AMHERST GAZETTE.

Established 1826.

Wit and Humor.

Ought to be allowed to sit down—A merchant of forty years' standing.

The newest floral sentiment. "If you wish for heart's ease, don't look to marigold."

That rain of flesh in Kentucky was a regular meateoric shower.—Rochester Express.

Pounded ice for dinner is not what it is cracked up to be.—New Orleans Republican.

A little girl who wanted to be very good during Lent proposed to give up going to school.

Jones believes in policemen, and thinks they are all square men. "At any rate," he says, "they are never round."

There was a very little boy wading up to his knees, almost, in the slush on Summit street, Friday afternoon, when a passing gentleman said to him: "Why isn't you to school, young man?" "Cos I've got the hoopin' cough!" he explained.—Danbury News.

Lady.—"Now, Mr. Snapper, as I saw you at church last Sunday, tell me what you think of our new preacher?" Snapper.—"I think he would be a first-class martyr at the stake." Lady.—"Why so, Mr. Snapper?" Snapper.—"Because he is so very dry."

The recent shower of flesh in Bath county, Ky., has provoked quite a religious revival among the colored population there. They seat themselves about in little groups, with their faces turned upward, as if the heavens were full of mutton chops and sing:

"Kum set yere, hungray niggah,
Kum set yere on the groun',
De Lawd he am a gwine
To frow de vittals down."
