Public Amusements

Aubrey Boucicault.

Aubrey Boucicault, the Paolo in Otis Skinner's production of "Francesca da Rimini," which will be seen at the Princess to-night, has had a varied experience for so young an actor. He is the youngest son of the late Dion Boucicault and Agnes Robertson. He played in comic opera with Camille D'Arville one season, in his father's Irish plays the next season, and, last year, he appeared in three important roles that would test any actor's versatility—King Charles in "Nell Gwynn," Vinicius in "Quo Vadis," and Bassanio in Nat Goodwin's revival of "The Merchant of Venice." The opening presentation to-night will be given before a crowded house.

"Bonnie Brier Bush" Back.

"The Bonnie Brier Bush," with the favorite old actor, J. H. Stoddart, in the stellar role, will be again seen at the Princess Theatre on Monday evening next. This could scarcely be classed as a dramatized novel. While, of course, the chief interest of the story centres in Lachlan Campbell, the role assumed by Mr. Stoddart, still, during its previous Toronto engagement, the play proved itself to be evenly balanced in every way, and, therefore, worthy of the capable support with which Mr. Stoddart has surrounded himself. The sale for the engagement opens at the Princess this morning.

Trick Spectacle at the Grand.

So extraordinary and massive are some of the mechanical devices in Charles H. Yale and Sidney R. Ellis' newest piece, "The Evil Eye," which comes to the Grand next week, that duplicate portions of the machinery are necessary in order to present the same. Some of the scenes, which are known as "trick sets," require eight hours to prepare, and, in order to have these sets complete, a special corps of stage machinists are always sent to any city 24 hours in advance of the show, to take possession of the stage upon which the presentation is to be made, in order that no possible hitch can occur in the production of the spectacle. Two special cars will be required to bring the scenic effects used by the company to this city, and every opportunity for a splendid display of it will be afforded on the stage of the Grand.

"On the Stroke of Twelve" Coming.

"On the Stroke of Twelve," the interesting comedy-drama, which Whitaker & Lawrence are managing with signal success this season, is a positive novelty in stage productions. The characters are all powerfully drawn and the situations are thrilling in the extreme. The scenery is carried complete, and the company are a strong factor in the success of the play. It will be presented all next week at the Toronto Opera House.

"Michael Strogoff" at Shea's.

"Men and Women," which is produced by the Shea Stock Company this week, belongs to the famous David Belasco and Henry C. DeMille plays, which have been so successful that they are considered among the very best plays of American life. "Michael Strogoff," which is the title of a thrilling Russian melodrama, will be presented by the Shea Stock Company next week. There are seven scenes, and every one has sufficient action and interest to make an entire play. "Michael Strogoff" was dramatized by D'Ennery from Jules Verne's novel of the same name. The hero starts on a perilous trip to save a city from the Tartars. He is captured, blinded, loses his mother and sweetheart, but eventually succeeds in his mission, and is reunited to his dear ones and recovers his sight. "Michael Strogoff" is probably one of the most thrilling melodramas on the stage to-day.

At Massey Hall.

A most delightful evening is promised for everyone who hears Dr. W. H. Drummond at Massey Music Hall on Thursday of next week. In addition to being a poet, Dr. Drummond has a most magnetic personality, and his readings from his own works are attended with an eloquence and charm that no other interpreter of his poems could approach. He is withall an admirable lecturer.

At the Star.

"The Dainty Paree Burlesquers," which Manager Stair has selected for his attraction at the Star Theatre for next week, with matinee daily, have a number of pretty choristers, clever comedians and novel specialties, and as an entertainment is one of the richest elements of the gay burlesque, spectacular and vaudeville.

Neuralgia Griffiths' Menthol Liniment

Miss Irene Norris, Port Hope, writes: Griffiths' Menthol Liniment relieved me of neuralgia in one application, and in a short time entirely cured me of this painful disease. I was troubled for months at a time." It's the same with them all have to go when the soothing, penetrating and pain-killing liniment is applied. Why its large sale? Because it always cures and is pleasant to use. 25c and 75c a bottle.

Why He Killed Himself.

Montreal, April 16.—Rosario Ferron, a young farmer of Yamachiche, has committed suicide by shooting himself in the head. There is due me by Thomas Bellemare $2660 on the first of May, 1902. I owe to Lorrenzo Ferron $17, and he has my note for six months. (Signed) Rosario Ferron."

The Majority of People Have Impure and Poisoned Blood Coursing Through the Body in Springtime.

Paine's Celery Compound

Is the Fountain of Health, From Which the Disease-Laden May Draw a Fresh Supply of Vitality and Health.

Is your blood impure, poisoned or sluggish? It must be if you have eruptions, boils, pimples, blotches, running sores, eczema or salt rheum. With such troubles and ailments the blood is fast carrying disease and death to the body.

To be clean, sound, vigorous, healthy and happy, you must use Paine's Celery Compound before the advent of the hot summer days. At this time the vitalizing and health-giving work of Paine's Celery Compound shows quickly upon the blood, which is purified and made rich with nutriment that builds up the nerves and tissues.

Remember that "Paine's" is the kind that cures. At all times refuse the something just as good offered by some dealers.

Mr. M. D. Arthur, Chelmsford, Ont., testifies briefly regarding his rescue from a perilous condition:

"With great pleasure I write about your wondrous medicine, Paine's Celery Compound. I was laid up with sears all over my face and neck, the result of blood poisoning. While in that condition I could not sleep at night, I had no appetite, and could not attend to my work. I tested the skill of all the doctors in the district, and used their medicines, but was not benefited. I think I was miraculously saved at last. My aunt advised me to use Paine's Celery Compound. I did so to please her. In two weeks I was so much better that I could go out, and in three weeks I was able to work again. I bless the day I commenced with Paine's Celery Compound. I cannot say sufficient in praise of the great healing medicine. I would not be without it if I were obliged to pay ten dollars a bottle for it."

Brown's Corners.

A pretty and quiet wedding took place on Tuesday at St. Stephen's Church, Toronto, when Miss Margaret Woodward, daughter of James Woodward, was married to R. Churnside Duncan, of Brown's Corners. The bride, who was accompanied to the altar by her father, was beautifully attired, and looked decidedly charming. L. Woodward and his sister, Miss Ada Woodward, supported the groom and bride. After the ceremony the friends adjourned to the residence of Mr. Woodward, 111 Grace-street, where all partook of a wedding supper. Numerous toasts were proposed and responded to, and then the happy couple left amid a shower of rice and old shoes for Langstaff, where they were met by Mr. Garnis and were driven to "The Rest," his beautiful summer residence near Brown's Corners, where the hostess, Mrs. Garnis, had prepared an excellent repast. Many country friends of the groom were present to greet them, and a merry night was spent. Mr. and Mrs. Duncan left yesterday on a trip to New York and Boston. On their return they will spend the summer at "The Rest."

CITY NEWS.

In the Police Court.

In the Police Court yesterday Patrick Burke, with eleven previous convictions against him, was given 30 days for theft. Henry Moyle cycled on the footpath in Queen's Park, and was fined $2 and costs. David McKechnie had a "billy" in his possession when he was arrested for drunkenness, and a fine of $10 and costs was imposed. David Forsythe, who deals in chickens, answered an advertisement by Mrs. Mary Lowery, 217 Spadina-avenue, and arranged to purchase eight pairs of chickens for $6. It was alleged that he tried to convince Mrs. Lowery that a $1 bill, given in part payment, was a $4 bill, and she had him up for theft. He paid over $3 in court, and the charge was dismissed. The case against Ambrose McTiernan, whose place was raided on Sunday, stands for a week. For trespassing on the G.T.R. at High Park, Henry Smith and John Murphy were fined $2 and costs or 30 days, and $1 and costs or 10 days respectively.

Western Hospital Benefit.

To those who promoted the concert in Association Hall Tuesday night, in aid of the building fund of the Western Hospital, is due every credit. The seating capacity of the spacious hall proved too limited to accommodate the big crowd that attended, and many had to be content to stand. Richard Jose Ferrer, the clever Spanish violinist, was the chief attraction. Miss Eugenie Quehen contributed piano selections, Miss Helen K. Ferguson and Mrs. Maud Snarr-Hathaway sang, Miss Pearl O'Neil gave several monolog numbers and Miss Jessie C. Perry made an efficient accompanist. The concert closed with a selection by the Stantonne Ladies' String Quartet, composed of Lola Stantonne, first violin; Edna Pickard, second violin; V. Maud McGregor, viola, and Madeline Evans, violoncello.

Needs Repairing.

Altho the city spent a lot of money a few months ago repairing the drains at the Court-street station, the officers in charge of the building are complaining of a break in the pipes underneath the wagon house. The water has been dripping thru the walls in the basement for four or five days, until it is several inches deep in some places on the floor. The Medical Health Officer threatened a short time ago to close the building unless something was done, but the repairs to the drainage were deemed satisfactory, and the agitation for the erection of a new station was allowed to drop.

A Conductor's Will.

The will of the late William I. Stevens, a Toronto Street Railway conductor, who served in the Northwest rebellion, and who died in September, was filed yesterday morning for probate. His daughter, Louisa Jane Stevens, a nurse, of this city, is appointed sole executrix. Personal property to the extent of $200 is left, with a few specified exceptions, to his widow, and his life insurance in the Ancient Order of United Workmen is divided among his five children.

Who is George Bien?

The detective department yesterday received a letter from Coroner H. C. Blott of Youngstown, O., stating that the body of a young man supposed to be George Bien of Toronto had been found on the railway tracks with that of a companion. The body is that of a man about 21, grey eyes, brown hair, smooth face, wearing a grey coat and black trousers. He was apparently a boilermaker by trade, and had worked in Cleveland. If not claimed the bodies will be buried by the county.

Violated Lord's Day Act.

For working on Sunday in violation of the Lord's Day Act several Jewish clothing manufacturers appeared before Malcolm Gibbs, J.P., yesterday. Lewis Geiber was fined $10 and costs or 15 days, and the rest were remanded for sentence. A number of other informations of this kind have been laid, as the practice is becoming common. Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, Trafalgar-ave., was fined $2 and costs or 30 days for annoying her neighbors.

FATAL COAL GAS.

One Girl Dies and Another Has Narrow Escape.

St. Mary's, April 16.—A sad accident occurred at the Office Hotel here this morning, by which one young girl lost her life, and another had a very narrow escape. Emma Langford and B. O'Connell, two of the hotel servants, were asphyxiated by coal gas in their rooms during the night. The stovepipe passing thru their room came apart. Miss Langford was dead, when found, but Miss O'Connell is likely to recover. The dead girl's parents are both dead. Her former home was at Wellburn, in West Nissouri, where Mrs. Sager, a married sister, still resides.

LIBERALS DO COMPLAIN.

West Gets No Benefit From Money Spent in the East.

Ottawa, April 16.—A caucus of Liberal members was held to-day in room 16, W. C. Edwards presiding. It resolved itself into a regular "kickers'" meeting, members bringing forward their grievances in batches.

Mr. Oliver, for instance, complained that the returning officers in his riding had not yet been paid, while the members representing constituencies along the Intercolonial Railway complained of the service and the manner in which the patronage was monopolized by a few friends of Mr. Blair.

But perhaps the most significant protest raised was by Mr. McCreary of Selkirk, who complained that enormous sums were being spent on the St. Lawrence channel for which the West got no benefit whatever.

Because of the caucus, all the House committees were called off this morning.
