ECHOES OF THE ELECTIONS

Mr. A. McNeil Declared Elected by Three Votes.

Probability of Recounts in North Bruce and North Lanark—The Next Speaker.

Tara, Ont., Nov. 12.—At the summing up of the votes here Saturday by the returning officer for North Bruce, Mr. A. McNeill (Con.) was declared elected by three votes. It is understood to be the intention of Mr. J. E. Campbell, the Liberal condidate, to ask for a recount.

OFFICIAL FIGURES.

Brockville—The majority of John Culbert (Con.) is 221.

Kingston—The official majority for H. J. Calvin (Con.) in Frontenac is 364.

Hastings—The official returns give Corby (Con.) 874 majority in West Hastings, and Northrup (Con.) 71 in East Hastings.

THE NEXT SPEAKER

Montreal, Nov. 12.—It is understood that Mr. L. P. Brodeur, the member for Rouville, will be the next speaker of the House of Commons. Mr. Brodeur was deputy speaker in the last parliament, and during the illness of the late Sir James Edgar took his place as speaker. He has therefore had considerable experience in the position, and his impartiality, coolness and good judgment earned him the good opinion of both sides of the house

ALGOMA.

Winnipeg, Nov. 11.—Hon. Mr. Sifton returned today from Rat Portage, where he addressed a big meeting last night. He says Algoma is safe for the Liberals, and Mr. Dyment's election is assured.

POLITICAL NOTES

The return of John Charlton as member for North Norfolk was gazetted Saturday at Ottawa.

The Liberals of Halifax and Dartmouth tendered a great reception to Dr. Russell, the successful candidate in Hants, on his return home ot Dartmouth.

The Algoma election takes place today.

The election in Selkirk, Man., is still in doubt.

A Winnipeg afternoon paper says it is understood that Sir Charles Tupper will take up permanent residence in Winnipeg with his son, Mr. Stewart Tupper, at Ravenscourt, Armstrong Point.

Owing to the small Conservative majorities it is expected that recounts will be held in North Bruce and North Lanark.

Mayor Prefontaine, of Montreal, who was elected in both Maisonneuve and Two Mountains, has decided to sit for the latter constituency.

Hon. J. Israel Tarte left Sunday night for Brandon, to attend a banquet to Hon. Clifford Sifton.

Mr. Leighton McCarthy's majority in North Simcoe is 676, instead of 400, as first reported.

BOMBARDIER BOYLE

Port Colborne, Ont., Nov. 12.—Bombardier Russell Boyle, just returned from South Africa, was given a right royal welcome Friday evening in Matthew's Hall. Addresses were made by the clergymen and other leading citizens, and a musical programme rendered. The most interesting feature of the evening was the presentation of a sword by the townspeople. Bombardier Boyle responded in an appropriate manner.

The band of the 48th (Toronto) Highlanders have started on a tour including the leading cities of the United States.

THE BOYS LIKE BADEN-POWELL

He Influenced 100,000 of them to Stop Cigarette-Smoking.

Lord Rosslyn Snubbed and Winston Churchill in Disfavor.

Revival of a Zola Drama—Splendid Welcome to Gen. Buller—Comment on Sir Charles Tupper's Retirement.

BOYS LIKE BADEN-POWELL.

London, Nov. 12.—Major-General Powell's extraordinary popularity among English boys is being utilized for an undoubtedly beneficent object. Baden-Powell never smoked. A league has been formed for boys from 12 to 18 years to sign a pledge to abstain from smoking for twelve months. A roll containing 100,000 signatures will be given to Baden-Powell as a Christmas present. The cigarette habit has been growing at an appalling rate among English schoolboys. Rigorous measures are advocated by many headmasters to stop it.

CHURCHILL IN DISFAVOR.

Lord Rosslyn was openly snubbed in Hyde Park the other day for the charge of repeating unjust reports about the officers of the 10th Hussars, and a similar punishment is said to be in store for Winston Churchill for playing the part of a cad in the escape from Pretoria.

Churchill, in his book and lectures, makes himself out a hero of the first water. The true story, however, paints the child member of parliament in entirely different colors. Two other war correspondents had preceded Churchill to the Pretoria jail, and they had carefully worked out a plan of escape before he arrived. He was generously admitted into the secret, and on the night previous to the one set for the break, Churchill employed his companions' ruse for his own escape and left them in the lurch. This betrayal of friendship has long rankled in the breasts not only of the two correspondents concerned, but in those of many of the officers who were prisoners. They now propose to administer a proper punishment.

HONORS FOR BULLER.

The honors paid to Gen. Buller at Southampton and Aldershot are referred to by a correspondent, as follows: Gen. Buller received today civic honors at Southampton, and a splendid welcome at Aldershot, where all the troops were drawn up and an address of congratulation was read in the presence of the Duke of Cambridge, Lord Wolseley, Mr. Brodrick, Sir William Butler and other associates. The spirit of the occasion was well summed up by the motto displayed at the station, "Duty done is honor won." Gen. Buller's friends has stood by him as loyally as the Natal army supported him through good and evil report, and his Devonshire neighbors will follow their example. Critical estimates of the value of Gen. Buller's services in the field are reserved for a future period, when all the secrets are told, and the precise truth about the relief of Ladysmith is known.

A ZOLA DRAMA REVIVED.

Paris, Nov. 12.—The great theatrical success so far this season is the revival of Zola's "L'Assommoir." M. Guitry, formerly Mme. Rejane's leading man, and afterwards Flambeau in "L'Aiglon," takes the part of Coupeau, a good, honest workingman, who, beginning slowly, grows more fond of liquor, till he dies in a fit of delirium tremens in the last act.

Critics declare that nothing more artistically perfect was ever seen here than Guitry's work in the last scene. Men and women mightly faint while watching the awful agony.

The drama is lavishly and intelligently staged. The cast comprises nearly 200 actors.

CAMPAIGN AGAINST KIPLING.

London, Nov. 12. — Poet Laureate Austin's disapproval of Rudyard Kipling's verse is well known. A singular letter in the Times, printed in large type, and signed "A.," declares "an outspoken utterance of what many of us have been thinking, that such epithets as 'Tommies,' 'Absent-minded Beggars,' and kindred vulgarities and abominations should be allowed to become obsolete. Anyone using them should be reproved for want of propriety."

Austin recently hit at Kipling when he referred to Goldsmith's verse as "an enduring rebuke to the tawdry vulgarity of writings, of some overloaded with color, and others disfigured with slang, that have earned in these recent days a resonant if fugitive popularity."

RETIREMENT OF SIR CHARLES.

London, Nov. 11.—The news of Sir Charles Tupper's retirement from politics was received with widespread regret here.

WAR OFFICE WORKERS PRAISED

London, Nov. 12.—The Marquis of Lansdowne, formerly secretary of state for war and now secretary of state for foreign affairs, has written a letter of farewell to the officials of the war office, in which he thanks them for their services, and says that the work they performed showed rare and unstinted devotion to duty. He says this work was attended with the greatest success and that they are entitled to the highest credit.

METEORIC SHOWER.

London, Nov. 12. — British astronomers hope for a brilliant and imposing meteoric shower on the night of Nov. 14. A revision of last year's calculations, which showed that a meteoric stream had been deflected two and three-quarter million miles from the earth's track by the influence of our planet, indicates that the stream may touch the earth this year, though it is still uncertain.

CARLIST UPRISING FAILS.

Madrid, Nov. 12.—Gen. Azcarraga, the prime minister, has informed the queen regent that no Carlist bands remain in Spain, and that the miserable failure of the recent attempt at an uprising probably marked the last of Carlism.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR SAISON.

Paris, Nov. 12.—Saison, who tried to kill the Shah of Persia, was convicted and sentenced to penal servitude for life. All the doctors who testified in the case agreed that the prisoner was sane and responsible for his actions.

PROMOTIONS.

London, Nov. 12.—Sir Thomas Henry Sanderson, permanent under secretary of state for foreign affairs, has been promoted to the rank of Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath. The Earl of Clarendon, the Earl of Selborne, Mr. Joseph Powell Williams, and Mr. Gerald Balfour have been appointed privy councilors. Mr. Balfour was already an Irish privy councilor.

MILLIONS MAY HAVE TO STARVE

A Serious State of Affairs in North of Pekin.

Total Failure of Crops in That Section is Reported.

Foreign Consuls Said to Have Agreed on a Basis of Settlement—Effect of the Recent Executions.

Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 12.—Oriental advices received by steamer state that four to six million Chinese are in danger of starving, their crops having ing been a total failure. One million picules of tribute rice were to be dispatched to Shanghai, and distributed among these hungry hordes from Tien Tsin and Pekin, but the military officers at Shanghai gave orders that no rice should be sent out of Central China. There is great danger that an immense swarm of robbers will be sent out of the famine districts, as usually happens.

UNDERSTANDING REACHED.

Berlin, Nov. 12.—The Cologne Gazette of Saturday has the following in regard to the understanding reached by the representatives of the powers in Pekin regarding the Chinese settlement: "Pour parlers between the envoyes in Pekin for the purpose of agreeing upon the fundamentals for peace negotiations with the Chinese plenipotentiaries proceed favorably in the whole series of important points. An agreement has been reached between the powers particularly regarding the punishment of the main culprits, the mandarins and princes; also regarding the witnessing of the execution of such punishments by representatives of the powers; also regarding the principle of paying damages to the several governments for the cost of the China expeditions and for damages sustained by private persons and missions; also regarding the permanent stationing of sufficient guards for the Pekin legations; also regarding the maintenance of secure and regular communications between Pekin and the seashore. About a number of other demands put forth by separate powers negotiations are still pending."

INCOMPLETE ARRANGEMENT.

A Washington dispatch says: If, as reported in the Cologne Gazette, the powers have reached a definite understanding in regard to China, its terms, as stated by that newspaper, omit several features which have been a source of discussion among them. Probably the most important of these is the proposition to abolish the cumbersome office of the Tsung Li Yamen, or board of foreign affairs, and place the duties of that body under the supervision of one person. The impression prevails that if an agreement has been reached, it is incomplete, only partial.

TOO HUMILIATING.

The Roma Tribuna publishes the following from its Pekin correspondent: Li Hung Chang and Prince Ching have informed me that the demands of the powers for the punishment of Prince Tuan and the withdrawal from power of the empress are too humiliating to be accepted by the Chinese.

Pekin, Nov. 9—Via Shanghai, Nov. 10.—Li Hung Chang has received a note from Emperor Kwang Su declining to accede to the demand for the punishment of Tung Fu Hsiang, and consenting only to the banishment of Yu Hsien. The note has not yet been formally communicated to the ministers.

FRICTION.

London, Nov. 12.—Serious friction has been caused in the peace negotiations in Pekin, says the Daily Mail's correspondent at Tien Tsin, wiring Nov. 9, "by Belgium, Denmark, Holland and Spain clamoring to have a locus standi in any important decisions. Russia and France have supported their claims, which are opposed by the powers. Belgium is especially importunate, and intensely pro-Russian."

LOST TO CHINA.

London, Nov. 12.—Dr. Morrison, wiring to the Times from Pekin on Saturday, says Li Hung Chang has not yet replied to Admiral Alexieff's invitation to resume the government of Manchuria under Russian protection. Russia will require the names of all officials to be submitted to her for approval. Her proposals are tantamount to military occupation, and every Chinaman realizes that Manchuria is lost to China. Increasing alarm is felt here at the spread of the insurrection in the southern provinces. No surprise will be caused if Japan intervenes. The trade and financial outlook is very gloomy.

EFFECT OF EXECUTIONS.

Pekin, Nov. 12.—A profound impression was produced upon the natives at Pao Ting Fu by the execution there of three officials—Tien Yang, provincial treasurer; Gen. Wei Shun Kong and Col. Kiu—who were condemned by the international court-martial as among those responsible for the massacre there. They were beheaded, and their heads were exposed on poles for a day before burial. It is probable, despite discrepancies, that the foregoing officials are identical with those referred to in a press dispatch from Tien Tsin, dated Nov. 6, which said Ting Yung, acting viceroy of Chi Li; the Tartar Gen. Qwei Heng, and Col. Wang Chau Me, were shot at Pao Ting Fu by order of the court-martial.

The Canton papers report the execution of Chu, a prominent leader of the Triads, and the arrest of Yung Heun Po, a prominent reformer. The officials are doing their utmost to stamp out the reform movement.

NEW PLAN OF CAMPAIGN

Said to Have Been Adopted by the Boers.

Funeral of the Queen's Grandson, Prince Christian Victor.

Receives a Soldier's Burial in South Africa—Gen. Buller Reaches London—Boers Surprised by Methuen and Kitchener.

Pretoria, Nov. 11.—Reports have been received here showing that the plan of campaign that has now been decided upon by the Boers contemplates having each commando defend the district in which it is raised. Each commando numbers from 300 to 600 men.

Some of the commandants have established a reign of terror among the more peaceful burghers, and a number of these are coming into the British camps for protection. One burgher came into Greylingstad with his back badly lacerated from a sjamboking administered to him by the commandant in that district.

PRINCE VICTOR'S FUNERAL.

Pretoria, Nov. 8, via Pietermaritzburg, Natal, Nov. 11.—The funeral of Prince Christian Victor, a grandson of the Queen, who died here from enteric fever, took place today. Minute guns began firing at 10 a.m., when the cortege left the Yeomanry Hospital, and continued during the funeral. The route was lined with a guard of honor, consisting of the men of the Norfolks and Hantz Regiments. Representatives of all the forces, including detachments of the colonial troops, mounted infantry, cavalry, artillery, and the medical and army service corps were in line. The bands of the Norfolk and Hants regiments played Chopin's "Death March." The 2nd Coldstreams immediately preceded the gun carriage bearing the body.

THE PALLBEARERS WERE ALL GENERALS.

Gen. Roberts, Prince Francis of Teck, Gen. Kitchener and all of Gen. Roberts' staff present in Pretoria followed the body. At the cathedral, the Rev. Mr. Rose, chaplain of the Australians, received the body, which was taken into the church. The chief mourners and a number of the ordinary congregation filled the building. The service was choral.

The Rev. Mr. Cox, chaplain of the Canadians, read the lesson, Rev. Mr. Wilson, chaplain at Pretoria, and other clergymen were present. After the service at the church, the procession reformed in Church Square and marched to the cemetery, west of the town. Upon arriving at the cemetery the Coldstream Guards halted and lined the path to the grave, standing with their rifles pointed to the ground and their heads bent.

AT THE GRAVE
