Saturday's Game.

Detroit, Aug. 29.—In the first inning of yesterday's game with the New York Highlanders, the Tigers made four hits off Warhop and scored two runs. It was an enthusiastic beginning of what promised to be as loose a performance as that of Friday, but just the opposite happened, and after the opening round, the Champions took nothing with the delivery of the Yankee right-hander, and they had difficulty in holding off the Highlanders and bagging a 2 to 1 victory, the tenth in succession. SAINTS AND ACADIANS SPRINGBANK WINNERS

Y. M. C. A. Players Were Off-Color in the First Match and Lost 13 to 3—Score of Second Game 7 to 2.

The first game in the Springbank League Saturday was altogether too one-sided to be an interesting exhibition. The issue was hardly in doubt after the first few innings of the game. The Y. M. C. A. was distinctly off color; that is the kindest thing that can be said of them.

Wright, who pitched for the "Y," was very wild, and when he did get one over the St. Johns had no difficulty in getting to him.

A Lopsided Score.

The result was that in the six innings they had piled up 13 runs and had yet an inning to spare, while the best the "Y" could do was three runs.

The St. Johns were playing in remarkably good form, and would doubtless have done even better against a stronger team, as they were inclined to get careless at times.

The score by innings:

Y. M. C. A. 0 0 1 0 0 2 0—3
St. Johns 3 0 4 2 1 3 *—13

The lineups:

St. Johns—Parkinson, 2b.; Phalen, 1b.; Walden, s.s.; Legg, l. f.; Gibson, 3b.; McIntyre, c. f.; Stinson, c.; Mallen r. f.; Richardson, p.

THE SECOND GAME.

The second game was a somewhat better exhibition, and there was some good play. If anything the Acadians had the advantage of the play, though it was fairly even.

Meldrum opened matters for the Acadians in the first by scoring on a pass ball.

The Greys soon evened things, however, a sacrifice hit scoring E. O'Rourke. Nichols was passed to first by being struck by the pitcher in the fourth, and a bit of ragged play enabled him to make home.

In the sixth Meldrum made a great catch of a long hit to left, which won him a round of applause.

The score remained unchanged until the seventh, when things came the way of the Acadians. Orr opened the inning with a sure two-bagger, scoring Wier. A little later Moore also added a safe two-bagger, scoring Lee and Draper.

The same story was continued in the ninth. Harding's safe hit scored Draper and Meldrum, and Wier scored Harding by a nice safe hit.

Some Heavy Batting.

In the last few innings the Acadians were hitting Clarke readily, while Carson held his men down fairly successfully throughout.

The game closed Greys 2, Acadians 7, with an inning to spare.

The score by innings:

Greys 0 0 1 1 0 0 0 0 0—2
Acadians 0 1 0 0 0 0 2 3 *—7

The lineups:

E. O'Rourke, s.s.; W. Murray, 2b.; Stephenson, r. f.; F. Murray, 1b.; Hardy, 3b.; R. Nichols, c. f.; B. W. O'Rourke, c.; Clarke, p.; Orr, l. f.

SULLIVAN AND MANTEL ARE MATCHED.

San Francisco, Aug. 30—Frank Mantel, of Providence, and Jack Twin Sullivan, of Boston, have been matched to fight at a local club house on Sept. 6. The bout will be for 20 rounds at 158 pounds.

NATIONAL'S BEST FIRST SACKER A "ROOKIE" FOUND BY GRIFFITH

"The best little first-sacker in the National League," is the way critics around the old organization are referring to Dick Hoblitzel, guardian of Cincinnati's initial sack, these days. And Hoblitzel has it coming to him all right, judging from the way he has been scorching the diamonds.

Not only does Hoblitzel field like a Hal Chase, and run the bases well, but his batting average has been kiting like a heron chased by a falcon of late, and he now leads the league in long distance hitting, having, with Mike Mitchell, also a Red, relegated Hans Wagner to third place as a compiler of extra base hits.

The funny part of it is that Hoblitzel did not show any medal-winning capabilities as a hitter last season, when he was with Wheeling in the Central League.

COVERPOINT JOLTS

The Stars have been shut out two Saturdays in a row, showing that the team is away off in its hitting. Isshy Clark pitched one of his good games on Saturday—the kind he has been showing lately, and as a result his team looks good. There will be some good games before the season is out.

* * *

There may be some interest over Harriman's condition, but the big question in London at present is: How are the Pirates and Tigers doing? The interest in these two teams is the greatest in many years, and is now spreading to the smaller towns.

* * *

The Suicide Club met at Brighton Beach for a 24-hour grind. As they have killed only two men, the meet was not nearly so successful as that recently held in Indianapolis. Keep on killing them, to show that an automobile can go round a corner at 90 miles an hour.

* * *

The Tigers have now won eleven games in a row—one from Chicago, four from Washington, three from Philadelphia, and three from the Highlanders. They still have a chance to even up on dear old Bawsting, and if they whale the Speed Boys three or four in a row all will be forgiven. W. Bill Donovan is pitching well, and that means something.

* * *

Iron Man McGinnity, just to show that he is not cheating on the moniker, pitched two games the other afternoon and won both of them.

* * *

Joe Kelley is getting his team going nicely, and will finish in the first division with them—rather a feat with such a bunch as he had to start the season with.

* * *

The trotters and pacers will start this week, Readville being the centre of attraction. The Eel and several others will start, and there should be some excitement.
