Mr. Roach was 63 years of age, a son of the late John Roach, of Nappan. He was unmarried. Two brothers, Dr. E. Roach, of Tatamagouche, and County Councillor John E. Roach, of Nappan, survive him. He was the first station agent on the I. C. R. at Maccan, when the road was completed from Moncton to Truro, holding the position for many years. Fred. B. Coleman.

Fredericton, July 19—(Special)—Fred. B. Coleman, proprietor of the Barker House, died at a late hour this evening, at his summer residence, Killarney, York county. Mr. Coleman had been ill for a long time, and the serious turn which occurred the other day was not entirely unexpected. He leaves a wife, one daughter and two sons. The travelling public and his many friends will hear of his death with sincere regret. He had been proprietor of the Barker House for many years and during one session of parliament had charge of the restaurant of the House of Commons at Ottawa.

Fredericton, July 21.—(Special)—Not since the obsequies of the late Governor Fraser has Fredericton seen such a large turnout of people to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of a departed citizen, as followed the remains of the late Fred B. Coleman to the grave this afternoon. The body of the deceased was brought from Killarney last evening, and placed in one of the front rooms of the Barker House, where it was viewed by hundreds of persons. The funeral was held from the Barker House at 3 o'clock, and was under the auspices of Hiram Lodge of Free Masons, of which deceased had long been a member. After a short service, conducted by Rev. Mr. Bedell, a procession was formed extending over two blocks in length, with the 71st Band and Masonic fraternity in the lead, and marched to St. Anne's church to the strains of the Dead March in Saul. A service for the dead was conducted by Rev. Dean Partridge who, in the course of an address, paid touching tribute to the deceased. At the conclusion of the service the procession re-formed and proceeded to the rural cemetery, where the interment was made in the family lot, Worshipful Master Bridges reading the Masonic burial service.

The pall bearers were: A. F. Street, George Y. Dibblee, Matthew Tennant, Alex. Burchill, James H. Hawthorn, and James D. Fowler, all of whom wore regalia of the Royal Arch Chapter. The list of mourners included two sons of deceased; A. N. Shaw, D. C. Clinch, and Michael Finn, of St. John; W. B. Gangong, R. D. Wilmot, M. P., Judge Steadman, Edward Moore, Rev. E. B. Payson, George T. Whelpley, Alexander Gibson, jr., Parker Glasier, and hundreds of others. The floral tributes were very beautiful and filled two barouches.

Funeral of J. E. Simmons.

Fredericton, N. B., July 21.—(Special)—The funeral of James E. Simmons, the well-known bridge builder, who died quite suddenly at Gibson, on Friday, took place this morning and was one of the largest seen at that place for years. The remains were taken to the Methodist church where an impressive funeral service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Turner, assisted by Rev. Mr. Payson. Hundreds of people in carriages and on foot followed the remains to Sunny Bank cemetery, where interment was made. Members of St. Mary's Court of Foresters walked in a body in the procession.
