Charactar in Medicine.

In medicine, as in every sphere of human action, it is character that tells. Every prescription that Dr A. W. Chase gave to his fellowmen is full of character, full of the honest, sterling character which made the grand old doctor respected, admired and loved by all who knew him. The integrity of Dr. Chase is shown in every one of his famous family medicines.

Drill Sergeant (at the top of his voice)—'When I give the command 'Halt!' you will bring the foot which is on the ground to the side of the one which is in the air, and remain motionless!'

Why Beauty Fades.

Real beauty is rare. It belongs to perfect health. Just as soon as the blood gets thin and watery and the nerves become exhausted beauty fades, wrinkles show themselves, the glow of health disappears and beauty curves give place to leanness and angles. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, the great blood builder and nerve restorative, is woman's greatest blessing from youth to old age. A few weeks use of this treatment will do wonders for any woman who is pale, thin, weak and nervous.

At a teachers' conference in Berlin one of the school principals rose to propose the toast. Long live the teachers.

On what? inquired a meager, pallid young assistant instructor in a hollow voice.

'Why, my dear friend, what luck to meet you! It has been an eternity, six years at least, since I have seen you. Didn't you recognize me?'

'Not exactly, but your hat seemed familiar.'

SPONGE TREATMENT.—'A young housekeeper in one of the suburbs had just succeeded in getting a new cook, who came highly recommended. One day Nora made a sponge cake which was so hard it could not be eaten. The housekeeper said: 'Nora do you call this sponge cake? Why, it's as hard as can be.' 'Yes, mum,' replied the cook calmly. 'That's the way a sponge is before it's wet. Soak it in your tea mum.'

The young man stopped, picked up a coin from the floor of the street car, examined it attentively, and then, 'Has any body lost a five dollar gold piece?' he called in a loud voice.

Instantly the solemn looking man at the other end of the car strode forward, 'Yes, I have lost a five dollar gold piece,' he said, eagerly holding out his hand.

'Well,' said the young man, giving him the coin, 'I'm sorry for you. Here's five cents toward making good your loss.

A certain Irishman was very proud of a huge bulldog he possessed, which was his constant companion. One day a friend met him without the dog, and looking very disconsolate.

'Well,' he asked, 'and how is that dog of yours doing?'

'Oh, he's dead! The illigant baste went and swallowed a tape measure!' 'Oh, I see! He died by inches, then?'

'No, shure he didn't. He went round to the back of the house and died by the yard.'

Winston Churchill, the novelist, described at a dinner in New York, the difference between realism and romanticism in fiction.

'To make my meaning clearer,' Mr. Churchill ended, 'I will take the case of a young man and a girl—sweethearts.'

'The young man, a romanticist, said passionately to his girl: 'Darling it shall be my life's one purpose to surround you with every comfort, and to anticipate and gratify your every wish.'

The girl, a realist, smiled faintly as she answered, 'Oh Jack, how good of you and all on $9 a week, too.'

Cured By the Open Air Treatment.

A remarkable cure of a bad case of consumption by means of the open-air treatment has been recorded in New Brunswick. Charles E. Mollins of Hillsboro, with one lung almost entirely gone and the other one affected, had been given up as lost by his friends, when he went under treatment by Dr. Botsford of Moncton. He built a three roomed shack in the Caledonia Mountains, in Albert County, and for seventeen months, through spring, winter, summer and autumn, he has lived there, in open air continuously. Large windows, on hinges, admitted the air to his room, and at times during the winter, the thermometer in his room registered twenty-five degrees below zero, but he says he enjoyed the cold. He slept from ten to twelve hours a day, and spent the rest of his time in the open air. His diet consisted of milk and eggs, meat, raw beef sandwiches, plenty of potatoes, vegetables, nuts and light puddings. When he first started treatment Mollins' weight was 112 pounds, and to-day he weighs 146 pounds stripped. His chest and body measurements have greatly increased, and at the present time he is enjoying excellent health. During the winter he has taken several long snowshoe tramps without the least fatigue.

Eureka!

YES, I HAVE FOUND IT AT LAST.

Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T. Hard on the Captain.

The captain of a steamer trading off the coast of Africa had a large pet monkey which he usually dressed in a suit of his old clothes and kept in his cabin.

Returning to Queenstown with the pilot on board he had occasion to send the man into the cabin where the monkey was, to get some refreshments.

The pilot, seeing someone dressed in sailor's clothes in the corner of the cabin, remarked: 'Fine weather we're having lately, sir.'

No answer.

He tried once more.

'Wind blows very strong off the land, sir.' Still no answer.

Going up on deck again he remarked to the captain: 'What a quiet old man your father is, sir.'

The News—No Pure Drug Cough Cure Laws would be needed, if all Cough Cures were like Shoop's Cough Cure is—and has been for 20 years. The National Law now requires that if any poisons enter into a cough mixture, it must be printed on the label or package.

For this reason mothers, and others, should insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. No poison-marks on Dr. Shoop's labels—and none in the medicine, else it must by law be on the label.

And it's not only safe, but it is said to be by those that know it best, a truly remarkable cough remedy. Take no chance, particularly with your children. Insist on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Compare carefully the Dr. Shoop package with others and see. No poison marks there! You can always be on the safe side by demanding Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Simply refuse to accept any other. Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr Wm. Henry, of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. 'I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned.' If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. You are certain to be pleased with the relief which it affords. For sale at Rand's Drug Store.

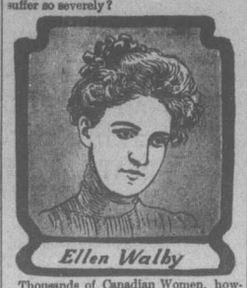
CANADIAN WOMEN FIND RELIEF

The Case of Ellen Walby Is One of Thousands of Cures Made by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

How many women realize that it is not the plan of nature that women should suffer so severely?



Thousands of Canadian Women, however, have found relief from all monthly suffering by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is the most thorough female regulator known to medical science. It cures the condition which causes so much discomfort and robs these periods of their terrors.

Ellen Walby, of Wellington Hotel, Ottawa, Ont. writes:

"Your Vegetable Compound was recommended to me to take for the intense suffering which I endured every month and with which I had been a sufferer for many years getting no relief from the many prescriptions which were prescribed, until, finally becoming discouraged with doctors and their medicines I determined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am glad that I did, for within a short time I began to mend and in an incredible short time the flow was regular, natural and without pain. This seems too good to be true and I am indeed a grateful and happy woman."

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, bloating, (or flatulence), displacement of organs, inflammation or ulceration, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off serious consequences, and be restored to perfect health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and then write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for further free advice. She is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising women free of charge. Thousands have been cured by so doing.

Profitable for the Shoemaker.

A few days back an Irish laborer went to buy a pair of shoes, and, at the same time, he asked the shoemaker if he could tell him what would prevent them from going down on the sides.

The shoe-maker said: 'The only way to prevent it is to change them every morning.'

Pat left the shop after purchasing the pair, and the following morning returned, asked for a pair of shoes, tried them on, and (leaving the pair he bought the day before) was proceeding out of the shop without further notice, when the shoe-maker called him to know what he was doing, telling him at the same time that he had forgotten to pay for the shoes he had just bought.

'And is it what am I doing, you ask? Am I not doing what you told me yesterday—changing my shoes every morning?'

Growing Old Before Your Time.

Broken in spirit, weak in body, nervous and discouraged. Something is wrong, and each day sees you failing away. Just one thing to do—Build up. To do this, use Ferrozone. What a tonic it is! Appetite, why it makes you eat tremendously. Digest, indeed you will. Rich red blood will carry nourishment to every corner of the body, tired organs take on new life, color, spirit and ambition are restored. Perfect manhood and abounding health is the unfailing product of Ferrozone—try it, 50c. per box everywhere.

Starting Life on the Farm.

Country life has its drawbacks, but it has great advantages which overcome them. True, those who live in the country are 'Rubes' and 'farmers' and 'hayseeds' to the cigarette smokers in town, but the boast of business men in the world to-day is that they were born on a farm. Take away the surrounding evils that beset the young men or women on the threshold of life's journey in the city, and substitute the helpful influence of nature, and you fortify them for the sterner walks of life. The few things they do not know about table etiquette, and when it is proper to leave two visiting cards and when but one, they will catch onto much quicker than city boys or girls will learn to properly stoke the furnace or make good bread. No boy or girl need be ashamed of living on a farm, for if they have taken advantage of what it has offered they are well fortified for after life.—Caledonia Banner.

A Suggestion of Rare Value.

A diseased condition of the surfaces of the air passages causes bad breath, but more commonly emanates from indigestion or an impure condition of the blood. Thousands of cases prove that Dr. Hamilton's Pills through their specific action on the secretory and eliminative organs, not only cure bad breath, but so thoroughly purify the system that anything suggestive of blood or digestive troubles is impossible. Through Dr. Hamilton's Pills the skin grows rosy and clear, activity of the body and mind increases, and bounding health is established. Sold everywhere in 25c. boxes.

Catarrh
To prove unquestionably, and beyond any doubt, that Catarrh of the nose and throat can be cured, I am furnishing patients through druggists, small free Trial Boxes of Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure. I do this because I am so certain, that Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure will bring actual substantial help. Nothing certainly, is so convincing as a physical test of any article of real, genuine merit. But that article must possess true merit, else the test will condemn, rather than advance it. Dr. Shoop's Catarrh Cure is a snow white, healing antiseptic balm, put up in beautiful nickel capped glass jars at 50c. Such soothing agents as Oil Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, etc., are incorporated into a velvety, cream like Petrolatum, imported by Dr. Shoop from Europe. If Catarrh of the nose and throat has extended to the stomach, then by all means also use internally, Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Stomach distress, a lack of general strength, bloating, belching, biliousness, bad taste, etc., surely call for Dr. Shoop's Restorative.
For uncomplicated catarrh only of the nose and throat nothing else, however, need be used but

A Memory.

The fire upon the hearth is low,
And there is stillness everywhere:
Like troubled spirits, here and there
The firelight shadows round me creep,
A childish treble breaks the gloom,
And softly from a farther room
Comes, 'Now I lay me down to sleep.'

And somehow with that little prayer,
And that sweet treble in my ears,
My thought goes back to distant years
And lingers with a dear one there;
Again I hear the child's Amen,
My mother's face comes back to me;
Crouched at her side I seem to be,
And mother holds my hands again.

O, for an hour in that dear place!
O, for the peace of that dear time!
O, for that childish trust sublime!
Oh, for a glimpse of mother's face!
Yet as the shadows round me creep,
I do not seem to be alone—
Sweet magic of that treble tone—
And 'now I lay me down to sleep.'

—Eugene Field.

A Father's Responsibility.

From one of Gipsy Smith's addresses:

'On the other side of the ocean, just before I left home last September, a mother suddenly came into the room where there was a little boy six or seven years old and found that little boy trying to kill a baby two years old with the scissors, and she said to the child, 'What are you doing?' and he said, 'I want to kill him.' It frightened the mother and she talked to the father about it, and the father took him to a doctor, and he took him to a specialist, and that specialist was my friend. He examined the child thoroughly and said to him, 'Why do you want to kill the baby, it does not hurt you?' And the boy replied, 'I want to kill somebody all the time.' The doctor turned to the father and said, 'Are you a drinking man?' The father said, 'Well, I do drink, it is true, but I don't often drink to excess.' The doctor replied, 'Well, you drink. That boy will kill somebody some day. It is in his blood, and your drinking habit is the cause of it.' You reap what you sow. Don't forget it. You are passing on what you are to the next generation, and God Almighty will hold some of you men responsible for bringing into the world assassins, murderers and cutthroats. Don't forget it. What we sow we shall reap.'

Twenty Reasons for Opposing the Saloon.

1. It never builds up manhood, but tears it down.
2. It never beautifies the home, but often wrecks it.
3. It never increases one's usefulness, but lessens it.
4. It never allays the passions, but inflames them.
5. It never stills the tongue of slander, but loosens it.
6. It never promotes purity of thought, but poisons it.
7. It never empties almshouses and prisons, but fills them.
8. It never protects the ballot box, but defiles it.
9. It never makes happy families, but miserable ones.
10. It never prompts the right doing in anything, but to wrong.
11. It never prepares one for Heaven, but for Hell.
12. It never diminishes taxes (with all its revenue), but increases them.
13. It never renders the Sabbath quiet, but desecrates it.
14. It never protects our property nor personal safety, but endangers them.
15. It never helps one to get a good insurance policy on his life, but militates against it.
16. It never creates ambition and thrift, but invites laziness, profligacy, poverty, idleness and crime.
17. It never builds up the church, but peoples the station houses, prisons and chain-gangs.
18. It never refines character nor promotes Christian grace, but is a destroyer of the soul.
19. It never teaches honesty and uprightness, but invites the incendiary to apply the midnight torch.
20. It never protects a man, but robs him of his money, his family happiness, his good name, his hopes, and all endearments of life.—Selected

The Indian Chief and the Firewater.

A missionary who was working among the North American Indians, after holding a service, attended a council which was being held. He spoke very plainly of the evils which intoxicating liquor—fire water—had brought to them. The head chief of the band sometimes indulged in fire-water, and being a cunning orator, he arose, and said:

'You said to-day that the Great Spirit made the world, and all things in the world. If He did He made the fire-water. Surely He will not be angry with His red children for drinking a little of what He made!'

The missionary answered: 'My red brother is a wise chief, but wise men sometimes say foolish things.' The Great Spirit did not make fire-water. If my brother can show me a brook of fire-water, I will drink of it with him. The Great Spirit made the corn and the wheat, and put them into that which makes a man strong. The devil showed the white man how to change the good food of God into what will make a man crazy.'

All the members of the council shouted 'Ho! ho! ho!' And the chief was silenced.—'Christian Age.'

Fatigue From Poisons in System.

Tired, languid feelings are the result of the accumulation of waste products in the system. On the failure of the liver and kidneys to remove these impurities the blood becomes filled with poisonous substances which instead of aiding the functions tend to arrest them and give rise to pains in the limbs, backaches, headaches and tired, worn-out feelings.

There remains to be discovered a more prompt and effective means of enlivening and invigorating the action of the liver and kidneys than Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. In fact this medicine is unique in its combined influence on the liver and kidneys and to this double action is attributed its extraordinary success in the cure of complicated diseases of these filtering organs.

Biliousness, headaches, indigestion, kidney disease and constipation are promptly and thoroughly cured by Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and the whole system is cleansed of the foul impurities which result in disease and suffering.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked—Mrs Sarah A. Cole, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale at Rand's Drug Store.
