

The funeral of Sir Adam Beck

Sunset on the Clyde river, Scotland, near Greenock

Daredevil Johnny Reynolds doing stunts on a New York hotel roof, 440 feet above Broadway's pavement

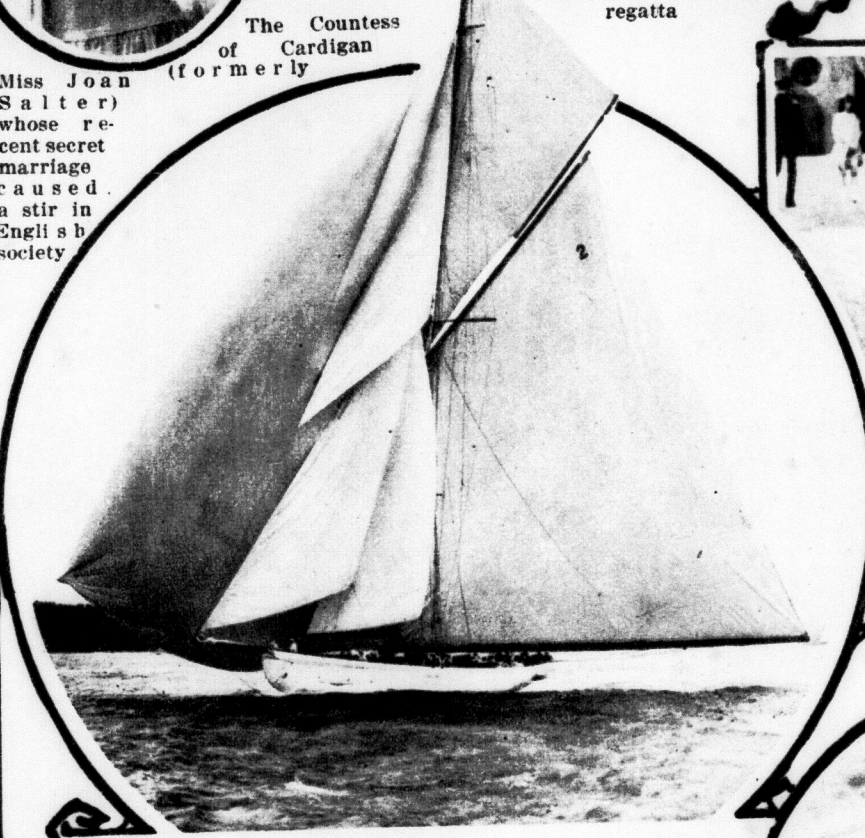

French tanks being unloaded at Casablanca for use against the Riffs

Miss Joan Salter (formerly the Countess of Cardigan) whose recent secret marriage caused a stir in English society

Earl and Countess Jellicoe and Mrs. Richard Charteris (right) at Cowes regatta

The Lulworth with spinnakers set in a race at Cowes

Pikemen in ancient uniform at the Honourable Artillery Company's sports in old London

Prince Chichibu, second son of the Emperor of Japan, receiving rowing instruction in England from Bill East, the King's bargeman, seated behind him in the boat

John Philip Sousa, the March King, created an Indian chief by the Creeks near Regina

A new picture of Princess Mary wearing her finest wedding gifts—the diamond and pearl bandeau from the King and Queen and the necklace from her husband

The new Waterloo bridge, London, Eng., nearing completion

Mrs. Lopokova, famous Russian dancer, and Professor J. M. Keynes, celebrated British economist, who were married in London

For the younger girl a tunic is delightfully becoming