INFORMATION FOR THE PUBLIC.

The subscriber begs leave respectfully to submit to his friends and the public at large, the following facts, confirmatory of the value of the PLANTAGENET WATER, not only as an alterative, but for its immediate and sensible operation in the improvement and ultimate restoration of health to invalids generally.

T. S. P. McDonald, Esq., from Toronto, had been in a low state of health for the last seven years, so much so as to be incapable of pursuing any useful or profitable occupation. He recently visited the neighborhood of the Plantagenet Springs, so as to use daily the water of the same. At the expiration of twenty-one days, he left the Springs, so greatly renewed in health and spirits, that he attended at a party of friends the evening before he left the neighborhood, and danced during the entertainment—actually danced fourteen jigs.

He would further state another remarkable instance of the value and efficacy of these celebrated Waters:—

Mr. D. Fraser, in the employment of Peter Coburn, Esq., from the County of Stormont, of which the Hon. A. McDonald is at present a Representative in Parliament, came recently to the Plantagenet Springs, so much reduced in health, that it was with great difficulty he was enabled to walk or use his limbs with ease or comfort. He remained about sixteen days, drinking each day freely of the Water, and recovered his health so rapidly, that his mind and body appeared to assume new functions of health and vigor. He returned home in most excellent health.

The subscriber, in making known these circumstances, desires to offer to the public no exaggerated details or fulsome representations—they are given as facts, which cannot be contradicted, and will speak for themselves with a testimony which will prove satisfactory to every unprejudiced and sensible mind.

He has still another remarkable case to report, as follows:—

The child of Mr. R. J. Fowler, Professor of Music, residing at No. 69, Craig Street, Montreal, had been suffering severely from an attack of the usual summer complaint, attendant on Teething. The infant became greatly reduced by the severity of the disease, so well as the influence of the heat of the weather; and great fears were entertained as to its recovery. The parents were induced by the suggestions of a friend, to resort to the use of the Plantagenet Water, and knowing that their family physician, Dr. McCulloch, had favourably recommended the use of this Water in many cases, they consented to make use of the same, and they believe it was the means of restoring their child to such an improvement of health, as to afford a hope for its ultimate recovery. The above circumstances will, no doubt, prove interesting to those families or individuals who are suffering from diseases incident to infants, and the season of unripe and unwholesome fruits and vegetables.

LUXURIANT HAIR.

Bogle's Hyperion Fluid.—One bottle of this truly valuable liquid is worth more than its weight in gold. There is no quackery in its composition; but healthy and efficacious ingredients, calculated to effect all that it promises, namely, to strengthen at once the root, and a luxuriant growth of hair take its place. Gray hair will return to its pristine brilliancy—weak hair become strongand vigorous, and the skin take a proper and healthy action by the use of the inestimable Hyperion—as an article for giving softness to the hair, as a brilliant gloss, it cannot by any compound be equalled.

The following is from the New York Evening Mirror, May 25, 1849:—

"WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY.—Among all the Pulmonary advertised for the cure of human ailments, there is none in which we have more confidence than 'Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.' We regard it as one of Nature's own preparations—simple, safe, pleasant to take, and almost certain to cure all bilious and pulmonary affections. We have witnessed its wonderful effects in cases that were regarded as hopelessly desperate, and we can conscientiously recommend it as one of the best medicines in the world."

The following is from a very respectable source:—

Boston, November 27, 1849.

Mr. S. W. Fowle—Dear Sir,—Although averse to having my name public in the newspapers, I think this unsolicited testimonial, and you are at liberty to make use of it as you may please. In the Fall of 1847, I took a violent cold, which brought on a severe cough that lasted through the Winter and Spring, and caused me to raise blood and phlegm continually, day and night, which greatly reduced me in flesh and strength; I tried several kinds of medicine, with little or no effect; I had become feeble and emaciated, and began to despair of ever getting relief; when, by advice of my friends, I was induced to try Dr. Wistar's Wild Cherry Balsam; and after having taken five bottles, I found myself nearly, or quite well; and to this alone I think I owe present existence. I shall be happy to give further information to any one who will call on me.

Respectfully yours,
WILLIAM WHEELER, Cedar-Hardware Avenue, Near 720 Washington Street.

£100 REWARD.

WHEREAS some malicious person or persons have circulated a REPORT that SEVERAL BURNED CHESTS OF DAMAGED TEAS, had in their cooling, and (from the effects of salt water) poisonous in their nature, lately sold in the City, were purchased by me, I hereby offer a REWARD of £100 to any person who will bring to conviction the author or authors of such a slander, as such report is false, malicious, unmeasurable, and intended to injure my reputation.

It is well known that I and I alone have been the management of the Tea and Coffee Trade in Canada, that mine (the Canton House) is the only establishment for the exclusive sale of Tea and Coffee in either the Upper or Lower Province, and, by my sterling exertions, has been raised to the position which it now holds, which, notwithstanding the immense amount of malicious opposition I had to encounter. It is also well known that I have never interfered with others; that I have never supposed the knowledge of the mere humability of keeping Tea in a proper condition, when immaculate, sufficient, and sugar, molasses, candles, soap, tobacco, &c., &c., are kept; but when my good name is so cruelly and wantonly attacked, as in the present instance, I think it only just to myself, that should this calumnious slander be promulged in the Public, may have a list of the names of the purchasers of the Damaged Tea, above referred to, which is now in my possession, as I agree to pay the small spite which prompted such a malicious report, myself.
