PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.—The House of Representatives having chosen a Speaker on the 22d ult., the President transmitted his Message to Congress on Monday the 24th. The following abstract of the document was telegraphed to the Boston papers:

"The President congratulates the country that we are at peace with all nations, that we have been greatly blessed by Providence, and that the scourge, cholera, has been staid. Our relations with Great Britain are of a friendly character.—The recent alteration in the navigation laws by Great Britain, and reciprocated in by us, are likely to prove materially advantageous. A slight interruption in the diplomatic relations with France has been terminated. Our minister had been received in that country, and one had been appointed to this government.

The suppression of the expedition against Cuba is slightly alluded to.—The President studiously avoided interference during the conflict between Austria and Hungary. He stood prepared in case of success on the part of the Hungarians to welcome them among the family of nations.—He invested an agent with power to recognise their independence should circumstances justify it.

Our claims upon Portugal have been pressed with renewed vigor. During the late revolution at Rome our charge had been unable to present his letters of credence. The President recommends the cultivation of friendly relations with Mexico, and the faithful observance of treaties.—He recommends close relations of friendship with South American states bordering on the Pacific. A convention had been negociated with Brazil providing for the settlement of American claims. Calls attention to existing laws concerning the African slave trade, with a view of its more effectual faithful execution.

The President recommends a revision of the existing tariff on a basis which shall augment the revenue, and does not doubt the right of Congress to encourage domestic industry; he thinks specific duties best adapted to prevent fraud; recommends duties high enough to protect home industry. The applications of California for admission into the Union, should receive the favourable consideration of congress. A coast survey has been ordered for California and Oregon, to fix upon proper locations for light houses.

A contract having been made with Nicaragua by a company composed of Americans, for the purpose of a ship canal, the President has directed negociations for the purpose of forming a treaty with Nicaragua pledging both governments to protect those who shall engage in the work.—Nicaragua had invited other nations to enter into the same treaty stipulations. He thinks the canal may be made the bond of peace; thinks the Isthmus and Tehuantepec routes worthy of consideration, and though Mexico did not concede the right to us, yet he will not renew the proposition to purchase it, as it ought to be open to all.

The President calls attention to the position of the Sandwich Islands and desires that they may maintain their independence, and that other nations should concur, and cannot be indifferent to their passing under the dominion of any other power.

The receipts into the treasury for the fiscal year ending the 30th June, forty-eight millions; Treasury notes funded ten millions, making fifty-seven millions; expenditures forty six millions. Says the treasurer's report will probably show a deficiency in July next of five millions, and first of July 1851 of ten millions, making an aggregate of sixteen millions caused by the extraordinary expenses of the Mexican War. Recommends authority be given to borrow the necessary amount to meet deficiency.

He recommends a branch mint in California; recommends a commission for examining land titles there; also recommends a geological survey.—Recommends an increase of the military force; speaks well of the navy; is favourable to a reduction of postage, except by sea steamers.

The President indulges in general reflections, and above all recommends love of Union in every American heart. Says that dissolution would be the worst of all calamities; its preservation the surest means of prosperity and happiness.—Whatever dangers may threaten it he shall stand by it and maintain it in its integrity to the full extent of the obligations imposed and the power conferred on him by the constitution.

A BOLD PIECE OF VILLAINY.—A keg of powder was recently placed beneath the Congregational meeting-house at Enfield, (Mass.) and a slow match laid to it, for the purpose of blowing up the building. The powder was accidentally discovered, and the plan frustrated, before the originators had carried out their too evident purpose. A concert was soon to have been given in the church, and some think that that time was set for the explosion. The Ware Gazette says the presumed object of this diabolical outrage was revenge upon certain proprietors of the church, who had taken active measures to put down the sale of liquors in that town, by prosecutions. There is a clue to the individual who is supposed to have arranged the plot.

SEARCH FOR SIR JOHN FRANKLIN.—We learn that a letter has been received in this city from Lady Jane Franklin, in which she asks advice and information from the party to whom it is addressed, as to the expediency of her coming over, with a view to the arrangement of an expedition, at her own expense, for the renewal next Spring, of the search for her lost husband. She meditates the purchase and equipment of two small vessels, with which she hopes a more successful result may be obtained than that which has so cruelly disappointed her, under the command of Sir James Ross.—N. Y. Commercial Adv.

THE DAY OF THANKSGIVING AT HALIFAX.—The Day of General Thanksgiving on Thursday the 20th, was observed with becoming solemnity; and although in consequence of the heavy rain the Churches were not well filled, the Public Offices were closed, and business in general suspended. Appropriate Sermons were preached in all the Churches of the City, the several Pastors of which taking the opportunity of bringing prominently before their congregations the many mercies they had received, and for which such a Public Thanksgiving was especially necessary.

We feel greatly thankful to the Government for this exercise of its prerogative. Whatever opinions may be entertained upon its general policy, we feel assured that pious and intelligent men have yielded their approbation of this measure, and avoiding all contention which might destroy the agreement, having gladly availed themselves of the opportunity of coming up before God in their national character to offer up the tribute of a Nations praise. Liberal Collections were made for the Poor.—Church Times.
