Notice.

THE Undersigned Trustees of the Estate of CHARLES WORRELL, Esq., in this Island, under Deeds from that gentleman dated the Seventeenth June, One thousand Eight hundred and Fifty, from information received and from other sources which it is at present unnecessary to advert to, are led to apprehend that some of the tenants upon the Estate may have received the erroneous impression that the Trustees have conveyed away the Estate and relinquished their trust. They therefore deem it advisable to notify to all parties interested in the satisfactory settlement of Mr. Worrell's affairs or in any way connected with the Estate aforesaid, either as Tenants, Creditors or Debtors, that they have not as yet executed or assented to any transfer or Conveyance of the said Estate. They therefore hereby notify the Tenants and Occupiers of the said Estate hereafter until further notice from them, not to pay any amounts or sums of money payable in respect of said Estate for Rent or otherwise, to any other person than themselves the Trustees aforesaid.
