LOCAL MARKETS

London, Wednesday, Jan. 25.

The elections and the cold weather made the market almost a blank. Only two loads of hay were offered during the morning. Sales were made at $8 and $8 50 per ton.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

The market held here during the past week were of the ordinary kind for this time of the year. The supply of hay during the week was the feature of the markets. Trade as a rule was brisk, and the prices realized seemed pleasing to those who had the produce to dispose of.

Grain—Oats are about the only kind of grain offered; there is a good demand and prices are firm, at 99c to $1 01 per cwt.

Hay and Straw—The supply of hay was large; there is a good demand for the choice loads at $8 and $8 50 per ton; medium, $7 50 to $8. The demand for straw is not as brisk as in the previous week; sales are made at $5 50 to $6 per ton.

Butter and Eggs—The demand for butter is a trifle easier at present; one of the most extensive dealers in this in the city is of the opinion that there will be no drop in prices to any extent for some time to come; present prices vary according to quality; sales are made at 20c to 22c for choice crocks, in wholesale lots, and 21c to 25c for pound rolls; creamery is quoted at 25c to 27c. Eggs are easier; some lots were purchased this week by the dealers at 21c per dozen, but the general run of prices paid is 23c to 25c per dozen; it is reported that about 40,000 dozen of eggs are in cold storage in this city.

Potatoes—There are considerable being offered; most of the sales are made at 75c to 80c per bag.

Apples—Sales are slow, at $1 per barrel for a good sample, and 25c to 40c per bag.

Poultry—The market continues firm for the fairly liberal offerings; dressed turkeys sell at 15c per lb, wholesale; geese, 10c per lb; ducks, 10c to 10½c per lb; chickens, 11c per lb; old hens, 7c to 8c per lb; live chickens sell at 8½c per lb, and old fowl at 6c per lb.

Dressed Hogs—The demand is good, at $7 to $7 25 per cwt for nice lean hogs of 125 to 140 lbs; heavy hogs sell at $6 to $6 25 per cwt.

Live Hogs—The price paid here last Monday was $5 per cwt; prices in Toronto have advanced 20c per cwt this week, and prices are likely to be higher next Monday; there is hardly any trade in small pigs, as there are only a few being offered; prices rule at $3 to $4 per pair; fat sows bring $3 to $3 25 per cwt.

Butchers' Meats—Trade continues to be slow in this line, and the following prices rule: Choice beef, $6 to $6 50 per cwt; medium, $5 to $5 50; inferior, $4 to $4 50; lamb is in brisk demand, at 10½c to 11c per lb; veal, $7 to $8; mutton, $6 to $8 per cwt; for hindquarters of pork, 9c is most frequently paid, and 8c per lb for forequarters.

Rabbits are in good demand, at 25c to 35c per pair.

STOCK MARKETS.

H C. Becher, stock broker, Bank of Commerce building, received the following by private wire from Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington today:

New York, Jan. 25. — Noon. — The principal feature in today's market so far has ben the heavy buying by London houses. Their purchases are estimated from 50,000 to 60,000 shares. Local selling has, however, been in such volume as to more than offset the arbitrage operations, consequently, the tendency seemed towards lower prices, more especially during the latter part of the second hour, when the foreign buying began to diminish. It is supposed that certain western houses, who have been credited with having a large interest on the long side of the market have been lightening their load. A. C. P. has been conspicuously weak, although according to the specialists, the character of the buying has been better than the selling. Outside business has been reduced to a minimum and the professional element is, as a rule, bearish. Sales to noon, 427,900.

LIVE STOCK MARKET.

TORONTO.

Toronto, Jan. 24.—Trade at the City cattle market was on the whole dull, business being generally draggy after the first couple of hours. In the export trade shipping space is limited, and for this reason the demand is not so active as it otherwise might be. There were a few good loads offering, and these sold fairly well at about $4 50 to $5, the top. Choice butcher cattle were not to be had by those who wanted this class at prices much, if anything, below what they have been paying for some time, but common butchers and mediums were much easier, being in some cases 25 to 30c lower than a week as so ago. Lambs are higher and firm. There is a decided advance in the hog market, prices jumping up today to $5 30 for selects and $5 05 for the next. This is an advance of about 40c in a little over a week.

Corbett & Henderson sold a load of extra choice butchers' heifers, 1,100 lbs, at $4 25; a load of mixed cattle, 1,000 lbs, at $3 40; a load of mixed cows, $2 20 to $2 70 per cwt.

George Rowntree bought for the Harris Abattoir Company 150 head of mixed butchers' cattle; picked light butchers' cattle, $4 to $4 40; medium to good heifers and steers, $3 40 to $3 80; cows, $2 75 to $3.

W. L. Jilkins bought 10 butcher cattle, 1,000 to 1,100 lbs, at $3 30 to $4 10.

Harry McRae bought 20 butchers' cows and rough steers, 900 to 1,200 lbs, at $2 50 to $2 90.

Frank Hunnisett, jun., bought 70 butcher cattle, 900 to 1,050 lbs, at $3 35 to $4.

C. Woods bought 25 butcher cattle, 990 to 1,050 lbs, at $3 70 to $4.

C. McCurdy bought a load of mixed butchers, 1,025 lbs, at $3 25.

Wesley Dunn bought 200 sheep and lambs at $4 65; 500 lambs at $6 20, and 50 calves at $7 50 each.

Maybee, Wilson & Hall sold a load of common butchers' cattle, 800 to 1,100 lbs, at $2 05 to $2 75; sold 9 good butchers' heifers, 950 lbs, at $3 75; 3 cows, about 1,200 lbs, at $2 75 to $3 25; 4 steers, total weight 4,700 lbs, at $4; 10 heifers, 950 lbs, at $3 70; 3 heifers, 900 lbs, at $3 65; 3 good heifers, 1,025 lbs, at $3 80; 7 cows, 1,150 lbs, at $2 75; 9 other cows at the same price; 6 good milch cows sold at $45 each, and 2 cows fetched $71 the pair.

Crawford & Co. bought a load of export cattle, 1,400 lbs, at $4 90 and $10 over; a load, 1,390 lbs, at $4 80 and $10 over; a load, 1,300 lbs, at $4 90; a load, 1,280 lbs, at $4 55; 12 bulls at $3 to $3 75.

The run was 74 cars, with 1,130 head of cattle, 1,354 sheep and lambs, 640 hogs and 75 calves.

Butchers—Market easier, except for extra choice; choice picked, $4 to $4 25; fair to good, $3 50 to $3 90; medium, $3 75.

Exporters—Market very quiet; prices from $4 25 to $4 85, and $5 offered for very choice; export bulls, very slow sale, at lower prices.

Stockers—There is inquiry for a few good stockers; market steady, at $3 25 to $3 50 per cwt.

Sheep and Lambs—Market firm; export ewes, $4 50 to $4 75; lambs, $5 50 to $6 40.

Hogs—Market firmer and 20c higher; selects, $5 30; lights and fats, $5 05.

LIVE HOGS.

IF A COUGH makes your nights sleepless and weary, it will worry you a good deal, and with good cause. To dispel the worry and give yourself rest try Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It exerts a soothing influence on the air passages and allays the irritation that leads to inflammation. It will subdue the most stubborn cough or cold, and eventually eradicate it from the system, as a trial of it will prove to you.

VOTE WILL PROVE VERY LARGE ONE

Cold Weather Did Not Keep the Electors at Home Today—Results in 1902.

From the time the polls opened this morning until the hour of going to press, it was evident that the fight between Mr. F. G. Rumball and Mr. Adam Beck was a very warm one. But though the election was warm, the air was very cold, and the outside scrutineers of both parties suffered severely, but this did not hinder them making the greatest efforts to get out the vote.

In all of the subdivisions visited, a heavy vote was reported.

All was quiet in the various subdivisions up till 3 o'clock.

PREVIOUS ELECTIONS.

The following figures taken from The Advertiser's files of 1898 and of 1902, will be found of interest for comparative purposes. The figures may not exactly agree with the official statements, but they are within one or two of the mark:
