultimate price of cotton is concerned but there have been some evidences of apprehension among the bears with regard to the course of prices. The majority of the shorts who now show a disposition to cover take the negative view that there is little prospect for an immediate change in the general level owing to the expected bullish October condition report, the possibility of early frost and the probable adjustment of foreign politics which would clear the way for better trade abroad. Naturally the bulls convert these factors into more positive arguments for higher prices. There was moderate bull support early but the cotton thus accumulated found its way back to market on the bulge. There is little disposition to operate aggressively either way until there are some fresh influences to furnish a stimulate to take a positive attitude one way of the other.

REAL ESTATE VALUES IN MOOSE JAW AND THE WEST

Comparison of Land Values Given Radius with all Western Cities Shows Moose Jaw up to Great Advantage—Large Margin yet to Rise in Prices of Property Without Danger of Over Valuation.

Comparison of the relative value of real estate in Moose Jaw and in other cities affords an interesting study. All along it has been recognized that in this city values were much lower than elsewhere, and while some people consider this a point not at all favorable, the investor at least finds a feeling of added security in the thought. Values in this city are at their very lowest, there is in property here, taking values elsewhere as a criterion, a large margin for a rise without the contemplation of a possibility of everlasting valuation. No boom prices rule here.

The possibility of a rise in value shortly is freely discussed and firmly believed it. With the freer circulation of money consequent upon the reaping of the harvest, the present rather quiet state of the real estate market is believed to be likely to give place to greater activity. From such a crop as has been grown this year the proceeds will be enormous and many a man will be seeking something which offers a safe investment with the surety of a good return. This may be found in Moose Jaw.

Compiled statistics showing the relative values in western cities of 25 foot lots, 1¾ miles out of the city, actual travelling distance, that is 1¾ miles from an approximate centre are illuminating. Of course, in the larger centres the comparison is hardly fair at present, but even in the cities of the same size as Moosejaw real estate values are found to be from 400 to 1200 per cent. higher than here. The comparisons are made as follows:

Moose Jaw, Richmond Park, $200 per 50 foot lot.
Saskatoon, Mount Royal, $450.
Regina, $1250.
Calgary, $1150, Mount Royal.
Edmonton, $1000, Glenora.
Vancouver, $3000.
Winnipeg, $4375.

These prices are all for lots equidistant in each city from the centre and in the case of the smaller cities represent the prices ruling in at present outlying sub-divisions, on the direct line of growth. But these prices are graded upon the values of central property and it is to be assumed may be considered a general indication of the comparative values of all prices in the cities affected.

IMPROVEMENT IN TONE OF THE MARKET

New York, N. Y., Sept. 15.—Fluctuations in stocks were narrower today than during the erratic movements of recent days. Wall street grew calmer. The nervous tension of yesterday was relaxed and there was a definite improvement in sentiment. The change arose largely from the cessation of pressure from abroad. Europe bought back some of the securities it has recently thrown on the market.

London's balance of purchases probably reached 25,000 shares. Advices from European capitals were more cheerful and there was no trace of a renewal of liquidation. Despite the improvement in the tone of the market it was apparent that the dominant factors in the financial world had not taken aggressive bullish positions. The rise in prices in the latter part of yesterday's trading was so swift and the demand so insistent that it was felt that a buying movement of a large dimension might have been initialed. But no effort was made today to bring about another sustained advance. After an irregular opening the market became heavy. Declines amounted to a point or more for Union Pacific, Canadian Pacific, Northern Pacific, Reading and a few other standard shares, but the majority of them lost only fractions. There followed a recovery which placed most of the list above yesterday's close. Gains were as small as the earlier losses and during the remainder of the day the market moved within narrow limits. The trading fell far below the previous day and the changes were slight.

Uncertainty as to developments abroad was pointed out as the chief restraining feature. Many traders took the view that the long decline had exaggerated the possible effect of any unfavorable conditions in this country, but the doubt as to what might grow out of the strained relations of the European powers prevented an extended upward movement at this time. Until a definite settlement of the Moroccan question is reached, securities undoubtedly will be handled with the greatest care. A sharp attack at the market late in the day showed also that the bear party is still to be reckoned with. Speculative sentiment is far from bullish.

New Haven recovered 4½ points of its declines today. Western Union developed strength following the favorable quarterly report of the company. National Biscuit was exceptionally weak, breaking five points and Minneapolis, St. Louis which recently advanced on the announcement that it was to lease the Iowa Central and form a part of a new route from Canada to the Gulf of Mexico relapsed 8 points.

The weekly statement of the country's clearing was distinctly encouraging. Exchanges increased more than 15 per cent. over the corresponding week of last year, the gain being especially marked in the east and south. Reported movements of currency during the week indicate a small cash gain. Gains made from the interior were partly balanced by losses to the sub-treasury and a net gain of about $2,000,000 is indicated.

The money market reflects the placing of loans in Germany. Notwithstanding heavy liquidation of securities, both for domestic and foreign account, the time money market is working definitely harder. The rates quoted for four, five and six months were at the maximum of the year. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $1,635,000. U. S. bonds were unchanged on call.

Real Estate Activity In Montreal

The activity in real estate in Montreal recently due to extensive improvements under way and mooted, and the large number of buildings being constructed to take care of the wonderful growth of Montreal's population has aroused the speculative interest in the towns and cities around Montreal.

Having received many requests from lower province towns for particulars about Montreal, C. C. Cottrell, the uptown real estate broker, whose name has become a household word on account of his extensive operations, is sending one of his best agents, Mr. Lamontagne east to take care of these inquiries.

Mr. Lamontagne will first stop at McAdam Jct., and will register at the City Camp Hotel where he will remain for three days from Sept. 19 till Sat. 22nd.

He will have full particulars of Mr. Cottrell's many properties and will be pleased to furnish particulars to any one desiring particulars about real estate investment.
