A MOTION TO COMMIT.

Mr. Prentice's Counsel Initiate Extraordinary Proceeding in an Election Trial.

Proposal to Commit Messrs. Ellis and Lugrin for Discussing East Lillooet Case.

The following notice of motion and affidavits were served upon Messrs. W. H. Ellis and C. H. Lugrin yesterday. Other affidavits accompanied them, but these are all that are material:

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Court for the trial of election petition for the East Riding of Lillooet district.

The Provincial Elections Act, and the Provincial Elections Act Amendment Act of 1898.

Election for the East Riding of Lillooet district.

Between David Alexander Stoddart, petitioner, and James Douglas Prentice, respondent.

And in the matter of W. H. Ellis, of the city of Victoria, in the province of British Columbia, manager of the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability.

And in the matter of C. S. Lugrin, of the city of Victoria, in the province of British Columbia, editor of the Daily Colonist, a newspaper.

Take notice that this honorable court will be moved on Wednesday, the 30th day of November, 1898, at the hour of 10:30 o'clock in the forenoon, or so soon thereafter as counsel can be heard, by counsel on behalf of the above named respondent, James Douglas Prentice, for an order that W. H. Ellis, the manager of the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability, and C. H. Lugrin, the editor of the Daily Colonist, a newspaper, and each of them, may be committed to the common gaol of the county in which they and each of them may be found, on the ground that the said W. H. Ellis and C. H. Lugrin which the proceedings in this petition were are still pending and while a certain application to strike out the said petition was and is still pending, have been guilty of contempt of this honorable court, and for their and each of their contempt of court in writing and publishing and procuring to be published in the issues of the Daily Colonist of Saturday, the 22nd day of October, 1898, Thursday, the 17th day of November, 1898, and Tuesday, the 22nd day of November, 1898, articles commenting upon the proceedings herein, and which are and were intended and calculated to scandalize this honorable court, and to prejudice or interfere with the fair trial of the petition herein, and which said comments were and are intended by means of calumniating the Honorable Mr. Justice Martin, one of the judges of this honorable court, to deter the Honorable Mr. Justice Martin, one of the judges of this honorable court, from hearing or determining any questions arising herein, and from determining the questions now pending before him for determination herein; and that all necessary attachments may be issued for that purpose, and for an order that the said W. H. Ellis and C. H. Lugrin do pay the costs of this application, or for such future order as to the said court may seem just.

And take notice that upon such application will be read the affidavits of James H. Lawson, jr., Charles E. Wilson and Henry Graham Lawson, all filed and sworn herein, the 26th day of November, 1898, and the exhibits therein referred to.

Dated this 25th day of November, 1898.

L. P. DUFF,
Of No. 2 Broughton street, Victoria, B. C., agent for the above named respondent herein.

To W. H. Ellis, Esq., of the city of Victoria.

To C. H. Lugrin, Esq., of the city of Victoria.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Court for the trial of election petition for the East Riding of Lillooet district.

The Provincial Elections Act, and the Provincial Elections Act Amendment Act of 1898.

Election for the East Riding of Lillooet district.

Between David Alexander Stoddart, petitioner, and James Douglas Prentice, respondent.

And in the matter of W. H. Ellis, of the city of Victoria, in the province of British Columbia, manager of the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability.

And in the matter of C. H. Lugrin, of the city of Victoria, in the province of British Columbia, editor of the Daily Colonist, a newspaper.

I, Henry Graham Lawson, of the city of Victoria, province of British Columbia, student-at-law, make oath and say:

1. I am a clerk in the office of Messrs. Bodwell & Duff, of which firm Mr. L. P. Duff is agent for the above named respondent, James Douglas Prentice, herein.

2. That I did on Wednesday, the 23rd day of November, 1898, attend at the office of the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability, Broad street, Victoria, being the place where the newspaper, The Daily Colonist, is published and published, and there bought from a clerk in the office of the said Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability, a copy of the Daily Colonist newspaper of the 22nd day of October, 1898, containing an article in the following words:

"An embarrassment, common to every political appointee to a judgship, was experienced by Mr. Martin yesterday. He did not feel like hearing a motion in an election case, because he had taken an active part in the election. The feeling is natural, but unless the judge was an agent for a candidate in the case he is not disqualified, and even then he would be disqualified only as to that case. If the election cases are to come to trial, and, anyway, in view of the probability of the preliminary points coming before the Full court of appeal, Judge Martin will have to devote his spare moments to schooling himself into forgetfulness of his political career." Which said copy of the Daily Colonist newspaper is now shown to me and marked Exhibit "A" to this, my affidavit.

3. That I did at the time aforesaid, attend at the place aforesaid, and there bought from the said clerk a copy of the Daily Colonist newspaper of the 17th day of November, 1898, containing an article in the following words:

"THE ELECTION PROTESTS."

"The election protests are pretty well disposed of numerically, but enough remain unsettled to determine the complexion of the legislature. The certain loss of the seat for Lillooet by Mr. Prentice offsets the success of Mr. Higgins in Esquimalt. There seems to be very little doubt that the seat for North Yale will be given to Mr. G. B. Martin on a recount, and those who are able to form an opinion say that Mr. Booth has nothing to fear from the proceedings instituted to vacate his seat. Pending the determination of the Esquimalt case, the Colonist said that the government might find itself in a minority of four, and at best they seem likely to be in at least a minority of two, which would mean that after they had elected a speaker, supposing that the opposition will permit them to organize the house, they would be defeated by three votes on the address. Speaking from its own point of view, and without desiring to be understood as expressing the decision of its political friends, the Colonist thinks it would be good policy on the part of the opposition to force the fighting from the very start. If Mr. Semlin is unable to organize the house, it will be a clear constitutional intimation to the Lieutenant-Governor that he was not warranted in asking Mr. Turner for his resignation, and it would be his duty to send for that gentleman and entrust him with the formation of a new government. It must be borne in mind that the present house is fresh from the people, and, therefore, if Mr. Semlin has not a majority in it, he has no claim to be allowed a dissolution, but it would become the duty of the Lieutenant-Governor to see if any other gentleman is in a position to carry on the government without a new election." Which said copy of the Daily Colonist newspaper is now shown to me and marked Exhibit "B" to this my affidavit.

4. That I did at the time mentioned in paragraph 2 of this my affidavit, attend at the place mentioned in said paragraph 2 and 3, bought from the said clerk of the Daily Colonist newspaper of the 22nd day of November, 1898, containing an article in the following words:

"A JUDICIAL ANOMALY."

"The Colonist does not desire to say anything calculated to reflect upon the judiciary of the province, either collectively or individually, but it cannot help thinking that the spectacle just presented of election cases being disposed of by a judge who was an active partisan in the recent contest is not edifying. We are far from desiring to intimate that Judge Martin will not endeavor to disabuse his mind of any political prejudices, or that he will not succeed in doing so. We do not venture to suggest that he will make any decision in any matter which he ought not to have made, or which any judge in the world would not arrive at under the same state of facts and law. The reference is solely to the public aspect of the matter. Judge Martin was a very active partisan during the late election. He had a perfect right to be so. This does not disqualify him in any way from sitting as a judge in the election cases. We mean, of course, legally disqualifying him. But his sitting in that capacity does not produce a good impression upon the public mind, and it would be very much better if he could see his way clear to permitting other members of the bench to take such cases. In making this observation, the Colonist repeats that it fully admits that Judge Martin will undoubtedly exercise his judicial functions without any desire to favor either one party or the other." Which said copy of the Daily Colonist newspaper is now shown to me and marked Exhibit "C" to this my affidavit.

H. G. LAWSON.

Sworn at the city of Victoria, province of British Columbia, the 25th day of November A.D. 1898, before me,

C. K. COURTNEY,
A commissioner for taking affidavits to be used in the Supreme court of British Columbia.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

Court for the trial of election petition for the East Riding of Lillooet district.

The Provincial Elections Act, and the Provincial Elections Act Amendment Act of 1898.

Election for the East Riding of Lillooet district.

Between Davil Alexander Stoddart, petitioner, and James Douglas Prentice, respondent.

And in the matter of W. H. Ellis, of the city of Victoria, in the province of British Columbia, manager of the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability.

And in the matter of C. S. Lugrin, of the city of Victoria, in the province of British Columbia, editor of the Daily Colonist, a newspaper.

I, James Hill Lawson, the younger, of the city of Victoria, province of British Columbia, solicitor, make oath and say:

1. I am a member of the firm of Bodwell & Duff, of which firm Mr. L. P. Duff, the agent for the above named respondent, James Douglas Prentice, in this matter, is also a member.

2. That the matter in which my affidavit is made is pending in this honorable court, having been commenced by a petition presented to this honorable court on the 3rd day of August, 1898, the prayer of which petition is as follows:

"That it may be determined that the said James Douglas Prentice was not duly qualified for election as a member of the legislature of the province of British Columbia, and was not duly elected or returned, and that the election of the said James Douglas Prentice was void, and that your petitioner was duly elected and ought to have been returned."

The paper writing now shown to me and marked Exhibit "A" is a true copy of the said petition.

3. On the 18th day of October, 1898, a chamber summons was taken out herein on behalf of the respondent, James Douglas Prentice, to have the said petition, the service thereof and all proceedings thereunder struck off the files of this honorable court and set aside on the grounds set forth in the said summons, which summons is now shown to me and marked Exhibit "B."

4. The said summons was returnable to the chamber court at the Law courts, Bastion Square, Victoria, B. C., on Friday, the 28th day of October, 1898, at 10:30 a.m., but was from time to time adjourned until the 18th day of November, 1898, when it was heard and argued before the Hon. Mr. Justice Martin. Upon the conclusion of the argument, judgment was reserved, and which judgment has not yet been given.

5. That the said application herein is the only matter connected with any election petition now pending, and was on the 22nd of November, 1898, the only matter connected with any election petition then pending before the Hon. Mr. Justice Martin, as I am informed by the master herein and verily believe.

6. That the election petition respecting the Esquimalt election was disposed of by the Hon. Mr. Justice Irving on the 14th day of November, 1898.

7. That certain other election petitions, as I verily believe, were disposed of before the Hon. Mr. Justice Martin on the 16th day of November, 1898, neither side calling any evidence, and the petition being dismissed on unopposed motions by the respondents herein. The only election petitions now pending are the petition herein and two others.

8. Now shown to me and marked respectively Exhibits "C" and "D" are a true copy of the affidavit of C. H. Lugrin and an affidavit of W. H. Ellis, both filed in the Supreme court of British Columbia, between the Nest Egg Mining Company, Limited Liability, Arthur Richard Wolfenden, and the Nest Egg & Firefly Gold Mining Company, Limited Liability, as plaintiffs, and the Canadian Rand Drill Company, F. R. Mendenhall and H. E. Lippmann, as defendants. And in the matter of W. H. Ellis, of the city of Victoria, in the province of British Columbia, manager of the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability; and in the matter of C. H. Lugrin, of the city of Victoria, in the province of British Columbia, editor of the Daily Colonist newspaper.

9. I verily believe that the said C. H. Lugrin is now, and has been since the 29th of March, 1898, the editor of the Daily Colonist newspaper.

10. Now shown to me and marked Exhibits "C" and "D" to this my affidavit, are a true copy of the Daily Colonist newspaper of the 22nd of October, 1898, and the 22nd of November, 1898, which both contain a statement that the said Daily Colonist newspaper is published every day, except Monday, by the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability, of which company W. H. Ellis is the manager.

11. From the information obtained as set out in the previous paragraph, and this my affidavit, I verily believe that W. H. Ellis is now, and has been continually since the 21st day of October, 1898, manager of the Colonist Printing & Publishing Company, Limited Liability.

12. The Daily Colonist newspaper aforesaid has been for some years engaged in advocating the cause of the party in provincial politics in this province of which the petitioner herein is a member.

13. That respondent has for some years past been an active politician and actively engaged in the support of the party in provincial politics to which the said Daily Colonist is opposed, as I am informed and verily believe.

14. It is a matter of general knowledge that the respondent herein is a supporter of the present government of this province, and it is also a matter of general knowledge that the majority which the said government can command in the present legislative assembly as the members now stand, is an exceedingly small one, and if the petition herein should succeed and the petitioner should gain the seat, which is now held by the respondent, by means of the petition and the subsequent election, the said majority will be diminished by two; and the determination of this petition and the questions arising in respect of the same is therefore a matter of great importance and of the keenest interest to all persons who are interested in party politics.

JAMES H. LAWSON.

Sworn at the city of Victoria, province of British Columbia, this 25th day of November A.D. 1898, before me,

C. K. COURTNEY,
A commissioner for taking affidavits to be used in the Supreme court of British Columbia.

THE RIFLE MATCHES.

High Scoring Made at Clover Point Range on Thanksgiving Day.

Exceptionally Large Number of Entries—A Very Unsuitable Range.

Many congratulations have been extended to the committee of the Fifth Regiment Rifle Association on the shooting Thanksgiving Day, for the scoring was exceptionally good. There were 135 entries for the shoot, a number altogether beyond the proper capacity of the range, demonstrating again the necessity for a new one. There are now 250 classified shots in the association. The day proved a splendid one. Light showers fell at intervals but at no time was there more than four degrees windage allowed. There were present among the marksmen civilians and representatives of the Navy, R.M.A., Engineers and militia. The R.M.A. provided the scorers and the battalion the markers.
