VOICES OF THE PEOPLE.

Forestry.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

Perhaps, as your journal has taken considerable interest in the forestry movement, you will allow these lines admission to its columns. Some five or six years ago a great number of farmers and others, at my request, were good enough to send me letters describing the state of forestry in your neighborhood. This spring, intending to examine the settled portions of Ontario, I visited several districts of the Province, and found in many places, I am glad to say, gratifying progress made in tree planting. I had meant to devote the whole summer to the work, but unfortunately through illness I have been obliged again to ask the assistance of my Ontario correspondents in order to complete the forestry report I am now getting out, which will be sent free to all who reply. I should, therefore, be very glad if any gentleman in your neighborhood would write me word as to the following points:

1. Whether, and to what extent, lines of trees for windbreak or ornament are being planted and how those planted are thriving.

2. Whether plantations of young trees are being set out, and, if so, how they succeed.

3. Whether cattle are fenced out from any portions of forest in your neighborhood and how it answers.

4. Any difference in climate, rainfall, drifting of snow, etc., you may have observed since the clearing of the country.

5. What measures, if any, would be likely to improve the existing state of affairs.

Yours truly, R. W. PHIPPS,

Civic Reform.

To the Editor of the ADVERTISER:

In your issue of yesterday a conversation I had with one of your staff on the question of civic reform is reported. Your reporter has stated my views very fairly, but he errs in one respect, for in suggesting that the tenure of office should be extended to three years, I had no intention of canvassing the merits or demerits of the present Council. I merely intended to have noted that the present system of yearly election prevented many of our best men from entering the civic arena. My ideas generally being in favor of centralization, the power of spending the city funds being confined to one body responsible to the people, and the object of obtaining a city charter is particularly to do away with anomalies that now exist in the Municipal Act, and to do away with the necessity of appealing to the Legislature for special privileges on every conceivable occasion, as the statute of Ontario nearly every year since Confederation will show—an expensive and cumbrous method of obtaining relief. Excuse my troubling you. Truly yours,

D. C. MACDONALD.

THE LIFE-SAVING SERVICE.

Interesting Items in the Report of the United States General Superintendent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—The following is an abstract of the annual report of Mr. S. I. Kimball, general superintendent of the life-saving service:

The establishment embraced at the close of the last fiscal year 233 stations, 176 being on the Atlantic, 46 on the lakes, 10 on the Pacific and 1 at the falls of the Ohio, Louisville, Ky. The number of disasters to documented vessels within the field of station operations during the year was 384. There were on board these vessels 3,197 persons, of whom 3,159 were saved and 38 lost. The number of shipwrecked persons who received succor at the stations was 788, to whom 1,876 days' relief in the aggregate was afforded. The estimated value of the vessels involved in the disasters was $5,266,853, and that of their cargoes $2,289,055, making the total value of property imperilled $7,555,908. Of this amount $5,451,843 was saved and $2,104,055 lost. The number of vessels totally lost was 76.

In addition to the foregoing, there were during the year 145 casualties to smaller craft, such as sailboats, rowboats, etc., on which there were 229 persons, of whom 288 were saved and 10 lost. The property involved in these instances is estimated at $61,527, of which $59,102 was saved and $2,425 lost. In addition to persons saved from vessels there were 27 others rescued who had fallen from wharves, piers, etc., and who would have perished without the aid of the life-saving crews.

The crews saved without outside assistance 167 vessels, valued with their cargoes at $665,020, and assisted other efforts in saving 84 vessels, valued with their cargoes at $1,502,210, making the aggregate number of vessels which they saved and assisted to save during the year 251, involving $2,167,236 of property.

The Prairie Buffalo, Now Almost Extinct.

The traveler, tourist, and rancher who now wander over the boundless prairies of the Northwest, have continually before their eyes reminders of a noble, and almost extinct animal—the buffalo. Horns, skulls, and bones of all kinds present themselves at almost every step.

Man, the great colonizer, has been the ruthless destroyer of this grand monarch of the prairie; and to-day the buffalo is almost as rare an object, as would be the finding of an African Lion roaming over the prairies.

In the march of civilization and the building up of towns and villages on these vast prairies where once roamed the buffalo, man, the great civilizer and conqueror, has not been able to deal with, or vanquish effectually, some of the dread foes which continually menace, not only the farmer and rancher, but the business man and those of every other profession and occupation; we refer to sickness and disease. Disease in various forms is to-day found in these free prairie towns with heaven's pure air and bright sky, as well as in the crowded cities of the East.

Nervousness, with all its attendant evils and troubles, is found in many homes, and is the cause of great anxiety and thought to many a husband and wife.

Men and women in the race of life, working hard and constantly to acquire riches in lands and cattle, are unconsciously, but surely, in many cases, bringing upon themselves nerve troubles, such as sleeplessness, irritability, dizziness, headaches and nervous prostration, that must end seriously, unless attended to in time.

The great remedy for the West, is the same as has restored to new life thousands of sufferers in the East; it is Paine's Celery Compound, the greatest nerve strengthener and builder ever offered to an enlightened people.

Paine's Celery Compound is now acknowledged by physicians as the remedy par excellence for all nervous complaints. For the Dyspeptic, and all who are troubled with kidney or liver complaints, it stands at the head of every known preparation.
