The death is chronicled of Sarah Frances Fenton, relict of the late Capt. R. M. Fenton, on March 4th, 1891, 2nd concession of Arran, at the family residence, being formerly Miss Barr, born Sept. 4th, 1807. Although an invalid for the past thirty years, lived to be the ripc old age of 84 years and 6 months. She received a college education, being one of the first families of the city of Dublin, Ireland. She was a zealous member of the Church of England during her whole life, not studying to excel in one particular class of Christian virtue, and she relied fully on. the "Rock of Ages," which is Christ Jesus. Her last words were: - "I am going to my Heavenly Father; O, I see my Saviour." She leaves four sons and two daughters, her youngest being Mrs. J. M. Galbraith, brother of the Rev. Wm. Galbraith, of Toronto. In Christ Church, Invermay, a solemn funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Rural Dean Cooper. A very large procession of sympathising friends accompanied her remains to its last resting place, and people evinced the deepest sympathy for visiting her uncle, Mr. Holmes, and her many friends in Orillia, County Simcoe.
