AGENTS.—ON JULY 27TH THE FOLLOWING appeared in the leading papers throughout the Dominion: "Lady Macdonald and Mr. Hugh John Macdonald, M. P., for Winnipeg, request us to say that advertisements of Lieut.-Col. James Pennington Macpherson's Biography of Sir John Macdonald contain statements which are entirely incorrect. The book has no sanction nor approval, nor has the writer had any information, assistance or encouragement from either of them, nor is he in possession of any of the late Sir John Macdonald's papers, documents, or private opinions. They further desire to state that the authorization and collaboration announced in these advertisements as having been given by Sir John to this work amounted to, as they were told by Sir John himself, nothing more than a bare acquiescence in its preparation. Such acquiescence it was Sir John's custom to accord to all proposed biographies of himself, on the distinct understanding that by so doing he did not in any way imply approval, or even knowledge of their contents." Our Life of Sir John is sold to the public on its merits, and sells without the necessity of deceptive. Agent's wanted. Send 50 cents for Agent's Outfit. Circulars with terms mailed on application. VANDALISM.—Some of the guests at the Queen Hotel, Fredericton, last evening had their boots cut and destroyed by some scoundrel who seems to have taken them from the hall to his room, afterwards replacing them at the doors from which they had been taken. The party who committed this outrage is well known and is likely to pay dearly for it.

OUGHT TO BE WELCOMED BY LARGE HOUSES.—Dora Wiley, "The Sweet Singer of Maine," is very happy over the success of "Vera," the Opera Comedy, in which she is starring, under the management of clever Charles Tennis. It has beautiful music, good singers, funny comedians, gorgeous costumes, and full houses have followed her visits everywhere. Her appearance at the Institute Tuesday, after an absence of several years should be the means of an enthusiastic welcome. As a member of the Boston English Opera Company she won her way to favor in St. John, and her popularity never waned during the many visits she paid to this city—a good indication of popularity. She has surrounded herself with a good company, and they can not only sing but act, a rare combination.

FUSILIERS INSPECTION.—The 62nd Fusiliers and St. John Rifles turned out strong last evening when their annual inspection was held at the drill shed. The inspecting officer was Lieut.-Col. Maunsell, D. A. G., who was accompanied by Lieut. Carpenter of the I. S. corps. Before dismissing the battalion, Lt. Col. Maunsell addressed them, and said that while they were not perfection, he was very much pleased with the manner in which they had gone through a very severe inspection. He found the company officers well up in their duties; the attendance was good, and the men seemed fairly steady. He had also noticed that the recent orders of the major general commanding regarding drill had been rigidly carried out. The battalion was then dismissed. After the inspection, Lt. Col. Maunsell was entertained by the officers of the battalion at the club rooms.

ST. ANDREW'S RINK.—A gang of carpenters, under the superintendence of Edward Bates, began yesterday to replace the raised seats in St. Andrew's rink for the reopening on Tuesday evening next of this popular resort of amusement. Of Miss Emma Robinson says the Boston Journal: "The next number on the programme was the Gaiety skirt dance by Miss Emma Robinson, and it was danced so skilfully, modestly, gracefully that she was enthusiastically called out a second and third time." There has also been secured Prof. Skinner, the world renowned magician, ventriloquist, mesmerist and spiritualistic performer who will appear with Sheldon's original cabinet. He is an artist the like or equal of whom has never before been seen in Canada. A well-known citizen who has seen Prof. Williams, the Swiss bell ringer tells us since his coming has been announced, that he is the best bell ringer he has ever saw.

DEATH OF MRS. J. W. POTTS.—It is with regret that the sudden death of Mrs. J. W. Potts which took place last evening is recorded to day. About ten days ago while leaving the residence of a friend Mrs. Potts tripped on one of the door steps which caused her to fall. She reached home not feeling any injury, and up to Wednesday night last no serious results were felt. Thuaday morning she remained in bed but in the afternoon feeling better she was around the house as usual. Yesterday morning Mrs. Potts not feeling well did not rise and about noon she took a turn for the worst. Dr. J. Berryman was summoned, but medical aid was of no avail, and Mrs. Potts passed peacefully away surrounded by her family, shortly before 11 o'clock last evening. The deceased lady was in her 58th year and was highly esteemed by all who knew her. Neuralgia of the heart occasioned by the fall was the cause of death.

There is one thing observable about the flight of time that is not observable in the flight of anything else, that I know of; it never varies in its speed, some days seem to go faster than other, but it is only imaginary, time is neither too fast or too slow, and I have a lot of fine
