An Absolute Cure For DYSPEPSIA

Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Belching of gas after eating, mean weakness.

By means of its muscles, the stomach should churn the food—changing solids into liquids—mixing in the gastric juice to start digestion.

If the stomach is weak—then food is not properly churned and mixed with enough gastric juice. Then you have indigestion and then dyspepsia.

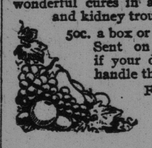
Fruit-a-tives
OR "FRUIT LIVER TABLETS"

strengthen the stomach—just as juicy beef and eggs and milk strengthen the wasted frame of a patient getting over Typhoid.

FRUIT-A-TIVES contain the elements that give new—vigor new energy—to the muscles lining the stomach—stimulate the digestive glands and assure a copious flow of gastric juice for each meal.

More than that, FRUIT-A-TIVES correct the Constipation which usually attends stomach trouble—and by acting directly on kidneys and liver, put the whole system in healthy condition.

FRUIT-A-TIVES are a peculiar combination of fruit juices and tonics that are known all over Canada for their wonderful cures in all stomach, liver and kidney troubles.



50c. a box or 6 boxes for $2.50. Sent on receipt of price if your druggist does not handle them.

FRUIT-A-TIVES LIMITED, OTTAWA.

O'MEARA AND McGILL

Two Notables Before the Court in Toronto---Yesterday's Proceedings.

A Toronto despatch says that John O'Meara, a witness from London, in the case of conspiracy to bribe voters, was arrested in the police court there yesterday morning. On the previous occasion O'Meara was arrested on a bench warrant charging him with impersonation in the Brantford election, and, so vigorously did he protest his innocence that the crown counsel admitted that an error had been made and asked for his discharge from custody, and tendered him an apology, which he refused to accept.

Yesterday morning he was again in the dock, with a charge of perjury against him, and three witnesses to identify him as the Brantford impersonator. The court refused bail, the crown officers not caring to take chances.

In the case of Charles McGill, ex-manager of the Ontario Bank, charged with making false returns to the government, it was decided that, owing to the number of important cases now pending, the matter be set aside till Friday next, and then postponed till the following Monday, when it will be continued from day to day till finished.

TO CELEBRATE ITS ANFIVERSARY

The Carmarthen street Methodist church will celebrate its 37th anniversary tomorrow, and great preparations have been made to make the occasion an indelible one in the history of the sacred edifice.

Rev. Thomas Marshall is pastor of the church, and tomorrow at 10 a. m. prayer meeting will be held; at 11 a. m. there will be a sermon by Rev. D. Hutchinson, of Main street Baptist church; at 2.30 p. m., Sabbath school service, and at 7 p. m. a sermon will be delivered by Rev. David Lang of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. At each service a collection will by taken up in aid of the Trust Fund.

The anniversary will be continued on Monday and Tuesday. Monday evening at 8 p. m., Rev. D. Hutchinson will lecture on "Our Country—or From Ocean to Ocean," and on Tuesday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, a congregational social wil be held.

The trustees require $350 to meet necessary expenses and contributions towards that amount may be sent to C. H. Hutchings or given in the collections.

Mrs. R. T. Holman returned to Summerside yesterday after a short visit here.
