TORONTO CLUB WINS ONTARIO TANKARD

Defeating Brampton Excelsiors by Long Margin in Final.

The desperate battle between Toronto and Napanee is the theme for the story of the second day's play for the Ontario Silver Tankard. The game was finished about 1.30, and the city rinks won after an extra end.

At Victoria Rink, in the morning, Brampton Excelsiors, after starting badly against Barrie, soon had their bearings and then drew away. Thauburn stuck to Doc Simon and was only six behind at the finish, when Beck had a margin of 15 on Todd.

Brampton put up a fight in the early stages of the final at the Granite, but collapsed owing to the long journey, and the Toronto Club won by 15 shots, one rink stopping at 17 ends.

Napanee had a lead on Toronto of from six to ten for three-quarters of the journey in the semi-final, and the little band of supporters from the eastern town were speculating on the final. Leonard and Wetherald finished two ends ahead of the other rink, and Napanee had a comfortable lead of five. The Tait-Lyon outfit built up a nice end, except for a back second shot against them. McDonald worked thru a long and narrow port, and drove it out, leaving four. There were some ups and downs, until Maybee drew up for fourth shot. Tait had a chance to curl to this and get the five in a cluster, and he nearly did the trick, but it was a useful three.

The Extra End.

The bottom end of the Napanee rink was weak in the last open end, when Toronto netted two. Tait had the edge on his man thruout the nineteenth, and counted two. Wetherald had to brush a guard to come to the shot with his last stone, but he did it, and the Torontos were four up all round.

The ice was perfect, keen, and not drawing too much. The gallery was rather small for a final.

Presenting Tankard.

Immediately at the close of play President J. A. Macfadden of the O.C.A. handed over the Tankard to the Torontos, this being their first victory since 1877. He complimented the adversaries, spoke of Detroit's sportsmanship in waiving their bye, and referred to the play of the veteran J. P. Allan of the Excelsiors. Dr. Tait received the historic mug for the winners. He, too, spoke of his opponent refusing to take advantage of a mistake of Skip Lyon, who forgot to play a stone.

Skip Thauburn replied for the runners-up, who had a most strenuous day. They finished up on Owen Sound at 1.15 yesterday morning at Lakeview, started with Barrie at 9.30 at the Victoria Rink, and wound up in the final.

Messrs Thauburn and Macfadden urged on the curlers to subscribe to the Patriotic Fund, as decided on at the annual meeting of the association.

FRONTENACS FADED BEFORE RIVERSIDES

Kingston Team Held Locals for Two Periods and Then Stopped—Score Doubled.

Kingston Frontenacs held Riversides for two periods at the Riverdale Arena last night and then faded, the locals winning 16 to 8. The narrow ice surface spoiled any attempted combination and the result was lone rushes with a man trailing the puck-carrier to bat in the rebound.

Kingston checked well for two periods, but Riversides opened up several links in the last round and left them standing still. The Frontenacs gave three of their juniors a chance and Riversides were without Sanderson and Hill. Dopp was moved up to left wing, and Reesor and Dennison comprised the defence, with Barlett playing the centre position. It rounded out a nice aggregation that never stopped for a minute.

It was smart enough hockey, but the small rink stopped the fine points and Riversides had the right idea, when they batted the puck ahead and raced for it. This was the only kind of hockey that could be played on the narrow rink with any effect. Kingston might have made it clearer, if they had used their body more thruout. It was one of the cleanest games of the year, the penalties being for minor offences only.

Barlett was Riversides' chief scorer, and he tore close into the net all night. Applegath, Dopp and Crane played a nice checking game, and both Dennison and Reesor were strong at the lone rush game. The Kingston front line was good for two periods, but the defence played wide open at all times, and many goals were scored against them thru this error.

The score was a tie, 3 goals each, at the end of the first period. Riversides led 3 to 6 at the second reet, and the final was 16 to 8.

The teams:

Referee—Lou E. Marsh.

PANZARETA BOASTS WONDERFUL RECORD

Trainer Newman Will Retire Great Mare and Place Her in the Stud.

JUAREZ, Feb. 1.—Trainer Art Newman has announced that the coming spring he expects to have Pan Zareta mated to some one of the great sires now doing stud work in Kentucky, and that this season will mark her retirement from the turf.

He has made up his mind to retire her to the stud while she is still entirely sound, and it is his present intention to take her to the Churchill Downs track at Louisville in April with the rest of his stable, and while there will ship her to Lexington and have her mated to one of the stars in the stud.

He will then race her until he is certain that she is in foal, and then ship her to the Newman ranch in Texas, and the turf will know the sensational daughter of Abe Frank no more as a performer.

Pan Zareta has made a remarkable record as a race mare. She has raced all over the land, from Mexico to Canada, and won on every track over which she has started. She has won more than half of her races, tho since a two-year-old she has been asked to race in a majority of her races at a great disadvantage in weight.

She has won with as much weight as 126 pounds, and showed even with such an impost the most dazzling turn of speed. As a two-year-old she won thirteen races, at three years old she won fifteen times, and as a four-year-old last season she won thirteen races. She has only started so far this year in one race, which she won easily. This shows a record of 42 winning races, and to date she has won in stakes and purses a total of $19,792.

Her full record by years is given in the table below:

Years.	Started.	Times. 1st.	Times. 2d.	Times. 3d.	Amt.
1912	19	13	2	2	$3,512
1913	33	15	8	3	8 895
1914	28	13	9	2	7,085
1915	1	1	0	0	300

Newman is anxious some day to have the great mare mated to Broomstick. He believes that such a union would result in producing a Kentucky Derby-winner and likely in another season he will send her to Brookdale.

As a speed marvel she is of the highest type, and all around as a race mare stands out with Meadow as Texas' best contribution to the turf of recent years. As her dam's first two foals are both stake-winners, there seems to be no question that Pan Zareta will in time become famous as a producer. Even if she was to fail, however, in this respect, she will always hold a creditable place in turf annals as one of the greatest of the granddaughters of Hanover of late days.

At the eleventh hour Elmira sent word last night that on account of a snow blockade they were unable to meet Waterloo in the N.H.L. series, and therefore it had to be postponed.

OTTAWA STOPPED MARSHALL'S CREW

Torontos Below Form and Were Beaten Handily at the Capital.

OTTAWA, Feb. 3.—After winning five straight games in the N.H.A., the champion Torontos went down to defeat before the Ottawas in tonight's game. On a perfect sheet of ice, the Senators played the cup-holders to a finish, winning by 7 to 2. It was tied at the end of the first, and, after Toronto had taken a lead in the second, the Ottawas took out Benedict and put Hebert in the nets. Toronto failed to score again.

Ottawa led by 3 to 2 at the end of the second, and had the Torontos faded. In the third the Ottawas scored four in a row, Darragh getting three. Play was strenuous at all times, but there was no real rough work until the last ten minutes, when McGiffin and Ross clashed. Ross punched the Toronto man in the face three or four times, and Graham and Foyston jumped into it. Referee Smeaton finally separated the men and sent McGiffin off for his second major, while Ross was also banished.

Darragh played a great game, as did Hebert, Ottawa started off badly, minus Duford, and when Benedict, who was sick, dropped off, their chances looked blue. Fortunately, Hebert saved the day. Ross was also a tower of strength. The Torontos lacked their usual aggressiveness after the first session. Ottawa played it safe from beginning to end. Line-up:

Ottawa (7)—Goal, Benedict; defence, Merrill, Shore; centre, Darragh; wings, Broadbent, Gerard.

Torontos (2)—Goal, Holmes; defence, Carpenter, Cameron; centre, Foyston; wings, Wilson, Walker.

QUEBEC BEATEN BY CANADIENS

MONTREAL, Feb. 3.—Outplaying their opponents at all stages of their scheduled N.H.A. fixture at the Arena tonight, the Canadiens put Quebec practically out of the running for the championship when they defeated them by a score of 5 to 2. Canadiens started out with an all-French team, and used only one English player during the match. Scott, who was released some time ago by the club, has been re-signed, and was sent in to relieve the regulars at intervals. He played in better form than at any other time this season, and accounted for one of the goals.

Quebec have gone back in their play since their last appearance here. They did not show the snap and dash that marked their previous effort, while any attempts at combination were without result. Teams:

Canadiens (5)—Goal, Vezina; defence, Corbeau, Dubeau; wing, Pitre; centre, Laviolette; wing, Berlanquette.

Quebec (2)—Goal, Moran; defence, Joe Hall, H. Mummery; wing, Marks; centre, Smith; wing, Crawford.

BILLY BRINO WINS STAKE AT OTTAWA

Ontario Backers Get the Money in Ice Race Feature —The Summary.

OTTAWA, Feb. 3.—(Staff Special).—After the postponement of a day the Hull Driving Club resumed their races today, with the unfinished race, a classified trot and pace, and the Brewery Company Stake for 2.15 pacers. The attendance was the largest of the meeting, every available seat on the grand stand being taken, and in fact every inch of vantage ground or ice was in use. The first race called was the unfinished classified trot and pace. The Indian had two heats and Alphadel one on Monday night when the races were called for the day. This race did not look too good and speculators were at a loss what to do. However, when they scored for the word today Alphadel, on the pole, led away and remained in front until within a few feet of the wire, when the Indian overtook and passed him, thus winning the heat and race in the fastest time of the race, 2.21½.

The second race was the stake event. Altho twelve horses were carded to start only five responded to the bell. This was one of the best betting races of the meeting. Patrick d'Oro, from Calgary, the speed marvel, and Caluso, the Grand Circuit proposition from Syracuse, were the two horses that got the play, while Billy Brino, our good Ontario representative, got some play, and when the westerners and Americans count up they will see that the Ontario representatives got a good deal of coin.

V. Fleming, who has driven Billy Brino in all his races over the ice, made one of the best drives of his career. He simply beat these horses and made them like it. Patrick d'Oro drew the pole, with Billy Brino in second place. There was no delay in scoring and when the word was given they were all in their place. Billy Brino went away very fast and took the Patrick horse to a break. Before he settled he and Daisy C. were hooked together and the latter lost her driver. She went the full mile and nothing was broken or anyone hurtbeit. Billy Brino finished first, Caluso second, Hal Chief third. Time 2.29½. Very slow, but this was on account of the accident. In the second heat they were away boiling. At the three-eighths Patrick d'Oro went out around the field and left the pole. Fleming trailed with Billy Brino to the five-eighths pole, where he pulled out, and Brino and Patrick raced each other into the stretch, when Billy Brino fairly outpaced his rival and won the heat eased up in 2.18¼, with Patrick second and Hal Chief third. The final heat was won by Billy Brino after the balance of the field had tried to take him out one at a time. He looked them all in the eye, put back his ears and said "Come on." He won the heat eased up again in 2.17¼, the fastest heat raced over the Ottawa track so far at this meeting. V. Fleming was congratulated on all sides for his good drive and the condition of his horse.

The last race on the program had to be carried over after three horses had won a heat. Lord Ermine had two heats, Birdie Walsh one and Krispin one. This will be the first race called tomorrow. Summary:
