Shipping Notes.

Wrecked.—A letter from Wm. M. McLean from Pictou, N. S., 4th inst., reports the loss of the bark Harvest Home of Ardrossan, on the east point of the Magdalene Islands, about midnight of the 21st ult., while on her passage from Malaga to Saguenay River, and became a total wreck. Captain Wilson and his crew were saved and brought to Pictou. Mr. McLean, managing owner, was also on board at the time of the loss of the vessel. Her hull and a portion of the materials were saved and sold. The H. H. was 381 tons register and built in this city in 1840.

Merchants' Exchange.

New York, July 7.

Freights—There is a strong market for grain room, with fair inquiry, otherwise the market is moderately active at firm rates. To Jamaica a brig from St. Stephen, N. B., lumber, $90.50, and back to United States with logwood at $50 per ton, has been chartered.

The San Francisco Board of Supervisors contemplates an ordinance which is intended to stop swearing in public. It imposes a fine not exceeding $1,000, or imprisonment for not more than six months, upon whoever shall "utter in a place, or in the hearing of two or more persons, any blasphemous words or language."

John E. Osborn was killed by a nitroglycerine explosion near Titusville, Pa. He sat on 156 lbs of the stuff, when a jolt caused a concussion sufficient to explode it and he was blown in all directions. A thief who helped to gather the fragments of his body found the piece upon which his vest hung, and stole $2 from a pocket.

Dr. Ewald, the author of the History of Israel, has just been tried at Hanover for an alled libel on Prince Bismarck, and sentenced to three months imprisonment. The libel was contained in an article written by the professor in a Particularist magazine, in which the Chancellor was compared to Frederick II. and Napoleon III.—with the former in "his unrighteous war with Austria and his ruination of religion and morality," and with the latter in "picking out the best time possible for robbery and plunder." Dr. Behrens, who published the article, was fined twenty-five thalers.

Sir John Astley, an English M. P., attended a meeting of his constituents recently, when a man in the crowd called out, "What about the Liquor bill?" "Well," said Sir John, "mine was uncommonly high last year, how was yours?"

The age of Simon Sturges of Allentown, Pa., was 79 years when he died. He had been married four times, the weddings having been on his fortieth, fiftieth, sixtieth and seventieth birthdays. His last wife was dead, too, and it is likely that, had Mr. Sturges lived another year, he would have celebrated his eightieth birthday in the accustomed style, because the local paper says he was a very methodical old man.

A border at a hotel in Madison, N. J., evaded the payment of a month's bills on the ground that a printed list of prices was not as the law requires, posted in his room. He was not so successful, however, in evading the boot of the landlord.

"Oh Lord! Thou knowest," prayed a Connecticut deacon in church meeting, "that I am afflicted with a most impious and depraved son. Thou knowest that he will swear, and lie, and steal, and do all sinful things. Thou knowest that on the last Sabbath day he was seen walking down the principal street in the village, with his hands in his pockets, whistling the following ungodly tune"—And the congregation were astounded to hear "Yankee Doodle" flow melodiously from the deacon's pursed up lips.

The Presbytery of Chesapeake met in Baltimore Wednesday to try the case of the Rev. H. E. C. Baskerville of Laurel, charged with whipping his wife. The specification is that one Sunday a short time since the reverend gentleman, who is the provider for his household, having failed to procure anything for breakfast except bread and butter, was surprised to find some eggs on the table, and being informed by his wife, in response to an inquiry, that she had borrowed them from a neighbor, told her he would "teach her how to break the Sabbath," and did so by slapping her jaws—one of the slaps striking her on the eye and "blacking" that orb into which he had so often fondly gazed.

[To the Associated Press.]

NEW YORK, July 6, p. m.

The local train running between New York and New Haven was thrown from the track to-day, by a misplaced switch William Wilcox, superintendent of the road, was killed, and 52 passengers injured; one lady probably fatally. None of the others dangerously.

Additional reports fully confirm the destruction caused by the tornado which passed over Washington on Saturday night. It extended south into Virginia, and north into Maryland and Jersey. On Chesapeake Bay it was very disastrous, many excursion steamers and boats being caught in it. Many lives are reported lost, and the destruction to property will exceed one million dollars.

MADRID, July 6.

Santander is threatened by the Carlists and the authorities have telegraphed for reinforcements. Several Republican war ships have moved up, and are in a position to shell the approaches to the city on the appearance of the Insurgents.

PARIS, July 6.

ANOTHER FRENCH CRISIS.

Excitement runs high at Versailles. Legitimist Deputies, to the number of 100, have decided to vote against the Ministry to-morrow. They have drawn up an order of the day censuring the Government for its misuse of powers conferred by the state of siege, avoiding any mention of the manifesto of Count de Chambord or of the suppression of L'Union, so as to secure the support of the Left. The position of the Ministry is critical. It is thought some changes will be unavoidable, even if the counter-coalition in favor of Perier's bill should succeed. The sitting of the Assembly to-morrow may possibly result in a dissolution, unless the fear of such a step should restrain the opponents of the Government.

ADVICES FROM SPAIN
