DUKE SEES THE FALLS.

Niagara Falls South, April 29.—(Special.)—His Grace the Duke of Sutherland, with suite, arrived here this morning and left this evening on special train over the New York Central for New York, from which port he expects to sail for home on May 4. Accompanying the Duke on the Canadian government cars Ottawa and Cornwall were Sir Charles Ross, Baronet of Balnagowan, Scotland; Justice Wallace Nesbitt of the superior court of Ontario; Col. McLean of Montreal, C. L. Wilson and Senator Gibson of Ottawa.

The party were received by W. B. Rankine, vice-president of the Niagara Falls Power Company, whose guests the Duke and his friends were during the day. The program carried out included visits to the big electrical power plants on the American and Canadian sides. Mr. Rankine took the party down the gorge in the private car Ongiara and up this side of the river. The Duke expressed himself as greatly edified at what he had seen at Niagara before he left for New York this evening. He had been greeted by surprises on all sides since his visit to Canada, particularly at the progress of that great country. He thought it had a great future before it.

The sacrament of confirmation will be conferred by the Bishop of Toronto at St. Luke's Church to-morrow evening. The assistant priest will preach at matins.
