KENNEL.

A DEAR DOG.

New York, Jan. 23.—Frank Gould has just imported a new St. Bernard dog from England, which has been added to his $75,000 kennel of St. Bernards at Lyndhurst. The new prize is named Kingstonian Golf, and according to Walter Johnston, the kennel master, he is the largest dog of his class in this country. He weighs 238 pounds, and cost $5,000. Kingstonian Golf's ancestors were all champions of their day up to a century ago, and won many first prizes. His father was Hornsea Guideas, the $10,000 champion of England, and his mother was Chantelece Queen, a large prize winner.

FISTIC.

A FOUL.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 23.—At the Olympic A. C. last night, Joe Youngs, of Buffalo, was given the decision over Tom Couhig, of Dunkirk, in the sixth round, Couhig having delivered a foul blow. Youngs was badly injured, and a physician had to be called.

HOCKEY.

AT COBOURG.

In the O. H. A. match last night, Peterboro defeated the home team 5 to 2.

AT KINGSTON.

There was a double-header in the O. H. A. hockey championship games here last night. The introductory match between Cadets I. and Frontenacs I. was won by the Frontenacs by 3 to 0.

The second event was between Queen's I. and Cadets I. Queen's easily defeated their military opponents 11 to 2.

AT CORNWALL.

Cornwall defeated Iroquois last night in the second match of the O. H. A. by 8 to 6. The result leaves Iroquois in the lead of Cornwall by 1 goal.

A TIE GAME.

Another game of the city league championship series was played at the Jubilee Rink last night, and was witnessed by a couple of hundred persons. The opposing teams were the Jubilees and the Military School players, and the game, which was keenly contested, ended in a tie, by a score of 7 to 7.

STRONG NERVES

Are Sure Indications of Good Health and Vigor.

Paine's Celery Compound

Builds Up the Nerves, Flesh, Bones and Muscles.

It Is a Boon to Men and Women of All Ranks and Conditions.

The Ablest Physicians Recommend Paine's Celery Compound.

Well braced and steady nerves, strength of body and a vigorous constitution are bestowed without fail by Paine's Celery Compound on all men and women who are run-down, weak, nervous and sleepless.

While the great majority of medicines tend to lower vitality and weaken the system, Paine's Celery Compound commences to impart strength from the first dose. The nerves and muscles are fortified, the blood is made pure and rich, and flesh is built up. These improved conditions give regular action to the stomach, liver and kidneys.

Sweet sleep, perfect appetite, sound health and long years will be your portion after being made well by Paine's Celery Compound. Ask your druggist for "Paine's;" never take a substitute.

Charles Hensley, Halifax, N. S., has received a cable from the war office stating that his son, Capt. A. Hensley, Dublin Fusiliers, who was wounded on Jan. 20, had died. He was about 32 years old.

FAGGED OUT.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength has gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Pharmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills.

ISAAC DOWNIE NOT GUILTY

Was Charged With Rioting and Stone-Throwing on July 8—W. H. Tarling Pleads Guilty.

At the sessions of the peace yesterday afternoon Isaac Downie pleaded not guilty to rioting and stone-throwing on July 8 last. The jury after being out about 25 minutes returned a verdict of not guilty. Judge Elliott charged strongly against the defendant in his address to the jurors.

P. C. McDonald, sworn, said he was on duty on the day of the trouble at the corner of Dundas and Lyle streets. He said the defendant was in the crowd between 6 and 7 o'clock, and deliberately threw a missile through a car window. He heard the defendant say nothing, and could not get near enough to him to ask him his name that night. He learned it later on inquiry at the Globe casket works, where the defendant is employed. Cross-examined by Mr. Buchner, witness stated that Downie gave him his name freely when he asked for it. He (McDonald) did not report the case for several days after the occurrence.

P. C. Woolway, who also was on duty at the scene of the trouble, said he saw the defendant throw three missiles at the cars, which were being taken to the barns. Witness was only about fifteen feet from the defendant at the time the stones were thrown, and had not the slightest doubt that Downie was the man. The stone-throwing occurred between 6:30 and 7 o'clock.

James Johnston, the first witness for the defense, had to be carried into the court room on a stretcher, having been injured in a street railway accident at the corner of Central avenue and Adelaide street several months ago. He was in the crowd near the car barns, and saw the defendant Downie on the south side of Dundas street, near Lyle. Downie said to him: "It's a pity to see this stone-throwing. They might kill somebody." This was about eighteen minutes past 6, and the defendant did not leave him until shortly after 7 o'clock. He was positive that Downie threw no stones during that time.

Wesley McBride, foreman in the finishing department of the Globe casket works, saw Downie standing at the corner of Lyle and Dundas streets, talking to an elderly gentleman, whom he did not know. This was about 6:35. He saw the defendant throw no stones while he was there.

Leonard Harvey met the defendant at the corner of Elizabeth street on the night in question, at about 6:40. He stood and chatted with him until his (Harvey's) wife came up and said: "When are you coming home to supper? It is 7 o'clock." Witness then left for home with his wife, and the defendant accompanied them up Elizabeth street as far as Lorne avenue. He would swear positively that Downie threw no stones while in his company.

The defendant, Isaac Downie, sworn, said he worked on the afternoon of the riots until 6 o'clock. He left the casket works shortly after 6 o'clock, and went in an easterly direction. On arriving at the corner of Lyle and Dundas streets he met Mr. Johnston, and stopped talking to him about half an hour. He left Mr. Johnston to go over and talk to Mr. Harvey. Witness' story from that time corroborated the story told by Harvey. He denied having thrown a stone at the street cars at any time.

Norman McLeod, grocer, East London, testified to the good character of the defendant. He had known him for eight years.

Robert Watson, manager of the Globe casket works, stated that during the eight years the defendant had been in the company's employ, he had always found him trustworthy. He could always rely on anything the defendant said.

W. H. Tarling pleaded guilty to rioting, and was bailed to appear on Jan. 31 for sentence.

Middlesex Notes.

The hustling village of Lucan now enjoys the luxury of electric lights, for which the enterprise of the councilors and Cook Bros., of Hensall, who installed the plant and worked up the business, can be thanked. Everything is running smoothly, the power being furnished from Hawkshaw & Wray's mill. It is the very thing that was wanted in the place.

Cook Bros. have lately installed plants in St. Joseph and Zurich, where the lights are giving splendid satisfaction. In each case the lights run till midnight.

The annual meeting of the Strathroy Horticultural Society was held at the American Hotel there on Wednesday evening, a good attendance being present. The chair was occupied by Mr. W. J. Johnston, and Mr. F. W. Atkinson acted as secretary. The election of officers and directors resulted as follows: President, Thomas Luscombe; vice-president, F. W. Atkinson; secretary, James H. Lee; treasurer, H. McColl; auditors, R. P. Smith, Charles Grist; directors, John A. Anderson, Thomas Benstead, Chas. Beckett, H. Gooderham, J. W. Prangley, D. Patterson, John Robertson, R. F. Richardson and W. A. Shaw.

BOARD OF HEALTH

Ex-Ald. Taylor Re-Elected Chairman—The Board's First Meeting.

The inaugural meeting of the board of health last night occupied only a few minutes. All the members—Messrs. Chas. Taylor, Samuel Stevely, Robert Pritchard, Wm. Skinner, Ald. Douglass, Dr. Cl. T. Campbell, Mayor Rumball, Secretary Bell, Inspector Bell, Medical Health Officer Dr. Hutchinson were present. Dr. Campbell moved, and Ald. Douglass seconded that Mr. Charles Taylor be re-elected as chairman of the board, and this was done unanimously.

Samuel Stevely and Dr. Campbell were appointed members of the sewer committee.

Attention was called by Dr. Hutchinson to the unsanitary state of the Market Square closets, and the matter will be considered by a committee.

W. J. Pennington complained of a gully-hole on Hyman street, and a committee will investigate.

The board will meet at the call of the chairman.

DESPONDENT MEN

Find new hope and fresh energy in Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

The care and worry, the anxiety and activity of business life constitute a serious drain on the nervous system.

The business of this work-a-day world goes with such a rush that iron nerves even break down under the strain.

Men who want their brains bright and clear and all their energies alive should take Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills on the first approach of a nerve break down. The reconstructive power of these pills on the nerve centres is simply marvellous. They induce sleep, restore vitality and vigor, and give new life to the mental and physical forces.

Middle aged men and men advanced in years are specially benefited by this remedy.

Mr. H. Hancock, of Hancock & Sadler, of the popular Iroquois Hotel, Galt, Ont., made the following statement: "I heartily recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills to anyone needing a tonic for the nerves or requiring a medicine to build up the system when it becomes weakened and run down by too close application to business. I found the pills were just the medicine for my trouble. In fact after taking three boxes I felt so much better that now I would not be without them.

When I feel tired and worn out I take these valuable pills and find they recoup my nervous and physical strength. They seem to furnish just the elements required for reconstructing nerve tissue."

TINY TIM.

How many of us have spent a delicious hour with Dickens' little "Tiny Tim." He pleased us because he was for ever helping, or ready to help some unfortunate.

Dr. Hope's TINY TABLETS are doing exactly the same thing. They are helping thousands of unfortunate nervous, broken-down people to get strong.

One little TINY TABLET after each meal and before retiring will give you new life. If you feel tired —IT'S NERVES.
